'Hospitality to the Blessed Trinity'

The concept of hospitality is fundamental to a stewardship way of life. When we envision hospitality, we naturally think of offering a sincere and warm welcome — to those new to our parish, for instance. We picture inviting them in and making them feel at home and at ease in our presence, communicating to them that they are highly valued.

Today's Gospel reading from John invites us to think of hospitality in a slightly different way. In it, we hear Jesus speaking this to his disciples: "Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him."

Jesus is asking that we permit the Blessed Trinity to come and dwell within us. This is a stunning request. It tells us that our first and most privileged form of hospitality should be directed towards God Himself.

How does one show hospitality to God? How do we make God "at home and at ease" within us? How can we communicate to God that He is "highly valued" by us? Jesus tells us how: we are to keep His word, to follow HIS teachings.

To keep His word, we must know His word. This takes discipline and effort on our part. We must make the study of Scripture and Church teaching a priority in our daily lives.

If we want our parish to be a place of genuine Christian hospitality, we must be sure that our own hearts are hospitable dwelling places for the Blessed Trinity. Then our smiles and words, our greetings and ministries will radiate with the warmth of God's love. And our parish family will become at least a little bit like Heaven on earth. This is the simplicity and glory of a stewardship way of life.

The Sanctuary Lamp at St. Kilian is burning in memory of Dolores Peters & Harvey Anderson

The family of Marilyn Schraufnagel would like to thank everyone in our Faith Community for your prayers and sympathy for the loss of Marilyn. With a special thank you to Father Lukee, Molly, Amy, Ray and the kitchen crew.

Would you be interested in visiting with our parishioners who are homebound and bringing them Communion? We will be holding a Care Ministry training for new volunteers on May 24th, 10:30am at St. Thomas. Please contact Molly Gallagher parish.ministries@threecatholicchurches.com or (920)-737-1805 to learn more or sign up. Just a short visit can make someone's day!

St. Thomas Sanctuary Candle

Starting in June St. Thomas is offering the sanctuary candle to be burning "In memory of" for anyone who may be interested. The stipend is $15 for the two weeks and your "In memory of" will be in the bulletin. Please call the parish office to request.

Sign up for Totus Tuus is still open. There are brochures in the back of church at all three parishes or on the website under the registration tab. If you have any questions please contact Becky Livingstone at faith.formation@threecatholicchurches.com.

The Totus Tuus day program runs from 9am-2pm. This timing can be difficult for working parents to get their children to and from church. If this is an obstacle to your child attending, please contact Becky at faith.formation@threecatholicchurches.com. We are looking into having a bus or shuttle for those families if the need is there.

Welcoming New Catholics

This Easter Season is a wonderful time to celebrate our faith and the Resurrection of our Lord. For those newly initiated into the Catholic Church, this spring also marks a milestone on their faith journey.

With help from parish-directed programs called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA), candidates received the resources, support and knowledge needed to take the next step in their journey of faith. The RCIA program begins at the diocesan level, and parishes receive assistance in helping people come into full communion with the Catholic Church. With a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, you help parishes enhance their RCIA programs and welcome future, newly formed Catholics.

To make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, contact your parish, visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/ give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580, ext. 8123.

St. Joseph would like to thank our, Anonymous,
Month of May "Be The Light" sponsor

St. Kilian is looking for additional people, (can be either men or women) to usher at the 4pm Masses.
Please contact Gloriann at 920-536-0069

Help Needed to for the Totus Tuus Missionary Team

We are in need of 2 families to host the Totus Tuus Missionary Team for the week beginning July 9th through the morning of July 15th. These families would host either 2 males or 2 females for the week. Please contact Becky Livingstone at faith.formation@threecatholicchurches.com if you would be interested.

If hosting is not possible for you, consider having the team of 4 over for one of the supper meals during the week or volunteering during the day to help out. Keep watching the bulletin for more opportunities to support the youth of our parish during the week of July 10th-15th.

Missionary Discipleship Corner

On the cover of today's bulletin, Father Lukee speaks about the concept of hospitality in light of our relationship with God. In working with Father and learning from him, I really enjoy how he takes the opportunity to lead us down many different paths with his insights. In this case, he leads us from the concept of hospitality, to Love of God and studying our faith.

The podcast "The Bible in a Year" continues to be a leading podcast in the U.S. Father Mike Schmitz and Jeff Cavins do a terrific job of walking participants through the Bible with daily episodes aimed at making God's word accessible to anyone and everyone. Father Mike also has a weekly podcast that covers a variety of different current topics. I recently listened to an installment entitled "Does God Have a Love Language," and it connected so beautifully with Father Lukee's reflection about how we show our love for God. In short, Father Mike suggests that God chooses to speak to us in the way in which we need to hear the message. As I ponder Father Lukee's encouragement, each of us has different preferences in terms of how we approach learning about a topic. When tackling a challenging project, my approach could include watching a "YouTube" video, reading articles, and/or speaking directly with subject matter experts. It is most important that I choose the method that will allow me to best absorb the material.

As you approach your study of Christianity and our Catholic faith, consider how God might be trying to reach you. Is it through a book about the Saints, or a podcast hosted by somebody like Father Mike Schmitz? Perhaps it is a Formed.org movie about Fatima, a Father Larry Richards audio program, or an in-person study like "The Search" or "Alpha." I would love to hear your stories of how God speaks to you and the "vehicle" that he uses that most helps you receive his message! Peace & Joy!

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Management According to the Apostles

If you've ever worked in any kind of organization, for-profit or not-for-profit, I'm sure you have attended a conference or two. Whatever our expectations going in, I usually find these conferences expose me to communication and problem-solving styles that are different from my own, nudging me into a little unexpected self-discovery. And it's a great opportunity to meet new people and do something different.

Here's my idea for a leadership conference: The Management Style of the Apostles. Think about it, the only thing the Apostles had more abundantly than holiness was problems. Lots and lots of problems ... most of them of the human resources variety. It's no small feat, starting Christ's Church on earth. I wouldn't want to be project manager of that endeavor.

The Acts of the Apostles is, in some ways, a big book full of problems and ways to solve them. It's a blueprint for tackling interpersonal issues in the manner of a true steward, who encounters every problem starting from the same place: What would my Master want?

It's a question we should be asking ourselves every time we, too, encounter a problem — especially problems relating to other people. What is the truth in this situation, and how would God have me communicate it? How could I handle this in a way that is worthy of the name of my Master?

In Acts, we see a lot of characteristics of everyday stewardship. We see the Apostles mindfully acknowledge the lack of peace that is posed by problems like false teachings, this Gospel's problem du jour. They prayerfully confront the obstacles to salvation posed by these issues. Always, always, always, their main objective is to reveal the will of God, remaining committed to the truth while helping newcomers find avenues to salvation.

Maybe I'm just saying it because it's my idea — but it sounds like a conference we could all use.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

7 Things Every High School Graduate Should Hear

1. Live with intention. College will be full of new opportunities. Think carefully about your priorities for your new start.
2. Make the right friends. There will be plenty of new people! Concentrate on the ones who motivate you to be a better person.
3. It's a big world! Look for new perspectives, new opportunities, and new ideas that push you to grow.
4. Find a mentor. Building relationships with people who have "been there, done that" can be a great help.
5. Give yourself away. You may not need to volunteer anymore, but you'll surprised what you learn, how you grow, and who you meet when you serve.
6. Before you go, learn how to do your laundry, address an envelope, schedule a doctor's appointment, use public transportation, and cook basic meals (ramen doesn't count!).
7. Remember that God is in control. And that's a good thing!
