4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"I know them, and they follow me."
- Jn 10:27

Excerpt from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1986, 1970 CCD, ©LPI

World Day of Prayer for Vocations is observed today, May 8, also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday." The purpose of this day is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2).

We extend our sympathy to the families of:

- Craig Knier of St. John the Baptist
- Mark Kiefer, brother of Lynn Waelchli of St. John the Baptist

Please welcome our newly baptized:

- Coletta Mary Anstoetter, daughter of Maria and Tony Anstoetter to St. Joseph
- Cal James Mueller, son of Molly and Evan Mueller to St. Patrick

Congratulations to Emily Costello and Tyler McGovern who were married April 30 at St. John the Baptist, Peosta.

Right to Life will have Mother's Day Roses available after the masses in our pastorate this weekend for a donation.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

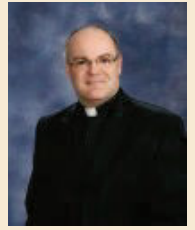

MARY IS THE MOTHER WHO WATCHES OVER US, HER CHILDREN, ON OUR JOURNEY THROUGH LIFE, OFTEN WEARY AND IN NEED, ANXIOUS THAT THE LIGHT OF HOPE NOT FAIL.

CHRISTUS VIVIT, NO. 48

FROM THE PASTOR

He is Risen! Alleluia. We continue to move through the Easter season. This weekend is sometimes referred to as Good Shepherd Sunday. Jesus is the Good Shepherd, He hears our voice and comes to our aid.

Other items to note:

- First Communion liturgies conclude this weekend. We are having separate liturgies, outside of the regular Saturday and Sunday mass, to accommodate the guests and visitors who will join us. Pray for our young people receiving the sacrament for the first time. We have about 70 children receiving First Eucharist this year.
- A farewell liturgy and reception for Greg Lambert, our seminarian, is Friday, May 13 at 6:30 PM at St. Joseph in Farley. All are welcome.
- We need ministers, lectors and Eucharistic ministers in particular. Post COVID, I am seeing many people who are assigned, but not showing up to fulfill their ministry role. Liturgy is the work of many people, and we need your talents. We need to continually expand our list of those who are willing to be trained, even if you are just willing to be a back up in case someone needs a sub or does not show up. The liturgy committee discussed this issue and we are going to work on updating our current list and try to reach out to new people who would be willing to share their time and talents. Please consider doing so.
- There was a good response to offering the Blood of Christ at the liturgies on Holy Thursday and Holy Saturday. The liturgy committee agrees it is time to offer the Blood of Christ at each liturgy for those who want to partake. However, we will need more Eucharistic ministers to make this happen. It will begin in the parishes that are able to do so in the coming weeks, with the goal of every parish offering both forms of Communion by July 1.
- The liturgy committee also discussed the current weekend mass schedule. The committee feels that the current schedule seems to work, so if you have a different opinion, please reach out to me. One liturgy that is not well attended is the 9:00 AM in Epworth and it is very difficult to find ministers for that mass, so it may be discontinued. The 7:30 AM in Epworth is very popular and would continue.

Greetings to people of the St. Elizabeth Pastorate,

As I'm sure you all know, my name is Greg Lambert and I have been living and serving here in the pastorate for the past two years. Originally, I hail from Melbourne, Florida, but upon completing my 7th year of seminary for the Dioceses of Orlando, I decided to take a year off from seminary formation. While I was contemplating what to do with my newfound free time, my brother Giovanni reached out to me and asked me if I wanted to move in with his family as they prepared for the arrival of their second child. A month later, I packed my Ford Focus with everything I owned, and headed toward my new adventure in the Midwest.

Originally, my plan was to take the year off seminary to travel and rest, but my one year in Iowa turned into two years. Soon, those two years turned into preparing to make this pastorate my home. Coming from a bigger city, finding community is a serious factor on how comfortable one can be in an area. Over the past two years I have found deep, lasting friendships amongst the fellow parishioners. I have felt humbled as these families invited me into their homes and made space for me in their personal lives. I quickly became enamored with how tightly Iowans stick together. The people of these small towns know each other and defend their community with the ferocity of fighting for a family member. This distinct characteristic of Iowa is something that endeared me to the area and has pushed me to come out of my comfort zone, while at the same time expanding my horizons.

When I moved to Dyersville two years ago, I would not have guessed that I would have been accepted with such fervent love. My time teaching at Seton in Peosta and Farley have been the highlight of my year. I would like to thank you for trusting me with the Catholic education of your children throughout the year. As this school year draws to a close, I am full of gratitude for the students and families I've come to know. Whether it's the Kluesner, Farley or Mertz family, I will carry each one of you in my heart wherever I may go. This summer I will be serving as a student Chaplain in Mason City before heading out to Mundelein Seminary in August. Onward to the next adventure!

Peace and blessings, Greg Lambert
