Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Christ is Risen! He is truly Risen!

Having prepared for this day throughout the season of Lent reflecting upon our need for mercy and the sufferings of Jesus we come to the celebration of victory over sin and death. Sin does not have the last word. Death does not have the last word. St. Paul eloquently speaks of this victory in chapter fifteen of his first letter to the Corinthians: "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death is your sting?" The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." This is our fundamental posture toward sin and death, that Jesus is victorious. It is not to say that we do not still struggle in our life of faith, but we hold firm to the conviction that victory does not come from our own strength, but by the free gift of God in Jesus' death and resurrection. So we keep in mind that no sin is greater than that gift, and all of us are called to rejoice in that victory!

Fr. Ken

Do you desire to be equipped to live into the fullness that Christ intended for each of His followers? If so, this Day of Equipping, led by Bart Schuchts of the John Paul II Healing Center, is for you! During this training, you will learn the foundations of abiding in Christ, hearing His voice and becoming empowered to pray for others as Jesus did. If you desire the Holy Spirit operating in your life as described in John 14:12 and Ephesians 4, we invite you to attend! This Day of Equipping takes place at Holy Spirit Catholic Church in Bowling Green, KY on Friday April 26, 2019. You can register online at www.jp2healingcenter.org.

The Diocese has released a list of priests who have served in the Diocese of Owensboro against whom was made a substantiated allegation of the sexual abuse of a minor. You can find a letter from Bishop William F. Medley, the list and more on our website: owensborodicoese.org/accountability. We pray for God's peace for all.

BULLETIN BITES

"They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they have put him"

Despite all that, Jesus had done and everything he had told his friends and followers to expect, Mary of Magdala did not understand the significance of the empty tomb. Mary, unlike the disciples hiding behind closed doors, summoned up the courage to go to the tomb being guarded by Roman soldiers. When she reported what she observed to the disciples, Peter and John rushed to the tomb to confirm what Mary said, but they "did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead." Eventually Jesus appears to his disciples in a variety of ways. They come to believe that he is the Risen Lord, the Messiah. They begin to reflect on everything he did and all that he taught them. They took responsibility for growing in their faith and communicating their faith in Jesus to others by word and example. At Easter, we renew our Baptismal promises. We recommit ourselves to learn our faith and to imitate Jesus by what we say and do. That is why Easter is such a joyous celebration of the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
