RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

I Hope I Am Like Him

“Who is this Christ? Is he like you?”

Perhaps you’ve heard this story, often attributed to the life of St. Teresa of Calcutta. A sick man asked her this question, as he marveled at her tireless service to himself and others in the name of someone named Jesus Christ.

“He is nothing like me,” the saint is said to have answered. “But I hope I am like him.”

Though the authenticity of this exchange cannot be verified, its message rings perfectly true: all the value of our stewardship lies in its relativity to the one in whose name we perform it.

Consider the figure of John the Baptist — a magnificent, towering character even purely from a literary or historical perspective. A martyr who fed on wild locusts and boldly spoke truth to power — a man so great some mistook him for the Messiah.

But why is he great? Because he prepared the way. All his accomplishments and escapades mean nothing if they are taken out of the context of salvation history. He only makes sense relative to Christ — and this is exactly as he wanted it. “One worthier than I is coming,” he insists. And because of that humility and that total embrace of God’s will, he is given one of the greatest honors in the New Testament — he baptizes the Son of God.

Let’s examine our lives in the light of their relativity to Christ. How do we prepare the way? When Christ comes to us, what do we do? How do we leave ourselves open to be actors in God’s plan? - Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPI

- Donald Saeugling, brother of Karen Hunt of St. Joseph
- Lorraine Hirsch, mother of Dave Hirsch of St. Joseph
- Jim Wolf of St. Clement
- Dave Denlinger, brother of Vanita Bries of St. Patrick
- Deacon James Kean of St. Patrick
- John Conrad, brother of Bill Conrad of St. John the Evangelist

Congratulations to Taylor Lake and Jon Kluesner who were married at St. Clement Church, Bankston on December 31.

FROM THE PASTOR

This weekend we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, which closes the Christmas season. The child Jesus, born into the world, grew into a man with a message for each of us. Our baptism is our initiation and call into this "New Way" of life; a radical life that looks to others outside of ourselves. It is a struggle to live a Christian life at times, but also a fulfilling and rewarding life.

Other items to note:

- Deacon Jim Kean passed away earlier this week. Deacon Jim was from St. Patrick in Epworth and served our parishes with tremendous grace for 25 years as a deacon. It was an honor to work with Jim and he is one of the finest men I have ever known.
- Now that the Christmas season has concluded, we move into a short period of Ordinary Time until the beginning of Lent on Wednesday, March 2.
- The weather has turned to winter after a long run of pleasant and warm weather. We do our best to clear sidewalks, parking lots, etc., please take extra caution as you move about.
- I will be using some more additional time off that I have accumulated over the past several months. Not sure exactly what I am going to do, but someplace warm might be in my future.

The Knights of Columbus Council #5513 is hosting a traveling icon honoring St. Joseph from January 10-16 at St. John the Baptist Church, Peosta (in the Breitbach Room). All members of the community are welcome to visit during the week and to join in a prayer service on Thursday, January 13 at 7:00 PM to pray for the intercession of St. Joseph in protecting, defending, and raising future generations.

Merry Christmas and Seasons Blessings to all of you!!
A huge thank you for the many cards, gifts and greetings from all of you. I am truly humbled and blessed by each of you now and throughout the year. May God continue to bless all of you!

- Fr. Scott Boone

We will also be donating items to Opening Doors (a women's organization). Items needed are: gift cards for gas or for grocery stores, paper towels, dishwasher detergent, liquid laundry detergent, floor and bathroom cleaner or garbage bags.

Baptism of the Lord

How has the Holy Spirit, whom I received in baptism, influenced my outlook and my actions?

"The chief service I owe you, O God, is that every thought and word of mine should speak of you."
