'Loving is Living a Life of Service and Self-Sacrifice'

Today's readings on this fifth Sunday of Easter contain inspiring but challenging messages for us Christian stewards.

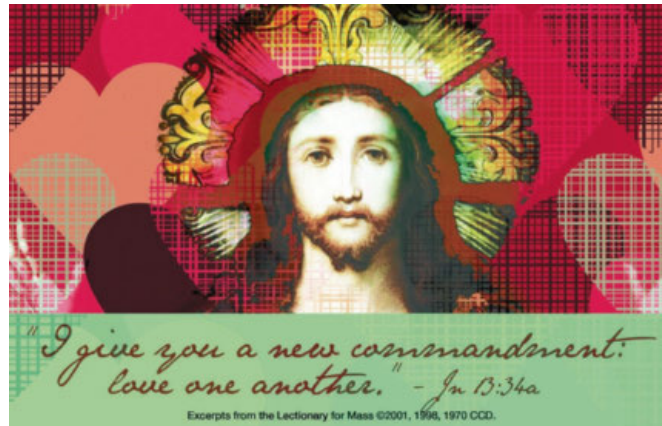

The Gospel from John includes this well-known verse: "My children...I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." What a succinct description of a stewardship way of life. It sounds so simple. But simple does not necessarily mean easy.

How exactly is Jesus Calling us to love? As He, Himself loved. Jesus loved (and loves) by serving us and by making a sacrifice of His very life for us. That is a tall order.

Living a life of service and self-sacrifice is not easy because it requires us to continuously fight against our selfish inclinations. But the more we empty ourselves of "self" by serving others, the more room we make in our hearts for God to pour His grace into us. Amazingly, the more we give our lives to others, the more He fills us up with Himself who is love itself.

And amid the inevitable challenging moments this way of life entails we can be assured that the Lord who loves us so much that He died for us and established the Eucharist to be our strength and nourishment, is right here with us every step of the way. As we face the hardships that come with living as Christian stewards, we can continue to rejoice in the wonder of the Resurrection this Easter season, finding great joy in following in our Lord's footsteps and in loving as He loves.

MASS INTENTIONS

Great News! Due to the large demand for mass intentions, Father Lukee has decided to open up the weekend masses to allow for two mass intentions per mass. One person from each family will be welcomed to bring the gifts up to the altar.

There is still a $10 fee per family or person. For example, one mass for a husband and wife would be $10 but if you add another family member it would be an additional $10. Another example would be having a mass for the deceased of one family and of a second family, the stipend would be $20. Please call with any questions that you may have.

We now have the mass intention book opened for 2023. We are asked to limit the mass intention request to four weekend masses per family, but as always weekday masses are available. If you are interested in booking a mass intention, please stop in or call the office at 920-863-6113.

NEWS FROM OUR PARISH TEAM

Dear Parishioners,

During the Summer and Fall of 2019, we held several meetings related to the Parish Mission Planning effort that was developed in 2018 and 2019. The details of the Parish Mission Plan can be found on our website. In short, the plan focuses on 5 important pillars: Establishing our Mission/Vision Statements, Prayer, Health/Wellness, Hospitality, and Developing Future Leaders.

The pandemic slowed our efforts down since it was difficult to have many in-person activities and gatherings during 2020 and 2021. I have consulted with your parish councils and Trustees, and we all agree that the time has come for us to resume the focus on implementing the plans that were made related to our parish mission.

To that end, effective in May, Bill Meo will be directing his attention to re-energizing our efforts around the Parish Mission Plan, and he will step into the role as Discipleship Coordinator. Bill has great enthusiasm for the plan and for working with parishioners to organize programs and events that will bring joy to our community. Bill's new e-mail address will be: discipleship@threecatholicchurches.com.

Earlier this year, Mike Mleziva accepted the role as the new Business Manager at the Three Catholic Churches. Mike brings a wealth of business experience, as well as a great knowledge of the workings of our parishes having served in numerous capacities over the years. Mike and Bill have been working together to ensure that the business of the parish continues to run smoothly. Mike will take over the e-mail of business.manager@threecatholicchurches.com.

We are extremely optimistic that adding Mike's fresh perspective will make our parish office team even stronger, and moving Bill into the Discipleship role will allow us to make progress on our goal of advancing our plans related to Parish Mission Planning.

God's blessings, Father Lukee

Missionary Discipleship Corner

I love reading Father Lukee's reflection in the bulletin every week! Early each week, Father sends over his reflection for the upcoming weekend, so that Annette can place it into the bulletin and we may post it on the parish website. We generally place Father's words of wisdom on the website on Tuesday or Wednesday so that parishioners and visitors are able to look ahead at the readings in preparation for weekend Mass.

I am not sure when I started to "prepare" for Mass ahead of time by taking a look at the readings in advance. It was likely from a suggestion from a friend, and I would love to say I faithfully read the Mass readings ahead of time every week, but often life gets in the way and I forget to do this. I do know that on the weekends when I take the time to look ahead at the readings, I tend to be much more engaged in the Mass and I better connect to readings and the homily message. If you have a moment before Mass next weekend, take a peek at Father Lukee's Reflection on our parish website.

This weekend, Father reflects on Jesus' teachings about love. Earlier this week, Mike Mleziva and I met to talk about the resumption of some of the events promoted by our Parish Mission Plan. Our plan is to host studies, talks, and parish "happenings" that provide our community members opportunities to gather together and enjoy the love of neighbor that Jesus desires for us. Please do not hesitate to share any ideas you may have for programs that interest you. I will be in the office most Mondays and Wednesdays so feel free to drop in for a chat. Otherwise, call the parish office or e-mail me at discipleship@threecatholicchurches.com. Have a great week!

Peace & Joy! -Bill Meo

Strengthening Faith through Adult Faith Formation Programs

Recent history bears witness that if adults are not well-formed in the Faith, the younger generations will lack formation as well. But with solid and vibrant adult faith formation programs, a personal relationship with Christ is better fostered among parishioners, the Sacraments begin to take on more relevance in everyday life and the motivation to share the Good News with those outside the flock is awakened. From there, the good work of catechizing children by the local parish is more likely to be reinforced by well-formed parents. In short, the benefits are incalculable!

Joe Tremblay serves as Parish Evangelization Director for our Diocese and assists parish leaders in bringing souls to Christ. Thanks to the Bishop's Appeal, he can provide resources, guest speakers and curricula to help parishes advance the mission in forming adults through Christ.

Please prayerfully consider making a gift to the Bishop's Appeal. To make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, contact your parish, visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/ give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580 ext. 8123.
