FROM THE DESK OF MONSIGNOR BUTLERTHE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD - CHRIST REVEALED TO THE WHOLE WORLD

When Jesus, son of Mary, son of God, was born in a Bethlehem stable, He was at once Good News to the Jewish people. Proclaimed by angels to shepherds in a field, He was the long-awaited Messiah. Those humble shepherds were not expecting anything out of the ordinary that night, but they were the first to hear God's promise to the Chosen People had been fulfilled. The story could have ended right there.

But God had another more glorious plan. The Magi were seekers, not fully knowing what they were looking for, a sign in the heavens, a bright star, pointed the way, they believed, to the birth of a new king. Certainly, the births of kings were major events, but in their seeking, the Magi were to find even more than they expected; the Savior, not only of the Jews, but of the Gentiles as well.

Jesus today, early in the freshness of a new year, is just as much the Savior of the world as He was when the travelers from the East reached their destination. We pay homage as they did, remembering He came to free us from sin and death and give us a share of his very life.

One way to acknowledge our Savior is to make a simple mark on our doorways to bless our homes for the new year. With the numerals of the new year and the initials CMB, we mark the entrance to our homes with a piece of chalk. The letters C, M, and B stand for the traditional names of the Magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. CMB also stands for the Latin words Christus Mansionem benedicat, or "Christ bless this house." With this simple blessing, we open our homes to the salvation Jesus offers and proclaim Him once again as Savior of the world.

Please be sure to take home one of the Epiphany blessing cards today after Mass along with the chalk to mark your doorway with 20+C+M+B+22 and bless your home!

OFFICE CLOSED

The rectory office will be closed on Monday, January 3, 2022 for the New Year's Day holiday. We will reopen on Tuesday, January 4, at 8:30 a.m.

DYNAMIC CATHOLIC, ALIVE! - WELCOMING AND HOSPITALITY

Two key components of Evangelization are being welcoming and providing radical hospitality. The Gospel today provides a great example of both welcoming and hospitality. The wise men traveled a very long distance to show welcome and hospitality to the "newborn King of the Jews". They provided generous gifts and gave Him homage. Mary and Joseph welcomed the strangers and presented a beautiful example of radical hospitality. Mary and Joseph were probably still extremely tired from their own journey from Nazareth to Bethlehem and from the anxiety of giving birth to a baby in a manger. However, they realized they were called to share Jesus with others and they did. How do you show welcoming and radical hospitality? When was the last time you shared Jesus with others? archstl.org/dynamic

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

PLEASE SAVE YOUR CHRISTMAS CARDS

The St. Clement of Rome Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program would love the covers of your religious Christmas cards if you don't plan to keep them. The preschool children use them to make collages and decorate their folders with the beautiful art. They can be dropped off at the rectory or school office for CGS. Thank you!

HAVE AN ARTISTIC TALENT?

We are looking for small paintings for the prayer tables in our Catechesis of the Good Shepherd atriums. If you have time for a winter project, there are 5x7" and 8x10" canvases in a basket in the vestibule under the TV. We are looking for images (no words). Examples would be: Jesus as the Good Shepherd, The Holy Family, An Angel, Jesus, the Holy Spirit Dove, a Nativity scene or Mary with Jesus. If you'd like to share your talent, please take one and return it to the rectory when complete. The children will love it. Questions? Contact Michelle at cgs@scrome.org.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Human beings easily get bored. Life's routines can become so predictable that there is often little time for excitement or freshness. Today is all about the new and the wonderful. In celebrating the beauty and simplicity of the Epiphany, we see in tangible ways God's creative, redemptive, and restorative power. This refreshment and revitalization is offered not only to a select few but to everyone throughout the world. There is nothing routine or static about God. Surprises, wonders, miracles, opportunities, healings, and joy without measure are available to those who believe. There are never any endings, just beginnings. And, when darkness, boredom, and gloom seem to be the order of the day, a bright new light now shines pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The patron saint of Catholic schools, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton (August 28, 1774 – January 4, 1821) was born in New York City to a prominent family of the Episcopal faith. When she turned 19, she married a wealthy businessman with whom she had five children. He later died of tuberculosis in 1803, leaving her a young widow. After discovering the Catholic faith in Italy, where her husband had died, she returned to New York and converted to Catholicism in 1805.

After several years struggling as a single mother, Elizabeth moved in 1809 to Emmitsburg, Maryland, where she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, the first community for religious women established in the United States. She also began St. Joseph's Academy and Free School, which started a chain reaction of Catholic-based education in the United States that continues today.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was canonized September 14, 1975 in St. Peter's Square by Pope Paul VI and was the first citizen born in the United States to be given the title of "saint."
