'Our Lives Should Speak as Witnesses of the Gospel'

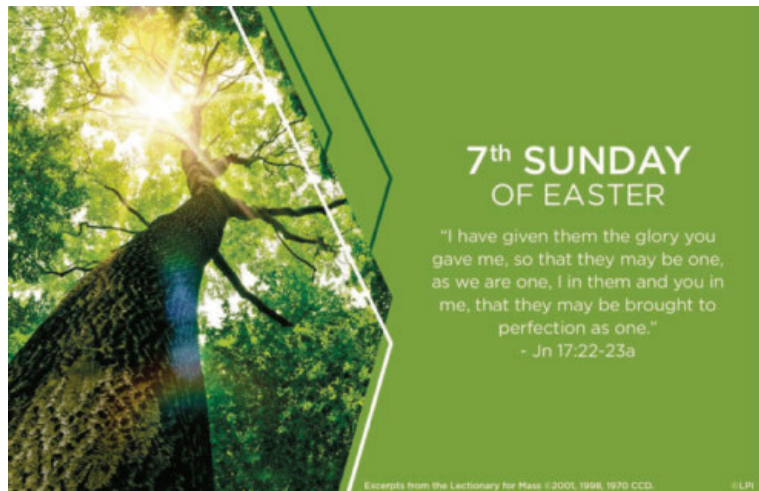

On this Feast of the Ascension, we celebrate Christ's triumphant return to the Father after perfectly accomplishing His mission on earth. But we also can view this Feast as a celebration of the "launch day" of our commissioning as Christ's disciples.

Today's Gospel draws our attention to the clear instructions that Jesus gave His disciples (and to us) just before ascending to the Father: "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Embracing a stewardship way of life, with its emphasis on the use of time, talent and treasure, helps us to live in such a way that our very lives speak as a witness of the Good News of the Gospel. While we take time to reflect and renew our commitments in these three areas annually as a parish family, it is of great benefit to take some time individually throughout the year to take stock of the commitments we have made — looking at both our strengths and our need for continued growth in each area.

On this Feast of our "launch day," take some time to celebrate your victories as Christ's disciples and renew your commitment to remain faithful to Him and the unique mission He has entrusted to you!

Fr. Lukee

The Totus Tuus day program runs from 9am-2pm. This timing can be difficult for working parents to get their children to and from church. If this is an obstacle to your child attending, please contact Becky at faith.formation@threecatholicchurches.com. We are looking into having a bus or shuttle for those families if the need is there.

Pentecost

Pentecost is the important feast day that marks the conclusion of the Easter Season and celebrates the beginning of the Church. Pentecost is celebrated 50 days after Easter and celebrates the person of the Holy Spirit coming upon the Apostles and Mary as they were gathered together in the Upper Room. The Holy Spirit came as tongues on fire and rested on each of them. It was right after Pentecost that Peter, inspired by the Holy Spirit, preached his first homily and opened the scriptures to Jews and Gentiles alike. We celebrate this as the Birthday of the Church.

Next weekend, June 4-5, is Pentecost. We encourage all to wear red in celebration of the Holy Spirit. We will have Birthday cake after all Masses to celebrate the Birthday of our Church!

Help Needed to for the Totus Tuus Missionary Team

We are in need of 2 families to host the Totus Tuus Missionary Team for the week beginning July 9th through the morning of July 15th. These families would host either 2 males or 2 females for the week. Please contact Becky Livingstone at faith.formation@threecatholicchurches.com if you would be interested.

If hosting is not possible for you, consider having the team of 4 over for one of the supper meals during the week or volunteering during the day to help out. Keep watching the bulletin for more opportunities to support the youth of our parish during the week of July 10th-15th.

