STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

"...he also went to preach to the spirits in prison, who had once been disobedient while God patiently waited..." 1 Peter 3:19-20

Regardless of whether one has been a good steward of gifts in the past, it is never too late to begin sharing with a generous heart. Decide how you will use your blessings of time, talent, and treasure in service to God, the source of all blessings. Begin small if necessary, but begin!

CSA

2020 Catholic Services Appeal - Bringing Christ to Others: Our Parish Participation Goal: $125,600 and 288 households.

To date we have raised $122,115. from 267 households. There is still plenty of time to respond with a gift to this year's Appeal. Gifts can be made through our parish office or online at www.ArchLou.org/CSA.

SPECIAL COLLECTION

We will take up the annual Black and Indian Mission Collection this weekend. This Collection exists to help diocesan communities preach the Gospel of Jesus among the African American, Native American, and Alaskan Native people of God. Your donations help fund parish-based catechetical programs, support teacher and catechist professional development, encourage vocations to the priesthood and religious life, and create diocesan structures, such as our own archdiocesan Office of Multi-cultural Ministry, that support ministry and evangelization in these diverse cultural communities. A second collection will be handled by the ushers at the doors at the end of mass. Please be generous.

SCHOOL INFORMATION

Applications are being accepted for grades K - 8. Registration forms are on the Holy Spirit website hspirit.org. Individuals can also call the school office, 502-893-7700.

FIRST WEEK OF LENT

FOR THE FAMILY

Reflecting on the Word: As we prepare for Easter, we are invited to a change of mind and heart during the season of Lent. We are asked to tend to our spiritual well-being by asking ourselves how we can be more kind, love more deeply, follow Jesus more closely, and begin a renewed, rejuvenated relationship with God. But we are also reminded by the three pillars of Lent—fasting, almsgiving, and prayer—to do more for others, to show solidarity with the poor, and to participate humbly in the works of charity.

On the Way Home from Mass: What did you notice about how the church looked today?

The Season
of Lent

Living the Word: Observe the season of Lent by planning ways your family can give your time and talents to others. Ask your children for their input, and suggest others ideas that you could do as a family. Try to plan an activity for each week during Lent. How do these activities turn your hearts and minds toward God?

PRAYERS

Please pray for all the sick, shut-ins, those in nursing homes, hospitalized, or recently discharged and recuperating. Specifically pray for the following who are suffering with a serious illness or undergoing treatment: Noah Barone, Elizabeth Campbell Moir, Jim Boland, Matt Buechler, Bob Adelberg, Deacon Anthony Brown, Carol O’Bryan, Bobbie Raibert, Lynda Toombs, Deacon Bryan Bush, Linda Lindsey, Wayne Clark, Adley and Tenley Ward, David Overstreet

GOSPEL MEDITATION

St. Oscar Romero said, “Aspire not to have more, but to be more.” These powerful words provide the perfect framework for a conversion oriented Lenten experience. God is giving us this Lenten sign to stop being concerned about what you have and focus on who you are. This requires that we create a desert space and listen more attentively for God to reveal His presence. It is all so wonderfully simple on the one hand and so incredibly challenging on the other. The message is simple: love God, neighbor, and self. Those simple words make great sense, but we struggle translating them into reality. Our attachments, compulsions, obsessions, addictions, routines, and busyness all anchor us to the “idol of the self,” keeping us mired in our compulsive need for self-aggrandizement. It’s not about us!

God vowed, long ago, to nurture, sustain and protect the relationship He has with His people. He called us into being, nurtures us in being, and sustains us in being. Without the Loving Divine Presence, all life would cease. Once we slow down a bit and clear away some of the clutter, we can see how the journey of our life is unfolding. We can see what brings us in and out of tune with God’s love and how we can better imitate God’s loving fidelity in our relationship with Him. In short, we will see our myopic short sightedness and figure out how we can better share the Divine Fire within with others. Lent isn’t just about giving stuff up for forty days and indulging again at Easter. We need to push things much farther and wrestle with the question of how we can be more. “Being more” means becoming more fully alive and in touch with the holiness of life and the divinity that lives in and empowers all beings and things. It is realizing that the “quality” of our presence is crucial to being an effective witness and herald of God’s unconditional love.

