Vocation or Calling

Question: Can you explain what we mean by a vocation or calling? I have heard this term used in many different contexts and am not sure what it means. Does it apply to religious life?

Answer: A vocation or calling refers to a spiritual experience whereby a person senses within oneself the closeness of God and what he is asking in one's life. It is a realization of what one's part in God's plan could be. Vocation comes in all kinds of ways. Some are as dramatic as St. Paul's, being knocked off his horse, blinded, and hearing God's voice. Others are less dramatic, often occurring over time through little events and personal interests. Others happen in a hurry, accompanied by great spiritual insight or conversion. We often think that this applies to religious vocation, but in fact, every Christian has a vocation, a calling to serve others in and through the church. Whether married or single, religious or lay, we are all called to live out our baptismal commitment to preach and teach the Gospel message. Each of us has our role to play in God's plan, and we become coworkers with God in the work of redemption. With a little confidence, a willing spirit and God's grace, we can and will respond to his unique call. ©LPi

In Sympathy

Our sympathy to the families of:

- Luke Wohlers, father of Matt Wohlers of St. Joseph, Farley
- Dorothy Meyer, mother of Duane Meyer of St. Clement and Diane Biddick of St. John the Baptist, Farley

QUESTION OF THE DAY

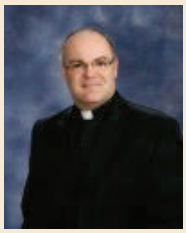
What can I give that demonstrates my acceptance of Jesus' challenge to his disciples, to give without reservation?

Baptism

Please welcome our newly baptized:

Evanie Grace Leeser, daughter of Michael and Samantha Leeser became a member of the St. Patrick, Epworth family on October 31 in the waters of Baptism.

FROM THE PASTOR



In our world today, to get "likes", "retweets", and "shares" is a sign of success. Ask a member of the younger generation if they want something to go "viral" and you will most likely get a thumbs up. There is a whole new category of people called "influencers", who seek to make their presence known on social media and to have "followers." Social scientists have noticed a tremendous uptick in anxiety and depression in the younger generation and attribute much of it to the overuse of social media and the need to be noticed in their online presence. In our gospel reading today, Jesus warns us to beware of such things and people who seek, "greeting in the marketplaces…places of honor at banquets." At the end of the day, what does "being noticed" really get you? There are countless stories of celebrities who experience loneliness, depression, breakdowns, bitterness, drug abuse, paranoia, and just flat-out emptiness. No wonder Jesus says beware of such fame!

Other items to note:

- Pray for our Confirmation candidates. We had one celebration in Peosta last Wednesday and our second celebration is this Sunday afternoon in Farley. We welcome Archbishop Jackels as he joins us to administer the sacrament.
- Blessings to our veterans as we celebrate Veterans Day on Thursday this week.
- Thanksgiving is only a couple of weeks away. We will have mass in Epworth and Peosta on Thanksgiving Day at 8:00 AM.
- The season of Advent begins on Sunday, November 28. The liturgy committee is finalizing plans for the season.
- We are going through the cemeteries one last time before winter sets in. Please remove any loose decorations from headstones.

The Bereavement Support Group continues to meet each Monday evening through November at 6:30 in Shannon Hall at St. John the Baptist in Peosta. This is open to anyone who has experienced loss through death. Attend one or all of the meetings. No registration required. All are welcome!

Seton Catholic News—The focus for this year is Seton Strives for Sainthood. At the All-School mass this past week, Fr. Kruse helped students learn about nine of the known saints and what their stories mean to us. We believe that each one of us has the potential to be a saint. We strive to be the saint that God made us to be.

The next Dubuque Rescue Mission Meal is Monday, November 22. Each parish is asked to bring the following items (enough to feed 80 people). Farley – buns, Peosta – veggies, Epworth – fruit, Bankston – dessert, Placid—turkey and ham. Please bring your food to the Epworth Church basement by 3:30 PM on Monday. Call one of the following if you can help out:

Placid: Karen Conrad 563-513-9001 or Helen Koopmann 563-513-1409
Epworth: Dianne McDermott 563-543-3721
Bankston: Ellen O'Connell 563-583-6125
Farley: Karen Hunt: 744-3918
Peosta: Diane Schmitt 563-590-1315 or Sherie Kuhlmann 563-556-3805

