

THE HOLY FAMILY

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man. - Lk 2:51-52

FROM THE DESK OF MONSIGNOR BUTLER

A BLESSED NEW YEAR TO ALL!

As we usher in the New Year, we reflect on the challenges we faced in 2021 and ask God to continue to be with us throughout the year that lies before us. May Almighty God grant you in this new year peace, health, harmony, a spirit of forgiveness where needed, joy, and prosperity in His service. A blessed New Year to you and your loved ones.

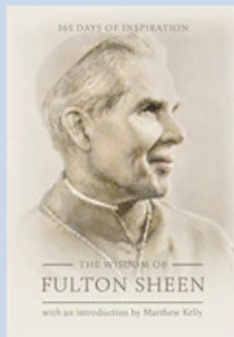

CHANGE IN DAILY MASS SCHEDULE THIS WEEK

On Monday, December 27, through Friday, December 31, we will only have one daily Mass at 8:00 a.m. We will not have a 6:30 a.m. Mass on these days. Our regular schedule will resume on Monday, January 3, 2022.

THANK YOU

Those who were able to attend Mass at Saint Clement of Rome this Christmas could not help but notice all of the wonderful sights and sounds that magnified our Liturgy...the beautiful trees, wreaths, flowers and lights, the wonderful music provided by our choir. None of this would be possible without the talent and leadership of our Liturgy and Liturgical Art Committees, our Music Director and choir, and our maintenance staff. Many thanks go out to Cathy Barsanti, Cathy Hayden, David Kowalczyk and the choir, and Shawn McIver and the parish maintenance staff. And to all of the volunteers who came to out to help, thank you. Your generous stewardship in sharing your time and your talent is truly appreciated by the entire parish.

BOOK GIVEAWAY ON CHRISTMAS

After all Masses on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, we gave away the book The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen: 365 Days of Inspiration. Fulton Sheen was one of the greatest communicators to ever live. He is famous for reminding millions of television viewers each week that "Life is worth living!" In this beautiful collection of inspiring quotes from Sheen's life and works, we are given a unique glimpse into the heart, mind, and soul of this incredible man. The Wisdom of Fulton Sheen is a powerful collection of writings that will encourage you to think differently about who you are, how your life is unfolding, what God is calling you to next, and what priorities will lead you to the peace and purpose you desire.

If you were unable to get a copy of the book on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day, you may still pick one up at the rectory during normal business hours (8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday). Please be sure to take one home to share with your family

OUR PARISH ADVENT OUTREACH - THERE IS STILL TIME TO DONATE!

This year, we once again chose Cross Catholic Outreach as our special Advent project because the work of this organization is so critical. This Advent, Cross Catholic Outreach is partnering with Father Raul Monteroso in the Diocese of Santa Rosa de Lima, Guatemala to build safe, concrete block homes for 80 impoverished families. Heartbreakingly, in the Diocese of Santa Rosa de Lima the homes children grow up in often perpetuate poverty. They live in broken-down shacks cobbled together with sticks, scrap metal and bits of plastic. Whenever it rains, the floors turn to mud and their beds are soaked. It may seem hard to believe, but a contribution of $6,034 will build a modest concrete house with a solid cement foundation and waterproof roof. If you would like to donate, please make your check payable to Saint Clement of Rome and write "Cross Catholic Outreach" in the memo. This is the final week we will be collecting for this very worthy cause.

"Whoever the poorest of the poor, they are Christ for us. Jesus under the guise of human suffering." Saint Teresa of Calcutta

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - SPIRITUAL LEADERSHIP

Joseph is a model of spiritual leadership. Humility and obedience are not things that are praised in our culture today. But, remember, our goal is not possessing more things on earth, rather our goal is eternal life with God! Spiritual warfare is real. Through silence, we are able to discern God's will for us and our families. Studies show when parents take their faith seriously, so do their children. Dads and Moms, the best thing you can do for your families is to be the men and women God is calling you to be, to be the spiritual leaders of your families. The best thing you can give your families is to teach them how to pray. archstl.org/dynamic

PRO-LIFE

Like every other human family, the Holy Family had to confront real and concrete challenges. Yet, “in every situation, Joseph declared his own ‘fiat’” (PC 3). His “yes” to the Lord meant that regardless of the hardship and personal sacrifice to himself, he consistently chose to put the needs of Mary and Jesus before his own. Joseph’s devotion helps reveal to us our own call to show special care for the lives of those whom God has entrusted to us.

MISSOURI LEGISLATORS CONSIDER EXPANDING POSTPARTUM HEALTH COVERAGE

A bipartisan group of legislators will be working this year on expanding health insurance coverage for new mothers. Last year a bill was signed into law that included, among other provisions, an extension of postpartum coverage for mental health services for up to a year, subject to appropriation.

This year, lawmakers are looking to fund that expansion and also add a broader range of postpartum health care benefits through the state's Medicaid plan.

The Senate Interim Committee on Medicaid Accountability and Taxpayer Protection included the postpartum coverage expansion as one of its recommendations in its recently released report.

During the committee hearings held this summer, witnesses asked the committee to appropriate money for the coverage extension, stating that it could be done through federal funds from the American Rescue Plan Act.

The Missouri Catholic Conference has supported the bills expanding postpartum mental health coverage and will continue to follow legislation that would expand that coverage.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

It was the best of times and it was the worst of times. Our families can bring out the best and the worst in us. This is true of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our church, our society, and the like. In all of our family experiences, what stands out as our most challenging memory? Everything human can be found on the pages of family life. But there is also a Divine story to be discovered as well. When life gets difficult and perplexing, today's Feast of the Holy Family stands to remind us that it is not just by human effort that we tread treacherous waters. We have to remember and learn from the Divine effort too. We need this perspective if our love lessons are going to be learned completely and well. We are all works in progress and we all come from homes that are broken by imperfection. In whatever life brings us and in whatever family we find ourselves, may the promptings we feel toward faith and hope lead us to greater love.

ST. STEPHEN

FEAST DAY
DECEMBER 26

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr. A man filled with grace and power, he worked great wonders among the people. Some Jews debated with St. Stephen but could not match his wisdom and spirit. Eventually, a charge of blasphemy was brought up against him, and the local population demanded that he be tried and sentenced. He was seized and carried before the Sanhedrin.

Despite the danger he faced, in front of the Sanhedrin and his accusers, St. Stephen gave a long speech about the history of Israel and the blessings that God had given upon His chosen people. He talked about how Israel had become disobedient despite God's abundant mercy. This enraged his accusers, and eventually the crowd dragged him out of the city and stoned him to death.

Even in his final moments, St. Stephen displayed great forgiveness and even asked God not to hold the sins of his attackers against them. Hundreds of years after his death, he is still a role model for us to follow.