Missionary Discipleship Corner

On Memorial Day, we celebrate the many heroes that have served our country and defended our freedom. One such hero is Father Emil Kapaun, a Catholic Priest that served as a Chaplain for the 8th Cavalry Regiment of the 1st Cavalry Division of the U.S. Army. Father Kapaun's unit was sent to Korea in 1950, where he bravely served our Lord, our nation, and his fellow soldiers. I first learned of Father Kapaun from one of the Formed.org features, The Story of Father Kapaun. He was born near the small rural community of Pilsen, Kansas. When he was ordained a priest, he began his ministry at his local church of St. John Nepomucene in Pilsen. During World War II, in addition to his parish duties, Father Kapaun would hold Mass for the soldiers at nearby Fort Herington airbase. This ministry inspired him to enlist in the U.S. Army Chaplain Corps in 1944. He first served as a Chaplain in World War II in India. When the war broke out in Korea, he was on the front lines and he was ultimately captured along with other soldiers, and sent to a POW camp in Pyoktong.

As we gratefully remember the women and men that served our nation, I invite you to do a bit of research about Father Emil Kapaun. In addition to the Formed.org video I mentioned above, there is a website devoted to his Cause for Beatification and Canonization, frkapaun.org. I truly enjoyed getting to know the incredible story Father Kapaun through this study.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

God's Game of Telephone

You've probably played the game of "pass it on" before, maybe years ago on the playground. It's a simple concept: one person whispers something in another person's ear, and it gets repeated person by person throughout the group, until finally the last one to hear the message has to say it out loud. Whatever ends up being said at the end of the game is usually a far cry from the original statement, and everyone has a good laugh.

As individuals, we don't receive news in the same way. Our personalities, our histories, our weaknesses, and our strengths determine how we interact with information we encounter in the world, both good and bad. One person will interpret a compliment positively; someone else will take offense. One person reacts to news of a job promotion with joy, another is disappointed that now they will have less time with their family. The same news can mean completely different things to different people.

But what God gives us is the truth in love, and the truth in love is the same in every place and in every time, for every person of every race. When Christ prayed to the Father that "the love with which you loved me may be in them," he was asking that the magnificent gift that had been imparted to him would also be imparted to us.

Our job is to play a game of pass it on with this gift of love. How do we keep it from becoming warped? Through remaining committed to the word of God, to the sacraments, and to one another.

In this game, we don't change the message. The message changes us. And we have to give it away to keep it.

Where Do We Come From?

A little girl asked her mother, "Where did people come from?"

Her mother answered, "God made Adam and Eve and they had children, and that's how all mankind was made."

A couple of days later she asked her father the same question. The father answered, "Many years ago there were monkeys, which the human race evolved from."

The confused little girl returned to her mother and said, "Mommy, how is it possible that you told me that we were created by God, and Daddy said we came from monkeys?"

The mother answered, "Well, dear, it is very simple. I told you about my side of the family and your father told you about his."

The weekend of June 4th-5th there will be the annual Home Missions-Our Own Needs Collection, which includes Black and Indian Missions, Catholic Communications/Evangelization/Catholic Home Mission Appeals and Catholic University of America. Pope Francis reminds us that everyone is meant to evangelize. This collection clearly calls us to work as a family to help our brothers and sisters to share the Love, Faith, and Hope of Jesus Christ. You can make a difference by offering prayers for the support of the missions in the United States and to consider sacrificial offerings. Envelopes are available in the entrance of the church and there will be a second collection.

Sharing God's Love through Faith Formation

Parishes in our Diocese are sharing the Good News of the Gospel through faith formation. A gift to the Bishop's Appeal helps children in our Catholic schools and faith formation programs build a friendship with Jesus.

At St. Thomas More Parish in Appleton, a wonderful team of professionals is dedicating their time to help form whole families in the faith. The team receives support and training from diocesan staff like Maximus Cabey, who serves as Child & Youth Faith Formation Director. Parishes across the diocese are inspiring children and parents alike to deepen their relationship with God.

Because of your support of the Bishop's Appeal, parishes like St. Thomas More can provide faith formation to share the love of Christ. To make a gift to the Bishop's Appeal, contact your parish, visit the Bishop's Appeal website at www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give, or call Tammy toll-free at 877-500-3580, ext. 8123.
