RECEIVE THE HOLY SPIRIT

Every disciple is also an apostle, at least generally speaking. A follower of Christ is called upon and sent on a particular mission in the Church where he or she belongs. No one is an “unemployed” or simply a “reserved” disciple. And each one has the “duty” to discern what that is.

But the helpful sign to help us know it would be the gifts or charisms we are endowed with, all of which come from the Holy Spirit.

Already at Baptism we received the Holy Spirit, and it is given in greater “dose” in our Confirmation as we are about to enter the “adulthood” or maturity stage of being a Christian, which means beginning to engage in ministry.

The Holy Spirit is breathed unto us, but it is Breath itself and thus life too. Through the Spirit, the once scared disciples began to shake off that fear with boldness and courage to witness Jesus. In essence, that is also what we do as disciples of Jesus: to witness Jesus.

This is also our identity: his witnesses. This witnessing changes in form somewhat according to the demands of the times or circumstances we are in. But there is no stopping at witnessing. It is overflowing.

How do we evaluate our being a Christian witness? Courageous, lukewarm, cold? Let us keep the fire within us burn continually.

Thank you to Dale & Val Bessert for the beautiful Divine Mercy picture in the gathering area . Thank you also to Val for leading us in the Divine Mercy Chaplets and setting up the wonderful display.
