14th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.'"
- Lk 10:8-9

LIVE THE LITURGY

The celebration of our country's independence gives us cause to reflect on the gift of freedom. We treasure the liberties our country provides, but are they the real source of freedom? True freedom is a gift given to us by God, not by the world. In fact, the world robs us of freedom by tethering us to a need for money, power, possessions, and prestige as vehicles to success and measures of self-worth. Even though we possess certain liberties, we are held captive by a system that sees no value in the Cross of Christ. It is no wonder Jesus sent his seventy-two disciples into the world with only what they were wearing. The freedom given to us by God is a matter of the heart and requires detachment from the very things we think we cannot do without. A heart secure in God's peace is something no one can take away and something really worth dying for. ©LPI

Congratulations to Brooke Kluesner and Austin Stelken who were married at St. Clement and to Tess Brehm and John Gulick who were married at St. John, Placid.

- Betty Pins of St. Clement, Bankston
- John Etienne of St. John the Baptist, Peosta
- Jeanne Studelska, mother of Mark Studelska of St. Joseph

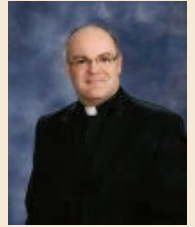

Eli Wayne Schueller, son of Bill and Molly Schueller became a member of the St. Joseph family in the waters of Baptism on June 25.

The Pastorate Office is closed on Monday, July 4 in observance of Independence Day!

The St. Joseph Class of 1972 will be holding their 50th class reunion and will be attending the 4:00 Mass this weekend at St. Joseph. Congratulations to all!

FROM THE PASTOR

Our readings this weekend continue the theme of discipleship and our call to be 'laborers for the harvest.' The work is sometimes exhausting, but richly rewarding. I have noticed a trend in recent years of very few people wanting to commit to even simple responsibilities in their parish. They mostly want to leave their options open in case something else comes up. That mindset makes it difficult for those who do step up, as they feel they are always called upon to do the work. I pray that this changes. We need lectors, Eucharistic ministers, altar servers, etc. We are all laborers in the vineyard of the Lord, and it is important we all do our part.

Other items to note:

- Fr. Kruse has returned to his home in Peosta. He is thankful for all the prayers, cards and support the past several weeks. Fr. Kruse anticipates being able to celebrate mass in one of the parishes in the next few weeks, with some assistance.
- The latest news of the Supreme Court decision to overturn Roe v. Wade has led to a lot of discussion, as well as misunderstanding. Flipping through cable news, something I should never do, immediately showed the one-sided coverage and near meltdown some are having over this issue. The Court did not "ban" abortion but returned this issue to the local level, the individual states, to decide. The State of Iowa does allow for the procedure with some restrictions. This can change, so it is important we lobby our local elected officials to protect all life in all stages of development. We must also increase our efforts to help those who are pregnant. Crisis pregnancy centers and maternity homes will be vital and must be a part of our ongoing effort. The Court has done a good thing, but our work is just beginning.
- An endowment fund has been established at St. John the Evangelist in Placid for the benefit of children who attend Seton Catholic or Beckman Catholic. There will be two $250 grants for tuition assistance this year. To be eligible, your family must be a registered parishioner at St. John in Placid, state a financial need, and demonstrate a commitment of service to the parish. Please contact me if you are interested in being considered for one of these grants. As the fund grows, more assistance will be available. Everyone is welcome to contribute to the fund.
- The cemetery in Placid is raffling off a new Can Am UTV to raise money for the new road they are installing through the cemetery. Tickets are available at the pastorate office in Epworth, $20 per ticket or five tickets for $100. The drawing will be on September 4th.
- Our nation celebrates its 246th birthday on Monday, July 4! Religious Freedom is one of the essential freedoms we enjoy in this country.
- Julyfest is next weekend in Farley. Mass under the tent at 9:30 am.

Thanks to all who for your support, prayers, visits and goodies, It will still be a long road before I am back at it, but I am on the mend. Special thanks to Fr. Mike, Dave, Donna and Adam.