The illusion we have bought into causes us to believe that the wrong things and systems matter. We tirelessly fight to keep things the way they are, to return to the former ways of doing things or restore some nostalgic fantasy memory of “life in the good old days.” Lent isn’t about maintaining what we have or returning to something that is gone. It’s about becoming something new. It’s about being more focused, centered, convicted, and grounded so that we can be a person who truly loves and treasures being made in the image of God. The secret to Gospel living is not found in accumulating anything for ourselves, even merit points for heaven. Gospel living means learning how to live with less so that others can live with more. The thought of permanently giving something up makes us feel uncomfortable. Truth often does.

FEATURED ARTICLE

BY DEACON ANTHONY BROWN, SR.

In 1965 a singer named Jackie DeShannon released a song that rocked the world, and since its release, has gone on to become a classic. That song was titled, “What the World needs Now is Love.” Even now, on occasion, you might hear it. The beginning lyrics are, “What the World needs now is love, sweet love. It’s the only thing that there’s just too little of. What the world needs now is love, sweet love, No not just for some, but for everyone.”

That fact was true in 1965, and it’s surely true and needed now in 2021! Sounds so simple, “No not just for some, but for everyone.” There lies the problem, is it just for some, or for everyone? Being Christians, hopefully we would reply, “For Everyone” but sadly, that’s not always the case, and we know it! Unfortunately, it seems that we just consider this as a given, like the statement Jesus made when he said, “The poor you will have with you always.” Should we just accept this, and go on about the business of living our everyday lives, pacifying ourselves saying, well I’m doing my part?

Jesus made this statement concerning the poor, because he knew that there would be many people unconcerned about the poor and unloved, then and now! How do you feel, and what do you think, when you watch the events occurring today, unfolding before our very eyes, and NOT ask yourself, what is wrong with people? How has it come to this? I’m certain some professionals somewhere, could rattle off a litany of things and reasons that has gotten us to this point. But for me, when I see or hear someone say the things they say, and do the things they do, I say to myself, that person needs to “check themselves.” Or even better, what they should do is An Examination of Conscience.

I don’t believe, in spite of what many have said as to why they are doing what they’re doing, ‘that being’, ‘God Told Me To’, that God is actually telling them to say and do what we’re seeing everyday going on. I just don’t. That is why what we are doing as a parish— uniting ourselves together in prayer in offering up Our Lenten petitions, for ourselves, our families, the Church, our nation, our world— is so important. If, through our prayers, people would ask themselves, honestly and truthfully, BEFORE, acting or speaking, why am I REALLY doing this, maybe, just maybe, we could (as the old folks would say) Push the Cart Up the Hill. To stay where we are is dangerous, and harmful in so many ways, we have to push the cart upwards!

I am asking everyone in our parish to please participate in our 2021 Lenten effort to do something extraordinary, in these extraordinary times. Join together as a community, come together, not just physically, but spiritually in prayer for each other, our nation, our country, our world; everyday during Lent. As usual, do offer up your sacrifice for whatever you choose, BUT add your hand to the hands touching and agreeing everyday on OUR petitions. Remember that God said, “If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

Pray!!!

OUTREACH

Did you know? Twenty-five percent of the Lenten alms you give to Catholic Relief Services stay in our archdiocese for the fight against hunger. The balance goes to global outreach. Missions at Catholic Charities of Louisville is humbled to administer the local funds to parishes and outreaches throughout the Archdiocese of Louisville. Thanks for giving generously. We're so happy to steward those gifts wisely.

MARRIAGE & PARENTING MOMENTS

Marriage Moments: "Yeah, you won," said the irate wife to her husband, "and now you get to live with the loser."
- Retrouvaille leader on why win/win outcomes are a better way to resolve disagreements

Parenting Pointers: "God put Abraham to the test." (Gen. 22:1) Although some may interpret this scripture as Abraham being willing to kill his beloved son for God, probably the better lesson is that we all must, at some point, let go of our expectations for our children and trust God to lead them in ways we might not have chosen.
