Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

This week we have two great Marian celebrations, the Immaculate Conception on Tuesday evening at 6:00PM and Our Lady of Guadalupe (in Spanish) on Saturday morning at 10:00AM with the Rosary at 9:30AM. Ordinarily the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception would be a Holy Day of obligation, but that obligation is dispensed this year. One should still observe the day in some way with a Marian prayer or devotion or a prayerful reading of Scripture just as Sundays are still days to observe the Resurrection of Jesus, even if one is not attending Mass in person. For the Latino community the celebration of Our Lady of Guadalupe is huge and would typically involve a novena from house to house (packed!) prior to the day and a procession on the day. All of that has to give way to keeping our distance this year. But we celebrate as we can just as we will at Christmas. As we experience the difficulties of the present circumstances, we long for a change. Perhaps that longing can remind us of the longing for the coming of Jesus who took on flesh in the fullness of time and at the “yes” of Mary. Her situation was one of longing, and her cooperation was in a way that she did not know how it would come about. “How can this be?” she asked. Our cooperation with the Lord now is not in a manner in which we understand everything completely. We cooperate with the Lord in faith, like Mary.

Fr. Ken

MARRIAGE ANNIVERSARIES THIS WEEK

From: POPE FRANCIS, GENERAL AUDIENCE
Wednesday, 2 December 2020

Today we will reflect on an essential dimension of prayer: blessing . We are continuing the reflections on prayer. In the creation accounts (see Gn 1-2), God continually blesses life, always. He blesses the animals (1:22), He blesses the man and the woman (1:28), finally, He blesses the Sabbath, the day of rest and the enjoyment of all of creation (2:3). It is God who blesses. On the first pages of the Bible, there is a continual repetition of blessings. God blesses, but men give blessings as well, and soon they discover that the blessing possesses a special power that accompanies the person who receives it throughout his or her entire life, and disposes the person's heart to allow God to change it (see Second Vatican Council Const. Sacrosanctum Concilium, 61). ... God's greatest blessing is Jesus Christ; His Son is God's greatest. He is a blessing for all of humanity, He is the blessing that saved us all. He is the eternal Word with which the Father blessed us "while we were yet sinners" (Rm 5:8), St Paul says: the Word made flesh and offered for us on the cross. ... We cannot but bless this God who blesses us; we must bless everyone in Him, all people, to bless God and to bless our brothers and sisters, to bless the world - and this is the root of Christian meekness, the ability of feeling blessed and the ability to bless. If all of us were to do this, wars would surely not exist. This world needs blessings, and we can give blessings and receive blessings. The Father loves us. The only thing that remains for us is the joy of blessing Him, and the joy of thanking Him, and of learning from Him not to curse, but to bless. Here, just one word for the people who have the habit of cursing, people who always have a bad word, a curse, on their lips and in their hearts. Each one of us can think: Do I have this habit of cursing like this? And ask the Lord the grace to change this habit because we have a blessed heart and curses cannot come out of a heart that has been blessed. May the Lord teach us never to curse, but to bless.
