Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This week we had the funeral Mass for Vonnie at the Church of the Holy Rosary in Nashville not far from Vonnie and Jim's home. I was glad to see that some were able to attend, given the circumstances. Fr. Stryker was present to preach, and they had served many years together here. She will be missed. She loved her service here, and I would say that it was not a job to her, but a vocation. And that can be an example for all of us. She offered her organizational talents for the good of the parish and we have been the beneficiaries, especially the four pastors she served with. We also had another recent death, Paula Linton, a sister to Phyllis Williams. Our prayers and condolences go to Paula's daughters, Samra and Tracy and to all the family and friends. May they rest in the Peace of Christ.

I am still seeking the CCF registration forms from some parents. The forms make it easier for us to obtain the proper number of materials for each grade, so if you have not already turned one in, please do so.

Fr. Ken

Religious Education

It is time to register for CCF this year so that we can gather materials and arrange classes. If you have not received an email with an attached registration form, please email me ken.mikulcik@pastoral.org so that I can send you one. I also have paper copies at the entrance of church.

From Pope Francis General Audience August 12, 2020

http://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/audiences/2020/documents/papa-francesco\_20200812\_udienza-generale.html

This renewed awareness of the dignity of every human being has serious social, economic and political implications. Looking at our brother and sister and the whole of creation as a gift received from the love of the Father inspires attentive behaviour, care and wonder. In this way the believer, contemplating his or her neighbour as a brother or sister, and not as a stranger, looks at him or her compassionately and empathetically, not contemptuously or with hostility. Contemplating the world in the light of faith, with the help of grace, we strive to develop our creativity and enthusiasm in order to resolve the ordeals of the past. We understand and develop our abilities as responsibilities that arise from this faith, as gifts from God to be placed at the service of humanity and of creation.

Reminder for parents: Please use the booklet, Outlines of the Catholic Faith, with your children to go over the basics and especially the prayers. Also, the Formed website or portal that is accessible through our own website is another great resource.