Clarity Clinic Grand Opening—There will be a grand opening at the Clarity Clinic for their new Tree of Life Education Center, 3365 Hillcrest Road, Dubuque on Thursday, November 18 from 9:00 AM—7:00 PM. A ribbon cutting ceremony will be at 10:00 AM. Refreshments provided. Stop by anytime during the day for a tour of this beautiful addition

There will be a presentation via Zoom on Faith, Family and Financial Security on Tuesday, November 9 at 7:00 PM in the St. Patrick Church hall, Epworth. Join Van Mueller, who is one of the top speakers in the insurance and financial industry as he discusses retirement funds and leaving money to a loved one after a sudden death. Farley/Bankston and Epworth/Placid Knights of Columbus are sponsoring this event.

TIME AND TALENT

St. Clement—Every week two people give 1-1.5 hours of time counting the Sunday collection.

St. Patrick—Forty-nine people gave 94 hours working at different stands at the St. Patrick auction.

St. Joseph—Three people gave 1.5 hours of time to a Prayer Shawl Meeting.

St. John, Peosta—One person gave 1.5 hours of time to hospitality for Steven Koopman's funeral.

St. John, Placid—Thirty people gave 130 hours of time to helping with the Fall Fun Day.

An IRA Rollover Gift Makes Sense This Year

Beginning January 1, 2020, if you were born after July 1, 1949 and have an IRA, you must take annual IRA Required Minimum Distributions (RMD) when you turn 72. If you were born on or before July 1, 1949 you are still required to take your required minimum distribution at age 70 ½.

You have to take the distribution whether you need the money for living expenses or not. If you don't need those proceeds to make financial ends meet, then we ask you to consider giving those proceeds directly to a St. Elizabeth Pastorate parish or Seton Catholic School. By doing so you pay no income tax on this RMD. More importantly, by doing so you help continue the important spiritual work that our parishes and school strive to do each and every day. It is important to first of all contact your IRA administrator to see how you can roll over into tax savings while helping support our spiritual mission. There is a specific process and forms that need to be used and they can help you through those simple steps.

There will be a Blood Drive on Monday, November 8 from 2:30-5:30 PM in Shannon Hall, St. John, Peosta.

ST. JOSEPH - FARLEY NEWS

Thanksgiving Breakfast Update – You should have received the work list and additional information regarding the Thanksgiving Breakfast. *We are still in need of cash donations to help pay for the processing of the hogs. If you can help with this, it would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Rachel Dunkel at 563-543-3479. ****

St. Joseph, Farley will hold a drive-thru breakfast on Sunday, November 21 from 7:30 AM until noon in the church South parking lot. The menu includes smoked and fresh sausage, scrambled eggs, hash browns, and cinnamon rolls. Cost of the meal is $10.

ST. JOHN - PLACID NEWS

Church Cleaning—Diane Brown, Shawn Strief, Jodi Kronlage, Kristin Hosch, Lynn Ambrosy, Kim Maahs

The St. Elizabeth Pastorate Social Justice Committee is holding its Undie Sunday collection the weekends of November 6/7 and 13/14. Bins are available at the entrances of all five churches for men's underwear, t-shirts, socks, gloves, hats, twin size sheets and blankets. All items collected will be given to the Dubuque Rescue Mission. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

WOMEN OF SERVICE

The next Women of Service gathering will be held on Wednesday, November 10 at St. Patrick Church hall from 11:00 AM until 1:00 PM. We will be writing holiday greeting cards to shut-ins and nursing home residents from our area and gathering the Samaritans Purse Christmas Boxes. There are fliers in church on the Christmas boxes. Any woman is welcome to come to this meeting. Lunch can be ordered from Pizza Factory if you wish.

CEW

Do you need a break? Something missing in your life? Are you looking for something more? Individuals, 18 and older, consider taking time for yourself to make a Christian Experience Weekend (CEW)! Unplug from the chaos of today and grow in faith, strengthen your personal relationship with God and get engaged with your Christian Community. This retreat includes talks, a sacramental presence of the Eucharist and Reconciliation. Cost is $40 for the weekend. Meals and lodging included. If the cost is too much for your budget, pay what you can. We don't want anyone to miss out because of the cost. The Women's weekend is January 7-9 and the Men's is January 14-16 and will be held at Seton Catholic School in Farley. Applications are available in the church entrances. If you have questions please contact the Lay Directors Judy Gotto 563-599-4088 or Gordon Dossey 563-543-3328.
