GOSPEL MEDITATION

If we are truly in love with God, then the basics are not going to be enough. That love is going to want to be expressed in going above and beyond, in leaving the comfortable and familiar, in stretching and growing, and in following a voice other than our own. St. Teresa of Calcutta rightly instructs us that for “love to be real, it must cost, it must hurt, it must empty us of self.” Being in love with God requires more than just checking the boxes of the commandments. It requires a sincere and unconditional self-investment. Desiring God with our whole heart, mind, and soul means that I must also desire a relationship with my neighbor with that same degree of fervor.

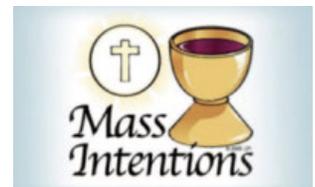

Biases and prejudices usually occur when people are kept at a distance and treated as objects. We cannot truly know our neighbors, especially if they are different than us, if we keep them in boxes and do not listen to their stories. When we open ourselves to listen to another person’s story, we begin to realize more how similar we are than dissimilar. Being overly attached to our possessions, ideologies, agendas, lifestyles, and personal needs are absolute barriers to achieving the type of personal investment love demands. This is why following Christ can be difficult. It is less a matter of intellect and more a matter of heart and soul. It requires that we transfer our treasure from an investment in tangible secular things and move it into the Kingdom of God. It is only the gift of wisdom and discernment that can help us decide what to do and how to do it.

Contemporaries of Jesus would know that a camel could not enter through the portal of a city weighed down with the baggage it was carrying. In order to enter, the baggage must be removed so that the animal could fit through the entry way. The same is true for us. We carry a lot of excessive baggage around with us that keeps us tethered to our past histories, wounds, myopic world views, prejudices, fears, and suspicions. To invest ourselves in the Kingdom of God, do God’s work and live out our love relationship with God, we need to shed the extra weight. While it may seem that a lot of that stuff is necessary, it really is not. We are much more than the things that we think define us and more secure than we think. The more there is to hold on to and the more that we carry with us, the harder it will be to leave it all behind. Many choose not to and walk away sad because they are not ready to trust.

STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP MESSAGE

“Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, “You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to [the] poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.”” Mark 10:21

Following Christ in a consumer society like ours is not an easy task. As a result, we are trained not to give anything, but to always pay for what we get; and to expect everyone else to do the same.

STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE SEPTEMBER, 2021

FALCON FEST

It's that time again! Our Athletic Program needs your support. Please buy a raffle ticket from one of our school children or contact the Ministry Center to find out how you can obtain one (893-3982).

Only 400 tickets will be sold. They are $50 each. Winner splits the total amount collected with Athletics.

FalconFest will be held Saturday, October 16th, after the 5:00pm mass. Drawing happens at 9:00pm that night. Winner need not be present to win.

October is Respect Life Month: Pope Francis has said that respect for life is not just about the unborn child in the womb, but also about the least of our brothers and sisters. Yes, it is even upon the undocumented resident alien who has no voice but ours. As followers of Jesus Christ, we are all called to protect the voiceless.

Let us pray...

Good and gracious God,
you blew into our nostrils the breath of life.
You are the One to whom we owe our very existence.

Give us the courage to take that unpopular position
of protecting those who have no voice,
the unborn child in the womb
to the person taking his or her last breath.

The life you have given us is a gift beyond measure.
Embolden us to speak the truth about protecting the child, the elderly,
and the one without a voice in the public square.

With thankful hearts,
we ask all this of the One God,
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

FOR THE FAMILY

Reflecting on the Word: We all know the commandments. We strive to honor our fathers and mothers are faithful to keeping holy the Lord's day. But to sell all we have? To give all to the poor and follow the path of the cross? This challenge made the man walk away sadly. Our possessions can become the center of our existence and rob us of time and energy to enjoy our family, serve our community, and worship God. Listen to what God is asking of you. Let us ensure that our possessions do not get in the way of answering his call.

On the Way Home from Mass: Which commandment is the easiest to follow? The hardest to follow?

Living the Word: Where could you make more room for God in your life? Discuss what you could give up for a week to make space for God as a family together. Could you allot a time for service? Or pray the Rosary at night after dinner? Perhaps a weekend might be spent going through the house and reducing possessions. Talk together about the experience.

Happy 100th Birthday to our long time parishioner Ruth Smith!

FEATURED ARTICLE

By Deacon Anthony Brown, Sr.

“Living” In Times like These

What’s a typical day? The answer, well, it all depends on the person you ask. We all have to perform our necessary things in the morning, then what? I’m asking this reflective question because of how I’ve decided to “Live in times like These.” On a weekly basis, someone from HS church ministry staff, either Fr. Fred, or Deacon Bush or myself are leading a prayer service for a deceased member, or family member, or conducting a funeral. And the reality of the brevity of life is on full display. And one of the things I say to grieving loved ones is, I ask, “if you believe that your loved one, is, or will be in Heaven, do you want to join?” And I see heads bobbing up and down. I, too, want to be with God and my loved ones one day in heaven. But, I also want to live a happy and blessed life while I’m still here in the land of the living!

A wise person would say, “You’d better live, while you still have time.” So, I ask, “How are You Living in Times like These.” For me, that means picking some things up, and laying some things down. Time is Invaluable, and we have only so much of it, so we must use it wisely, all the while, trying to become wiser regarding the use of our time. Where is my time going, who am I giving time to, what am I giving time to? Does the giving of my invaluable time to it build me up, grow me in a way that benefits “All of Me”, body, soul, and spirit. If it doesn’t, then I don’t give any time.

During this 28th week of ordinary time, our readings, show us three types of people. From the book of Wisdom, the writer mentioned that for him, gaining Wisdom was a priceless gem to him. He says for him, through wisdom, “Yet all good things together came to me in her company, and countless riches at her hands”. Don’t forget, All Good Things, come from God. That is Truly Good Things. Do as he did, ask for Divine wisdom. Our next man is the naked man. You and me, all of us, all day, every day, in the sight of God. Lest we forget and too often do. But now that we’ve asked for divine wisdom, we know that, “No creature is concealed from Him, but everything is naked and exposed to the eyes of Him, to whom we must render an account”. Knowing this fact, should help us Live our Lives Accordingly, even in times like these. Our last man is the Blessed man. The Blessed man is the man who is willing to give up something, start something, stop something, whatever it takes, so as to be, a Blessed person, living a Blessed life, in the mist of these hellish times. And not as a person who lived in hellish times, and died and went to hell. How are you living in these times? Can you be that Wise, Naked, Blessed person? Yes you can, but, “is it worth it”?

It can be hard sometimes. But be Encouraged, Jesus says, “Amen, I say to you, there is no one who has given up house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or lands for MY sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not receive a hundred times more now in this present age”. I believe him, so that’s how I’m Living in Times like These.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS & PARENTING POINTERS

Marriage Moments: “I prayed, and prudence was given me.” (Wisdom 7:7) How one talks with God (prayer) varies from person to person. Some like memorized prayers, some read scripture, some quietly meditate... Share what style is most meaningful to each of you.

Parenting Pointers: “Go, sell what you own, and give to the poor.” (Mark 10:21) Invite everyone in your family to choose one possession this weekend to give to someone who needs it. Let it go.
