Penitential Rite

I confess to almighty God and to you my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned,
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done and what I have failed to do,

And striking breast three times, they say:

through my fault, through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;

Then they continue:

therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
AMEN

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory,
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Mystery of Faith

- A: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.
B: When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.
C: Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection, you have set us free.

Sunday Readings for April 25, 2021

Reading 1 Acts 4:8-12

Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said: “Leaders of the people and elders: If we are being examined today about a good deed done to a cripple, namely, by what means he was saved, then all of you and all the people of Israel should know that it was in the name of Jesus Christ the Nazorean whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead: in his name this man stands before you healed. He is the stone rejected by you, the builders, which has become the cornerstone. There is no salvation through anyone else, nor is there any other name under heaven given to the human race by which we are to be saved.”

Responsorial Psalm 118:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever.

It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in man.

It is better to take refuge in the LORD
than to trust in princes.

I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me
and have been my savior.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.

By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the LORD;
we bless you from the house of the LORD.

I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me
and have been my savior.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
for his kindness endures forever.

Reading 2 1 Jn 3:1-2

Beloved:

See what love the Father has bestowed on us
That we may be called the children of God.

Yet so we are.

The reason the world does not know us
Is that it did not know him.

Beloved, we are God’s children now;

What we shall be has not yet been revealed.

We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him,
For we shall see him as he is.

Alleluia Jn 10:14

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;

I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Gospel Jn 10:11-18

“I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches and scatters them. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father; and I will lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd. This is why the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one take it from me, but I lay it down on my own. I have power to lay it down, and power to take it up again. This command I have received from my Father.”

Reflection Questions for the Readings for April 25, 2021

In the first reading we hear of “a cripple” who was healed in the name of Jesus. What areas in your life are in need of healing at this moment?

Today’s responsorial psalm proclaims, “The stone rejected by the builders has become the cornerstone.” What examples of this have you seen in your community?

In the reading from the first letter of St. Peter, we find a description of Christ’s non-violent response to his persecutors. How do you try to emulate his actions?

In the gospel parable Jesus says, “A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.” Who are the sheep that you are called to shepherd and how do you give of your life for them?

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

The cornerstone is the first stone that is laid and the stone that not only determines how the other stones are placed but the position of the entire structure. As human beings, we need a cornerstone or reference point so that our lives can be properly placed and positioned. Our cornerstone determines not only how we see ourselves but who we will become. Without a cornerstone or reference point, we will be disconnected, disoriented, and poorly positioned for effective action in our world. In order to be the children of God we are, Jesus Christ needs to be our cornerstone and the reference point for all that we do. He alone is the Good Shepherd who can guide through life's questions and challenges, bringing us to proper pasture. Without this proper base, we can easily fall into the trap of self-aggrandizement and quickly lose our way. If that happens, then moral principles, proper conduct, justice, wisdom, and virtue will be difficult to find. We need to listen to the right voices and allow God to show us how to build our house well. Salvation only comes from God and only God will protect us, no matter the cost.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR

Fr. Larry McBride

April 25, 2021

Fourth Sunday of Easter

Reflection

This weekend we will celebrate First Communion with our Second Grade Class. It is always with great joy when we can welcome children to the table of the Lord. The Second Grade is a big sacramental year for our children. In the Fall Semester they study and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. In the Spring semester they focus on the Eucharist and prepare to come to the Table of the Lord.

In this one year we introduce them sacramentally to the great mercy and forgiveness of our God and the great love of the Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who left us the sacrament of his Body and Blood so that we may never be separated from him. We are encouraged to celebrate these sacraments regularly so as to strengthen our relationship with Jesus.

In these days of pandemic the obligation to celebrate the Eucharist every Sunday has been lifted. The safety mandates that are in place would prevent us all from being able to attend. The Church has always held that the sick, elderly or those more susceptible to illness do not have the same obligation.

Hopefully the "Obligation" is not viewed as a minimum that we must accomplish so as to receive redemption. The obligation refers to our relationship with Jesus. If we expect to have a relationship with Jesus that we profess through Baptism then Reconciliation and Eucharist must be a regular part of that relationship. It is the way that we all the Lord to nourish and enrich so that we grow in love for our God and our neighbor.

Discipleship

In the Gospel this Sunday we hear an account of the Good Shepherd, "I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me." (John 10:11-18) Jesus says that he is the Good Shepherd and he knows his flock. He goes on to say and "mine know me."

Do we know the Good Shepherd?

How can we grow to know him better?

I Saw God

Over the last few weekends I have been able to get together with all my brothers and sisters and many of my nieces and nephews and great nieces and nephews. Many of these family members I have not seen for over a year and some even longer. Fortunately, family has always been a blessing for me in my life. I truly see the presence of God in our gathering and in the faces of all those God has placed in my life.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Confidence in Princes

Have you ever confided your problems to a friend, only to get the answer, "have you prayed about it as much as you've talked about it?"

Like all good advice, it can really irritate the recipient at first. Here I am, vulnerable and wounded, unloading my problems, and this joker tries to load them right back up and ship them off to Someone with a higher pay grade.

But again, like all good and irritating advice, it rings true if you sit and think about it.

Sure, venting is helpful. We all need that friend or family member who can listen to our problems. But if we ever start to think that person can solve them, it's a good sign that we're losing perspective.

Are you looking to the world for an answer? Are you looking in the mirror, expecting to find a solution to your problems? Are you expecting happiness, peace, contentment or justice to come from any place other than God?

"It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to put confidence in princes," the Psalms tell us. Well, I've never put much confidence in princes. But when it comes to problems, I often find myself telling God to take a step back — "I've got this."

It's tough to pray about any problem as much as you talk about it. We want so badly to tackle the issue ourselves. But I'll let you in on a secret: it doesn't matter what the question is, we don't have the answer. Take it to the One who does.
