Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

With the circumstances of the lockdown that we experienced around Easter and the subsequent difficulties gathering, our RCIA program was delayed this year. Thankfully, we were able to continue formation eventually, aided by online communication and we finished preparations for the Sacraments. So this past week we had the blessing of having the reception into full communion in the Catholic Church of the Britt family celebrating the sacraments of Confirmation and First Holy Communion. Congratulations to Adam, Crystal, Hannah and Sam who are now fully initiated in the Catholic Church. The younger ones, Mary Elizabeth, Rebecca and Ben were baptized a few months ago. We are thankful for the graces that led them to this point and for all of the good example along the way that brought them here.

A portion of our religious education materials have arrived and we are in the process of getting them out to families. These include catechism workbooks and Scripture workbooks that I am hoping will be a user-friendly tool for parents. Other materials will be made available when email addresses are received. You may send a message to Melanie to let her know your email address: melanie.abney@simpson.kyschools.us

Finally, thank you to all who have contributed to the Disciples Response Fund over the past year. Our last refund from it came and was $240.00. It will not be long before we begin another appeal.

Fr. Ken

Religious Education

It is time to register for CCF this year so that we can gather materials and arrange classes. If you have not received an email with an attached registration form, please email me ken.mikulcik@pastoral.org or Melanie Abney melanie.abney@simpson.kyschools.us so that I can send you one. I also have paper copies at the entrance of church. Materials have arrived and we will be contacting parents to pick them up or receive them by mail.

From Pope Francis General Audience

August 26, 2020

http://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/audiences/2020/documents/papa-francesco_20200826_udienza-generale.html

In fact, the earth “was here before us and it has been given to us” (ibid.), it has been given by God “for the whole human race” (ccc, 2402). And therefore it is our duty to make sure that its fruit reaches everyone, not just a few people. And this is a key element of our relationship with earthly goods. As the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council recalled, they said: “Man should regard the external things that he legitimately possesses not only as his own but also as common in the sense that they should be able to benefit not only him but also others” (Pastoral Constitution Gaudium et Spes, 69). In fact, “the ownership of any property makes its holder a steward of Providence, with the task of making it fruitful and communicating its benefits to others” (CCC, 2404). We are administrators of the goods, not masters. Administrators. “Yes, but the good is mine”: that is true, it is yours, but to administer it, not to possess it selfishly for yourself.

Reminder for parents: Please use the booklet, Outlines of the Catholic Faith, with your children to go over the basics and especially the prayers. Also, the Formed website or portal that is accessible through our own website is another great resource.
