REWARD

“Amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward.”

MATTHEW 10:42

“Por ser discípulo mío, yo les aseguro que no perderá su recompensa”.

MATEO 10, 42

A Note From Fr. Dan-

Because of the 4th of July Holiday, there will be NO 1st Friday adoration this Friday.

The office will be closed Friday for the holiday.

As our nation celebrates its 250 birthday, we continue to give thanks to God for the blessings we receive and ask God to continue to bless America and all His children who live here.

A special thanks and God bless to Deacon John as he leaves his assignment here at St. Ambrose. God be with you at St. Bartholomew. May you know, Deacon John, you and Gwen always have a place here.

Over the next weeks, we will be getting to know Mr. Miguel Perez Salazar and Mr. Agustin Torres Lozano, the deacon candidates assigned to St. Ambrose.

Parish Financial Report

Full time employees of the parish are eligible to participate in the health insurance and dental plans offered by the Archdiocese. The employee pays a portion of the cost of the insurance through payroll deductions. The remainder of the cost is paid by the parish. In addition, the Archdiocese assesses the parish the healthcare premiums for active clergy. The total cost of health and dental insurance paid by our parish in fiscal 2026 was $192,635 or $3,705 per week.

Thank You

to all who helped with our parish festival and for all who participated in it.

Volunteer Opportunity St. Ambrose Cemetery Coordinator

We are looking for a new cemetery coordinator. This volunteer would be the primary cemetery contact for funeral homes, monument companies, grave diggers, etc., working closely with the parish office. The primary responsibility is to locate and mark graves for burial and for monument placement. Our current cemetery coordinator would like to retire soon and would be available as a resource for training. If you are interested, please call the parish office.

An announcement from ARCHINDY;

All engaged couples are invited to submit the information for their upcoming wedding to the Criterion.

<https://www.criteriononline.com/local/forms3/wedding-form.html>

Photos should be saved in jpg format and be at least 500 kb in size. Color photos are preferred. We recommend sending a photo where the couple's faces are close to each other. Please send the photo as an attachment to the e-mail: alewis@archindy.org. Subject line: Spring Marriage (Last name).

Photos can also be texted to 317-236-1585 with the couple's names.

Please note: only a family member, bride, or groom may submit these announcements. Church staff are not allowed to submit them on their behalf.

Thank you!

FREE VASES

There are a couple boxes of various vases for the taking. These vases have been collected up from donations of flowers to the church. Please stop by the vestibule in the parish center and help yourself to one, two, or all the vases!

Thank you!

Alleluia, alleluia

You are a chosen race,
a royal priesthood,
a holy nation;
announce the praises of him
who called you out of darkness
into his wonderful light.

Alleluia, alleluia.

The Little Sisters of the Poor will be visiting us on July 11 – 12.

The Little Sisters are an international congregation of Roman Catholic women religious founded in 1839 by Saint Jeanne Jugan. The Little Sisters of the Poor serve the elderly poor in over 30 countries around the world with a diverse network of collaborators.

Jeanne Jugan believed that because God is our Father, all men and women are brothers and sisters – members of one family – and thus responsible for one another. She sought to involve people from many walks of life in her mission of hospitality.

To provide for the needs of the aged poor, Jeanne Jugan walked the roads of Brittany seeking alms, carrying her begging basket. Knocking on doors, she asked for money or whatever was needed for the Residents.

Today, we continue this tradition of begging in Indianapolis. Our collecting Sisters visit local markets and businesses, seeking to provide for the needs of our Residents, just as Saint Jeanne Jugan did.

The Sisters also visit parishes on weekends to speak about our mission, encourage vocations, and take up a collection to help support our home. Since Medicaid covers a small portion of the costs of care, this is how we raise a significant percentage of our operating expenses.

The generosity of the community in central Indiana is remarkable – it is because of this that we can provide such good care to our Residents.

In gratitude, we offer a Mass each month for our benefactors, and we pray for them every day.

If you would like to donate for the needs of our Residents, please contact;

colindianapolis@littlesistersofthepoor.org.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Nota del Padre Dan-

Debido a la festividad del 4 de julio, este viernes NO habrá adoración del Primer Viernes.

La oficina permanecerá cerrada el viernes por el día festivo.

Mientras nuestra nación celebra su 250.º aniversario, seguimos dando gracias a Dios por las bendiciones que recibimos y le pedimos que continúe bendiciendo a Estados Unidos y a todos sus hijos que aquí residen.

Un agradecimiento especial y que Dios bendiga al diácono John al concluir su misión aquí en St. Ambrose. Que Dios le acompañe en St. Bartholomew. Sepa, diácono John, que usted y Gwen siempre tendrán un lugar aquí.

En las próximas semanas, iremos conociendo al Sr. Miguel Pérez Salazar y al Sr. Agustín Torres Lozano, los candidatos al diaconado asignados a St. Ambrose.

Su Sobre Cuenta—

Los empleados de la parroquia que trabajan a tiempo completo pueden participar en los planes de seguro médico y dental ofrecidos por la Arquidiócesis. El empleado paga una parte del costo del seguro mediante deducciones de nómina, mientras que la parroquia cubre el resto. Además, la Arquidiócesis cobra a la parroquia las primas de atención médica correspondientes al clero en activo. El costo total de los seguros médico y dental pagado por nuestra parroquia en el año fiscal 2026 fue de $192,635, es decir, $3,705 semanales.

ÚNETE A LA CELEBRACIÓN. DONA SANGRE.

Campaña de donación de sangre. Iglesia de San Ambrosio. Centro parroquial. Miércoles 1 de julio, de 12:00 p. m. a 5:00 p. m.

MUCHAS GRACIAS

a todos los que ayudaron en el festival de nuestra parroquia
y a todos los que participaron en él.
