3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

And none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they realized it was the Lord. - Jn 21:12

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1986, 1970 OGD, ©LPI

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What prevents us from seeing the Lord? We are not used to seeing Jesus in the ordinary, everyday events of our lives. We expect some kind of startling, extraordinary revelation to occur that definitely and unmistakably sends a signal that God wants our attention. We don't expect a visit from Jesus while we are having breakfast, doing the dishes, running after the kids, negotiating a deal at work, or taking a shower! Sometimes when God simply stands on the shore of our lives casually looking for us, we don't recognize him. Did we ever stop and think that God is really and truly interested in the routine, run of the mill events of our lives? So, "what did you do today?" God may ask. Maybe we don't think that God is concerned about such things, or we are so consumed with life's demands that we give it little if any thought. Perhaps we are determined to achieve our own success, desire to control things ourselves or not really sure what God cares about. God is there. One day, out of the blue, God will get our attention and ask, "Do you love me?"
©LPI

On April 24, we welcomed our newly baptized children:

- Chase Steven Willis, son of Brian and Janel Willis to St. Joseph, Farley
- Lucille Florence Young, daughter of Robert and Jessica Young to St. John the Evangelist, Placid
- Beau Robert Brimeyer, son of Jason and Ashley Brimeyer to St. Patrick, Epworth

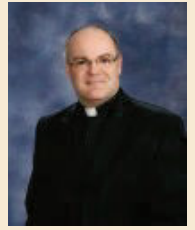

We extend our sympathy to the families of:

- Rick Cook, brother of Joyce Lehmann of St. Clement, Bankston
- Michael Hartford, brother of Debbie Jasper of St. Joseph, Farley

PRAY FOR OUR COMMUNITY

FROM THE PASTOR

He is Risen! Alleluia. We continue to move through the Easter season and are blessed with another Resurrection appearance story from the gospel of John. Jesus is walking along the seashore and encounters the disciples who do not recognize him, as they sit in their boat. Jesus tells them to put their nets into the water and they haul in a large catch. It harkens back to when he first called the disciples as they were out fishing and in this act, they recognize who the stranger is, Jesus. How do we recognize the Lord in our own lives? Do we keep our hearts, minds and eyes open to see Jesus?

Other items to note:

- First Eucharist liturgies continue through next weekend. We are having separate liturgies, outside of the regular Saturday and Sunday mass to accommodate the guests and visitors who will join us. Pray for our young people receiving the sacrament for the first time. We have just under 70 young people receiving First Eucharist this year.
- Lots of weddings again this year. We have 25-30 couples getting married in the Pastorate. Pray for them as they make their preparations and begin married life together.
- A farewell for Greg Lambert, our seminarian, is on Friday, May 13 at 6:30 PM at St. Joseph Church in Farley. All are welcome.

Mass for Greg Lambert: There will be a mass on Friday, May 13 at 6:30 PM at St. Joseph, Farley for Mr. Lambert. We are celebrating his time spent at Seton Catholic as the technology teacher and as Pastoral Minister in the St. Elizabeth Pastorate. We are excited for him to enter the next step on his journey to priesthood! He will enter seminary in August. There will be a brief reception in the church basement following mass with cookies and juice. All are welcome to come!

Please welcome Todd and Kendra Mozena, Porter, Mila and Everett to St. John the Baptist, Peosta.

St. Elizabeth Pastorate's Social Justice Committee hosts Bingo at Hillcrest's mental health unit in Dubuque the first Saturday of each month. We usually have from 20 to 30 residents playing. We celebrate birthdays for the month, then play four games of Bingo. Each person playing receives a prize for each game played. Our supply of prizes is getting low and we would really appreciate your help. If you have any of the following items to donate for the Bingo Program, you can drop them off in the Breitbach Room at St. John the Baptist Church in Peosta or contact Linda Gilligan at 563-580-0184 and she would be happy to pick them up. Items needed are soap (bars or liquid), shampoo, conditioner, hand lotion, combs, brushes, ponytail bands, barrettes, etc. Gently used stuffed animals, jewelry, baseball caps, scarves, stationary, and smaller religious items are also needed.

Plan ahead! — The St. Elizabeth Social Justice Committee is sponsoring a food pantry collection on May 21/22 and May 28/29. The most needed items include: body wash/bar soap, tooth brushes and toothpaste, dish soap, laundry detergent/dryer sheets, multipurpose spray cleaner, and sanitizer wipes. Items will be distributed locally.
