Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
 This weekend we begin a new Church Calendar year with the First Sunday of Advent. Each year we begin with a practice of anticipation of our Lord's coming. Our focus, while reflecting the hopes of Israel through its history for a Messiah, also includes our anticipation of our Lord's coming in glory. A perennial message in this is that the time is near, and we are to be ready. The season of advent invites us to prepare our own hearts for the coming of Jesus as we focus upon the mystery of the first coming of Jesus in the flesh. Things of this world do not last forever, and we recognize them as passing as we wait for Jesus. This year has offered us a reminder that things of this world, including many non-material things, and our life here do not last forever. We can receive that as a gift, opening us up to the desire for the eternal good of being with God forever, rather than further attachment to the passing goods here that are to point us to God instead of distracting us from God. As we begin our new Church Year one thing different is that our music will include songs with which we are familiar. We now have a license to include certain songs in our streaming Masses. Up to this point we have been using only public domain material for those Masses. Given our limitation of having one musician and one cantor without congregational singing, at least we will have a more familiar set of songs. Hopefully, later in 2021, we will be able to sing as a congregation. Next to having a full church, that is one of the things I am looking forward to most!

Fr. Ken