~ Fr Kruse

Calling on those interested in experiencing a Service Trip with other adults from the St. Elizabeth Pastorate! The Social Justice Committee is planning an adult service trip to Williamsburg, Kentucky. The group will do construction work, including building stairs and organizational projects in the store of the Friendship Center. The trip is open to men and women. We will drive to Kentucky on Monday, October 3, work Tuesday through Friday, and return Saturday, October 8. There is a cost for each person to pay for food and accommodations. If you are interested and would like to find out more information, please call Alice Vontalge, 563-590-8141 or Jim Koetz, 563-451-9234. An informational meeting will be held at Shannon Hall, St. John Church, Peosta on Thursday, July 14 at 6:30 PM.

Synod Survey Report Available

The Synod Survey Report has been posted on the archdiocesan website at www.dbqarch.org.

This report was sent to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and is the report for the archdiocesan family as well. The report summarizes the significant findings, conclusions and next steps in this work to build parish vibrancy.

Also posted are detailed summaries from each section of the survey (including short answer questions), focus groups and copy of the survey used. This information will provide further details and support for the significant findings and conclusions found in the Synod Survey Report. It will also provide much insight into what the nearly 16,000 participants feel.

Thank you to all who provided input to assist in this important planning process.

St. Joseph JulyFest is Sunday, July 10. There will be a Polka Mass at 9:30 AM outside in the tent with Mollie B and Friends. They will also play in the tent from 10:30 AM until noon. A parade at 11:00 AM and auction at 12:30 PM. There will be children's rides and games and a tractor and vehicle display. Serving pulled pork, hamburgers, brats, hot dogs and homemade fries.

ST. CLEMENT—BANKSTON NEWS

THANK YOU – We would like to express our sincere thankfulness for the generosity of the parishioners of St. Clements and the St. Elizabeth Pastorate. As we go through this difficult time, we want to thank the CDA ladies for saying the rosary, the music ministers for the beautiful music sung at the funeral Mass, the people who brought food to the funeral home, the parishioners who brought desserts and helped at the funeral dinner. Your kind actions will not be forgotten.
~The Betty Pins Family

ST. JOSEPH—FARLEY NEWS

JulyFest is Sunday, July 10 on the St. Joseph Church grounds beginning with a Polka Mass at 9:30 AM under the tent. Following mass, there will be a parade, dinner and live auction along with games and fun for all. Please refer to the work schedule for your scheduled times to work, if your name was omitted it was unintentional and you may help out by contacting Stephanie Lake 590-6451 or Jenna Maiers 451-6516. If you are unable to work your scheduled time, please try to trade with a friend or find your own replacement. Donation items can be brought to the church grounds from 7:30-12 on Saturday July 10th or from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Sunday July 10th. Contact Karl Wilhelm 563-542-2726, Kevin Rahe 563-590-0694, Jenna Maiers 563-451-6516, Tracey Gruhn 563-590-7169, Stephanie Lake 563-590-6451, or Steve Demmer 744-3941 regarding auction donations. Question of the Week

Where do I need to sow peace this week? What will I do in order to labor for the harvest?

The next Women of Service gathering is Wednesday, July 13 from 11 AM to 1 PM at St. Patrick Church's Hall. We will focus on teachers returning to their classrooms by putting together a bag with sweets and useful teaching items. We will also cut out wall and bulletin board quotes. We are asking that everyone bring scissors and any of the following: colored card stock paper, colored or designed duct tape, or letter templates.

Building on our Little Library project from last time, for our Women Helping Women collection we will be collecting "small" stuffed animals for the Little Libraries. A ribbon and note will be tied to each one. Please wash any stuffed animals you have collected.

Cindy Recker, who helps with Open Closet in Dubuque talked to us at our last gathering. If you have any items to give to her, you can bring them to our gathering. 'How's your closet look? Do you have a plain-colored long or a flowery skirt that you have not worn in years? Is there a purse, sandals, dress, or sports shoes that no longer match your style? And those maternity items in the corner, really?! At The Open Closet in Dubuque, we have new clients locally, as well as from Guatemala, Marshall Islands, Afghanistan, Clinton, Chicago, and Rockford. The needs are great for new and slightly used clothing, shoes, purses, and basic necessities like diapers, wipes, and toiletries.'

As always, Women of Service is open to women of any age and any town. Our mission is to use our time and talents to help those in need by recycling our resources.
