Strengthening and Healing Souls

HELD AT SPRINGFIELD CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL, 2340 S EASTGATE AVE

The retreat begins at 9:00am with Mass, celebrated by Bishop Edward Rice and ends at 4:00pm with a healing service led by Fr. Bibin Mathew. $20 suggested registration fee includes lunch. HELD AT SPRINGFIELD CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL, 2340 S EASTGATE AVE Be Inspired by Immaculee's Incredible Story of Forgiveness & Mercy Rwandan genocide survivor Immaculee Ilibagiza survived the 1994 bloody genocide sheltered with seven other women in a 3 x 4 foot bathroom over 91 days. During those 91 days of unimaginable suffering, Immaculee found her faith, taught herself English, and most incredibly, committed herself to a life of peace, hope and forgiveness, even for those that murdered her family. Learn of the Blessed Mothers warning of these events, and the miraculous intervention from heaven! During this retreat she will remind each of us that no matter what our circumstances, with God there is always hope. Capital Campaign Prayer

Loving Father,

You alone are the source of every good gift. As responsive stewards of your gifts and blessings, we have cultivated your Church for nearly 60 years across the towns, hills, and fields of southern Missouri.

In gratitude, we remember the faithful servants who built foundations and nurtured our growth. In hope, we pray for the faith and future of our diocese to continue the mission of Jesus for years to come. With joy, we entrust ourselves to your guiding hand as we work from east to west to fulfill your vision.

Bless our efforts to flourish and strengthen our commitment to serve your kingdom in the future. We pray for guidance, courage, and strength to move forward with confidence, faith, and for a successful campaign.

*We ask this through Christ Our Lord.
Amen.*

MORE NEWS

July 17, 2022

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God’s unexpected gifts.

Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis).”

While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the “details” of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more.

We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else. While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us!
