REVERSE COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND

We will have a reverse collection next weekend for food items for the Hope Goes Home for Kids program for the Luxemburg-Casco schools.

We are accepting monetary donations.

The family of Allen Alexander wishes to thank everyone who in anyway expressed support at a time when it was most needed. Including the donation of food and the servers.

Thank you to Father Edward Looney, Father Dox and the choir!

The Honor Guard Ceremony would have made Allen very happy.

We are very happy to belong to such a supportive parish. May God bless all of you!

Theresa Alexander and family

BY OUR LOVE FOR ONE ANOTHER, GOD DWELLS IN US!

In anticipation of the Lord's ascension, we read part of Jesus' last conversations with his disciples. The context is the Last Supper. Judas has just left to betray him. Jesus knows full well that his hour has come. He speaks about his glorification, which for John refers to his crucifixion, resurrection, and ascension to the Father. Jesus has glorified the Father by being obedient to his will until the end. He has accomplished the purpose for which the Father has sent him. Now, the time has come at last for the Father to glorify him.

Jesus has washed the disciples' feet and has given them supreme testimony of love and a model to follow: "If I, therefore, the master and teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash one another's feet. I have given you a model to follow, so that as I have done for you, you should also do" (Jn 13:14-15). With this concrete example, Jesus enjoins his disciples to love one another. However, the love that Jesus speaks about has a specific identity. It's not just any kind of love but "as I have loved you." John himself tells us how Jesus "loved his own": He loved them to the end" (13:1). Jesus' love is seen in his giving up of himself for the sake of the others. "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends" (15:13). The washing of the disciples' feet teaches us that love is manifested first of all in service and sacrifice.

Tertullian tells us that in the early Church, the pagans were struck by the witness of Christian love. "See how they love one another!" they remarked. Jesus affirms that Christian love will be the mark of his everyday disciple: "This is how all will know that you are my disciples." Paul and Barnabas, in the First Reading, were faithful to this tradition of Christian love. They served the Christian communities, encouraging them to persevere in faith and with prayer and fasting and commending them to the Lord. On the other hand, the Second Reading speaks of the new Jerusalem "coming down out of heaven from God.... God's dwelling is with the human race: "love, in a way, makes God dwell with the human race." Love is our portable New Jerusalem where God dwells. By our love for one another, God dwells in us and we will be known as Jesus' disciples.

FAITH FORMATION NEWS & NOTES

Special Thank You

We have completed another year of faith formation and would like to take the opportunity to say thank you to our generous volunteers. We owe a debt of gratitude for the many ways they continue to give of themselves. We must never forget the parents are the primary faith formers and our catechetical volunteers merely assist them in their efforts to pass on the faith, but we are eternally grateful for the many ways they support the faith. May God continue to bless them for the many ways they have encouraged our young people to grow in their faith! Consider joining us to pass on the faith.

Congratulations to our students, who receive First Communion this weekend.

Lord Jesus Christ, bless the children coming forward to receive Holy Communion for the first time.

May this day be the step toward a life-long love of the Eucharist.

Give them a hunger for this sacred food so that they turn to you for comfort, guidance, and wisdom as they grow into full discipleship.

Thank you for their innocence and goodness.

May their hands, extend in anticipation of your body and blood, inspire all of us to cherish this sacred Sacrament. Amen
