'Do You Love Me?'

In today's Gospel, we find the Apostles dejected and discouraged following the death of our Lord. Poor Peter decides to throw in the towel on the whole disciple thing and go back to his old way of life, declaring, "I'm going fishing." Upon hearing this, the other disciples follow him.

How easy it is for all of us to backslide on changes we have made in our lives, especially when it comes to our spiritual lives. But look how Jesus treats the disciples during their "backslide." He is right there with them in the midst of it, already waiting for them on the shore when they come back from their unsuccessful return to the fishing business (after abandoning their mission as disciples). Our Lord greets them tenderly, gives them some fishing pointers, and then prepares their breakfast. How gracious He is to them!

He is just as gracious today. When we find ourselves "out at sea" — discouraged by our failures or for squandering the gifts God has given us, or simply by a lack of progress in our faith life, Jesus is with us! He is calling to us from the shore to come back to Him without shame or embarrassment, but with hope-filled trust in His steadfast love. He never tires of offering "do-overs" if we just keep returning to Him.

This constant process of turning back to the Lord, of reevaluating our goals and priorities as we aim for Heaven, is the essence of a true Christian way of life. Let us take heart as we continue our journey today, secure in the knowledge that Jesus is beside us every step of the way.

Fr. Lukee

MASS INTENTIONS

Great News! Due to the large demand for mass intentions, Father Lukee has decided to open up the weekend masses to allow for two mass intentions per mass. One person from each family will be welcomed to bring the gifts up to the altar.

There is still a $10 fee per family or person. For example, one mass for a husband and wife would be $10 but if you add another family member it would be an additional $10. Another example would be having a mass for the deceased of one family and of a second family, the stipend would be $20. Please call with any questions that you may have.

We now have the mass intention book opened for 2023. We are asked to limit the mass intention request to four weekend masses per family, but as always weekday masses are available. If you are interested in booking a mass intention, please stop in or call the office at 920-863-6113.

Parents, here is your chance to let us know how we are doing with Faith Formation. Join us on May 11th at 6pm at St. Joseph. Come with your questions, comments and ideas! We will also be talking about what next year will look like.

Congratulations to the students who received their First Holy Communion at St. Thomas the Apostle parish. May they inspire us to always receive Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament with such joyful anticipation and excitement, and with hearts open to receive His graces.

Impacting the Lives of Children

The future of our Church needs young people to be alive in their faith today. Through the many education and faith formation programs of our Diocese, we are able to teach children to know and love Jesus.

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal allows students in Catholic schools, faith formation programs and youth ministry to draw closer to Christ and each other on a regular basis. Young people founded in Catholic education are the future of our Church and good citizens in our communities.

Your gift to the Bishop's Appeal makes a difference in the Catholic education of children across our 16-county diocese. To make a gift today, contact your parish, visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580, ext. 8123.

Missionary Discipleship Corner

How often have you been moved by the incredible beauty of God's creation - planet earth? Every day during our recent stay in Florida, I was amazed by nature's many wonders. One such example was witnessing an osprey catch a fish for dinner. It was incredible to watch the bird position the fish in its talons, using the laws of physics to carry the fish to the nest in the most energy efficient way. It was enlightening to watch the bird and plant life change as the season moved from January to April. Back home in northeastern Wisconsin, we are blessed to witness the "rebirth" of our land as spring arrives. Trees begin to bloom and migrant birds return to our backyards. This transformation reminds me of the saying that "hope springs eternal."

It was a "God-incidence" that a recent episode of The Chris Stefanick Show on Formed.org focused on, "God and the Great Outdoors." Ashley Piche, Executive Director of Creatio.org, was the featured guest. This organization hosts mission trips, pilgrimages, and adventures that are designed to share the truth, beauty, and goodness of the world God created. While the target audience of Creatio.org adventures is 18 - 35-year-olds, the message of this episode is universal. Ashley shares her conversion story and how the spirit of forgiveness led her to become a member of the Catholic church just a few years ago. In addition, her passion for the wonders of nature led her to Creatio.org.

The Chris Stefanick Show on Formed.org has become "must-see TV" for me. Even if I don't watch it live on Monday nights, I can check it out whenever the spirit moves me on Formed. If you have a chance, I highly recommend this episode. In addition, check out the Creatio.org website. There are several exciting opportunities available for faith-based travel adventures!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS
Gifts in Disguise

Have you ever opened a gift and wondered what the giver was thinking? I won't call out any of my family or friends here, but suffice to say, I think we have all been the confused recipient of a sweater that wasn't our size or a gift card to a store where we don't shop. But we smiled all the same and said how much it meant to us, because we know that when it comes to gifts, it's all about the gesture. Suffering is a lot like that — the gift you never asked for, and don't really want to receive. Sometimes we look at suffering and, like the apostles who see Jesus as a stranger on the shore, we don't recognize it for what it can be. We don't appreciate the catalyst suffering can be for change, for growth, for grace. What was the gift that you received in disguise? Was it a relationship that confounded and frustrated you? Was it a job that tested your spirit? An obstacle that stopped you dead in your tracks? A rejection that threatened to break your spirit? If I go back and look at the worst gifts I've ever gotten, chances are that I didn't like them because I didn't know what to do with them — they were more fitted for someone else's interests, someone else's life. It's the same with suffering. We're tempted to cast suffering aside when it comes our way because it doesn't fit the person we are. Suffering is made to fit the person God knows we have the ability, with His grace, to become. Hang onto that suffering. Unlike the misshapen sweater, it really will come in handy. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Missionaries for Our Children

SPIRITUS Missionaries Are Inspiring Our Youth

SPIRITUS missionaries are young adults who give nine months of service to ignite the faith of our Catholic youth. They will be here Sunday, May 8th to share how they are inspiring the youth of our parish and parishes throughout mostly Wisconsin but also other states. After their brief witness, they will invite parishioners to partner with their missionary efforts through prayer and financial support. We hope you will join in this vital mission of the Church.

"Faith is God's gift and it grows thanks to the faith and charity of evangelizers who witness to Christ." Pope Francis
