Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In this month of November we have the tradition of remembering our beloved loved ones who have died. We pray for the eternal rest of their souls all year but perhaps especially this month following All Souls Day. Over the past year since last November we have had the funeral rites for a number of parishioners or those who have lived here in the past including: Flo Kemp, Brian Wheeler, Frank Thurmond, Vonnie Thomason, Paula Linton, and John Higgins. We also lost others from the parish whose funeral rites were not celebrated here: Jean Maiszak Fransen, Rita Polak Hamilton, Jack Prestley and Steve Prestley. And we remember other loved ones who were not directly connected to the parish: Len Embry, father of Raquel Higgins and Karen Essenpries, daughter of Joe and Sandra Lennon. If there are others whom I have not included here, please let me know. We lift all these loved ones up to our Lord with confidence and trust in his great mercy for all of his children.

Also, as religious education materials are being sent out, I would like to ask our parents to attend to two matters regarding safe environment, both of which are found on our diocesan website. The first is "Teaching Tools for Parents" found on the Safe Environment section under Training Minors: Circle of Grace and can be found here: <https://owensborodiocese.org/wp-content/uploads/ParentSEBooklet.pdf>

A complete Opt-out form will need to be returned to the parish.

Thank you for your efforts and patience with this important matter.

Fr. Ken

Religious Education

Tips for parents for catechesis in the home:

- Pray!
- Just do it! And be consistent especially with the time given.
- Include devotions: Rosary; Angelus; Act Contrition; Scripture reading together; Readings for the day are helpful as found in The Word Among Us.
- Include Saints in the lessons. (Saints books are helpful, and the Saint of the day.)
- Read the lesson ahead of time.
- Set a time each week.
- Don't be afraid to say "I do not know, but I can find out. I will write it down and ask Father Ken later."
- Older kids can assist younger kids.

From Pope Francis, General Audience, Wednesday, September 30, 2020

http://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/audiences/2020/documents/papa-francesco\_20200930\_udienza-generale.html

In recent weeks we have reflected together, in the light of the Gospel, on how to heal the world that is suffering from a malaise that has been highlighted and accentuated by the pandemic. The malaise was already there: the pandemic highlighted it more, it accentuated it. We have walked the paths of dignity, solidarity and subsidiarity, paths that are essential to promote human dignity and the common good. And as disciples of Jesus, we have proposed to follow in his steps, opting for the poor, rethinking the use of material goods and taking care of our common home. In the midst of the pandemic that afflicts us, we anchored ourselves to the principles of the social doctrine of the Church, allowing ourselves to be guided by faith, by hope and by charity. Here we found solid help so as to be transformers who dream big, who are not stopped by the meanness that divides and hurts, but who encourage the generation of a new and better world.
