'We Need to Work as a Team in Building a Vibrant Community'

In today's Gospel passage, from Luke, we find our Lord appointing disciples to go out and prepare others to receive His invitation into the Kingdom of God. Every verse has something to say about the way a Christian steward should approach others. Let's consider at least one of the coaching tips Christ gives.

"The Lord appointed seventy-two others whom He sent out ahead of Him in pairs to every town and place He intended to visit." In His wisdom, Christ sent His disciples out not as individuals but in pairs, as teams. This approach to evangelization certainly provided practical advantages. The disciples could lean on each other for mutual support and encouragement, helping each other to stay on task and to put their heads together to pray and problem-solve. This teamwork approach is just as relevant to us modern-day Christian stewards. It takes courage and commitment to go out and invite others into the Christian life. We need to work together to do it well.

But there is also symbolic importance to working in teams. It points to the reality that when we invite others to embrace the Good News of the Gospel, we are not merely inviting them into a belief system, but into a relationship with Christ and through that relationship, into Christ's family — our fellow Christian disciples near and far.

Our parish is our immediate spiritual family in this extended worldwide fold. We are not meant to live as isolated individuals within the parish any more than we are meant to live in isolation within our families. We are meant to be a community. That is why it is so important for us to foster a vibrant, supportive, welcoming parish life. This is why we emphasize hospitality as one of the pillars of stewardship. It is not enough just to point others to Christ; we must invite them to join us in community with Him; we must offer a place and mission for them in the Church and within our parish family.

Totus Tuus is approaching quickly but there is still time to sign up. Brochures can be found in the back of each church or on threecatholicchurches.com under the For Parents tab. Totus Tuus is open to any child who would like to attend, they do not need to be members at our parishes. The more the merrier!

We are still looking for volunteers to help out for the day program of Totus Tuus. Contact Becky at faith.formation@threecatholicchurches.com. We need volunteers to help with handing out snacks and helping in classrooms. The Missionary Team does all of the teaching for the week, they just need extra adults to help hand out things, etc. Please prayerfully consider spending a day with the kids in our parish. We are still in need of a few families to host the Missionaries for dinners the week of July 10-15.

Mark your calendars for the Totus Tuus potluck. All parishioners are invited to see what the kids are learning in Totus Tuus and meet the Missionary Team. Wednesday, July 13th at 5pm at St. Thomas. We will provide hotdogs and refreshments, please bring a side dish or dessert to pass.

Missionary Discipleship Corner

The Bible sure is big! My goal is to be able to read the whole Bible someday. Maybe I should start at the beginning with Genesis and the story of creation, but should I then proceed to read the whole book, page by page? How long will it take to read the whole book and if I read it, will I really be able to understand it? Am I the only person asking these questions?

I know some people that have read the Bible cover-to-cover, and some have done it more than once. Some of my friends have well-worn Bibles with pages that are highlighted, book-marked with sticky notes, and comments written in the margins. One friend even has a color coded ink system for the notes he has written in his Bible! There is something beautiful about those weathered Bibles; like a trusted companion that is right there next to you through good times and bad. And, in fact, so many people do use their Bibles as a guidebook for life.

If you have ever asked the questions that I shared above, if you have a freshly printed Bible waiting to be put into service, or even if you have a Bible that has been used often, we invite you to join us for take an 8-week journey through salvation history by participating in the Jeff Cavins course, Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible. Jeff will guide us through the fourteen narrative books of the Bible that tell the complete story, from Adam and Eve to Christ and the Church. After each video, we will have a chance to participate in a small group discussion to unpack the stories we read.

We will be offering the program on Monday evenings and Wednesday mornings, and are extending this invitation to parishioners and their friends – Let's fill the hall for this Bible study that is being offered free of charge courtesy of our Parish Mission Plan. There is an insert in the bulletin that provides more information and we are requesting that you please register by July 14th so we are able to order supplemental materials that will help bring the course to life for you. Should you have any questions related to this program, feel free to call me at the parish office We truly hope you can join us on this 8 week adventure! Peace and joy!

-Bill Meo

Independence Day Prayer

Let us take a moment to remember all those people in the world who are not free to seek life, liberty or happiness.

Let us pray...

O God,
you willed that the Jewish people be free from slavery by their Egyptian captors.

You will that all people should be free to worship you without fear and to celebrate their religious beliefs freely, even if they have not yet found you.

Grant that those of us who live in this great nation will thank you daily for our freedom, and work for the freedom of others around the world that do not yet have the freedom to practice their faith openly and proudly.

We seek your wisdom where hatred abounds, and ask for humility to offer our good works to others who live in fear and bondage.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord, who frees us from sin and death through the wood of the cross.

Amen.

The committee would like to start inspiring volunteers. The picnic is always a huge success, but we can't do it alone. There are so many opportunities to help, and we need you! Watch for continued updates in the bulletin for ways to help!

We are currently collecting donations for our basket raffle, ticket raffle, and parcel post. We are also looking for small, new, or gently used, stuffed animals to use as prizes in the kid's tent for the church picnic. These can be placed in the box in the back of church labeled "kids tent".

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

When God Speaks Like a Polish Grandmother

A friend of mine had a Polish grandmother who was famous for giving her children some blunt advice every time they left the house: "Eyes straight ahead. Mind your own business."

Every mother knows her children best, and this mother knew hers liked to argue and sometimes liked to show off. She knew that could lead to trouble. She could not anticipate every scenario they would encounter each time they departed from her. All she could do was distill what she knew about life, safety, and manners into a few simple words, and hand them over to her children like a set of car keys or a hastily scribbled map. In this way, a woman who rarely said "I love you" expressed her devotion. And long after she was dead and buried, her aging sons and daughters repeated these words to themselves, like a child wrapping himself in a warm blanket.

Jesus does much the same for us, in many portions of the Gospels. "Ask the master to send out laborers for his harvest...Carry no money...Eat what is set before you...Know that the Kingdom of God is at hand...Rejoice because your names are written in Heaven."

He knows us best — knows our strengths, but even more importantly, he knows our weaknesses. He doesn't always have the space to address each of these explicitly in the pages of Scripture, but what he can do is distill the truth of effective evangelization into a few simple words, and hand them over to us as food for our journey of discipleship. In this way, a God who addresses the entire world and every soul who ever lived also speaks intimately to each one of us.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
