2nd
SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." - Jn 2:4

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

It Takes All Kinds

"If every flower wanted to be a rose," wrote St. Therese of Lisieux, "spring would lose its loveliness."

Who is God asking you to be today? There is an obvious answer that springs to mind right out of the gate. God wants me to be a good person (a good father, a good husband) today; today, God wants me to be a saint.

But this answer fails to get to the heart of the question. We are all striving today to serve the same Spirit, but we are given different gifts to do so. The one who has the gift of knowledge may fail if today he decides he wants to be a healer. The one who has the gift of "varieties of tongues" might falter in the expression of wisdom.

Think about the wedding at Cana and the players in the scene: the servers, the guests, the bride and groom. They all have a unique role to play, and though it is to the servers that Mary gives the instruction, "Do whatever he tells you," her words apply to all.

Today, are we called to be the servers — do we wait on God's instruction and carry it out, no matter how foolish or impossible it may seem to our human ears? Are we asked to be the disciples, to bear witness to a miracle and to give our testimony? Are we called to imitate the Blessed Mother herself and give encouragement to follow God's word.

Let us examine our gifts and listen in the silence of our hearts to the direction of the Spirit. Then and only then, let us do whatever He tells us.

FROM THE PASTOR

After 'Decking the Halls' and proclaiming 'O Holy Night', we concluded the Christmas season last weekend with the celebration of the Baptism of the Lord. The baby Jesus grew into a man and had a message for all of us. With his baptism in the Jordan River, he set forth to bring that Good News to everyone. We now enter what we call "Ordinary Time," not ordinary in the sense of boring, plain and dull, but ordinary as in order and structure when it comes to our liturgical readings. Our reading this week is from the gospel of John and is the story of the wedding feast at Cana. Next weekend we will begin our continuous readings from the gospel of Luke.

Other items to note:

- Sr. Benjamin Duschner has decided to retire after many decades of service to the church. Sr. Benjamin, most recently, has been visiting some parishioners who are homebound, taking them communion and providing a listening ear. In the past, Sr. Benjamin spent decades in education as a teacher and principal at Seton Catholic. I will miss Sr. Benjamin and her spirit of joy that she brought to every situation.
- Deacon Jim Kean passed away and his funeral was at St. Patrick in Epworth last Saturday. Deacon Jim was ordained a deacon for the Archdiocese 25 years ago and spent those years ministering at St. Patrick and the parishes of the pastorate. Deacon Jim was a humble and prayerful man who will be missed.
- I guess winter decided to arrive; we were spoiled in December. Unfortunately, our heating bills, like yours, are going through the roof. Pray for warm weather.

We're hiring! St. Elizabeth Pastorate and Seton Catholic School is looking for a full or part-time cleaning person. Responsibilities include, but not limited to, cleaning bathrooms, dusting, sweeping, vacuuming, mopping, and taking out trash. Full-time position offers flexible hours and benefits. No nights or weekends! Please contact Chad Lukes for more information at 563-876-5540 or c.lukes@dbqarch.org.

Everyone is invited to attend a Holy Hour of prayer for a greater respect for life on Thursday, January 20 at St. John the Baptist, Peosta from 7:00-8:00 PM. Please join us in praying for a greater respect for life with an hour of prayer before the Blessed Sacrament.

Join us as the That Man is You! program continues on Saturday mornings starting January 22 weekly through April 16. That Man is You! is a popular Catholic Men's program that we have hosted in our pastorate for eight years running. The program is ideal for men who have a desire to constantly improve in their roles as husbands, fathers, grandfathers, and single men in the church. Men who want their marriages, family and Church to be Superabundant! To be clear that means more of the stuff that matters to God. Join us for a weekly boost in faith and a helping hand if needed. We meet Saturday mornings from 7:00 - 8:30 beginning with a hot breakfast followed by video presentation and small group discussion. For more information, contact Ron Brosius at 563-590-7310, Mike Capek at 563-542-7740 or Mike Sullivan at 563-495-2262.

The next collection sponsored by the St. Elizabeth Social Justice Committee will be the Baby Bundle collection. This will be held on the weekends of January 22/23 and 29/30. Bins will be available at the entrances of all five churches. The products donated will be given to Clarity Clinic and Mary's Inn, both in Dubuque. Items needed include boys clothes--newborn to 18 months, boy coats size 2 and 4, formula of any kind, diapers and wipes, baby socks, girls clothes size 2, and gift cards to Walmart or Walgreens. For more information, please contact LaVonne Wilgenbusch at 563-876-3157 or Sue Webber at 563-590-9190.

The CASA program is in need of volunteers. A CASA is a trained community volunteer who acts as the eyes and ears of the judge in a juvenile court case when a family is involved due to abuse and/or neglect. The CASA gathers necessary information regarding a child's strengths, needs and services and reports to the judge so that the judge is well-informed when making decisions regarding the health and safety of the child. The CASA also advocates for the child's medical, emotional and academic well-being throughout the life of the case. Go to childadvocacy.iowa.gov to learn more or to fill out a volunteer application.
