All in the Family

At first glance, we can often find the image of the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph and the Christ Child intimidating — who are we to aspire to that level of discipleship? How could we ever hope to conform ourselves to that mold? Sometimes, it can even be painful — perhaps we hail from a broken family or struggle with a broken relationship within our family, or perhaps we long to be a mother or a father ourselves and that state in life has eluded us.

But the image of the Holy Family is, in reality, a beautiful invitation to us all, no matter our vocation or our state in life, and the example of Mary, Joseph and Jesus is rich with the symbolism of stewardship.

You need not be a biological mother who has carried a child in her womb to be a mother in spirit. Who in your world needs you to love them with the heart of a mother?

The same goes for fatherhood. The Church and the world are crying out for the courageous witness of Christian men like St. Joseph. Who can you love with the steadfast, selfless protection of a father?

Who in your life needs you to love them with the faithful, unconditional love of a son? Who needs your gentle and constant love as a daughter?

We are the Body of Christ, friends. Those of us rejoicing in heaven, those of us suffering in purgatory, and those of us struggling here on earth. We are the great family. Let us love each other well.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPI

HOLIDAY OFFICE HOURS

The Pastorate Office will be closed on Thursday and Friday, December 30 and 31 for the holidays!

FROM THE PASTOR

Merry Christmas to one and all. I hope the celebration was festive and you had a chance to gather with some family and friends. Today, Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. This Feast is always the first Sunday after Christmas and celebrates the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph. Family is essential to our society; in fact, St. John Paul II called the family unit, “the most important unit in society.” It is within the family unit that we learn love, respect, compromise, etc. These are values that knit all of us together and are an essential good to every community. Pray for families, there are many who are under stress.

Other items to note:

- Thank you to everyone who helped plan our Christmas liturgies and decorate our churches. You are wonderful.
- I appreciate the priests who come to the Pastorate to celebrate liturgy on Christmas Eve. It really is a blessing to work with so many wonderful and generous priests who allow us to maintain our liturgical schedule.
- In particular, thank you to our Divine Word priests who help us throughout the year.
- I will be taking some time off after Christmas and will be away from the office for several days. I have accumulated a lot of personal time throughout the year and may be in and out throughout the month of January.
- Blessings to all of you as we approach a New Year. I hope 2022 is good to all of you.

End of the Year Church Donations—If you would like to have your 2021 contributions recorded this year, please have it turned in no later than Wednesday, December 29 at noon. You may also give ONLINE. Go to our website: <https://stelizabethpastorate.com> and scroll down to Online Giving and then to your parish. Your support throughout the year is greatly appreciated!

There will be NO Friday Community Meals until Friday, January 7.

Mark your calendar for the next upcoming Red Cross Blood Drive on Tuesday, January 4 from 1:00-6:00 PM at Farley Memorial Hall, Farley sponsored by Farley American Legion.

I pray that this was a season of spiritual growth while waiting for the birth of our Lord and Savior. The St. Elizabeth Pastorate is truly blessed with remarkable generosity of its parishioners. Thank you to everyone who helped prepare for Advent, especially through the ongoing challenges we faced from the pandemic. You continue to be a beacon of light that truly reflects the light of Christ. A sincere thank you to Fr. Schueller, Fr. Kruse, Fr. Boone, our deacons, guest presiders, musicians, decorators, hospitality ministers, liturgical ministers, and liturgy committee members. Your support, time, and talent are greatly appreciated. Seton News— In language arts, Mrs. Horsfall's first graders spent the week discussing the book, 'The Gingerbread Pirates'. The story is about a gingerbread pirate who meets several challenges in an attempt to be reunited with his crew. Through-out the week the students learned vocabulary from the story, talked about how the main character persevered when things got difficult, and learned how to determine who is telling the story in fiction books. The students made their own gingerbread men.
