Spiritual Adoption - Week 21

21 weeks along and our babies are nearing 11 inches long and weighing in around 12 oz. An ultrasound this week will amaze you! Wondrous details showing baby`s brain hemispheres and heart chambers too. Boy or girl? If you want to know, this week it could be revealed. Keep it a surprise, let the nurse / tech know. Moms will begin to feel baby movements, turns, and light kicks. For 1st time moms and dads, anxiety is real common at this point. Completely normal, to ease anxious feelings talk to friends and family who've had babies and they can reassure you that they too had such feelings. Keep praying 19 weeks left.

How to Go to Confession

Reconciliation may be face to face or anonymous, with a screen between you and the priest. Choose the option that is the most comfortable for you.

1. The priest gives you a blessing or greeting. He may share a brief Scripture passage.
2. Make the Sign of the Cross and say: "Bless me father, for I have sinned. My last confession was (give the number of weeks, months or years).
3. Confess all of your sins to the priest. The priest will help you to make a good confession. If you are unsure about how to confess or you feel uneasy, just ask him to help you. Answer his questions without hiding anything out of fear or shame. Place your trust in God, a merciful Father who wants to forgive you.
4. Following your confession of sins, say, "I am sorry for these and all of my sins."
5. The priest assigns you a penance and offers advice to help you be a better Catholic.
6. Say an Act of Contrition, expressing your sorrow for your sins. The priest, acting in the person of Christ, then absolves you from your sins.

Act of Contrition

My God, I am sorry for my sins with all my heart. In choosing to do wrong and failing to do good. I have sinned against you whom I should love above all things. I firmly intend, with your help, to do penance, to sin no more, and to avoid whatever leads me to sin. Our Savior Jesus Christ suffered and died for us. In his name, my God, have mercy.

Deacon Gib's - Teaching Mass

During Memorial Weekend, May 29 & 30, Deacon Gib talked about the meaning of the various parts of the Mass during Mass. This was either a reminder for those who were already familiar with the parts of the Mass and for those who are new to the parish and especially for our students. For the next several weeks, we will be providing the details here in the bulletin. Hopefully, everyone of you will learn a little bit more.

Why should people come to Mass?
Your presence here at Mass affects our church, each other, and our relationship with God. From a spiritual stand point, we come to Mass to be saved on the Table of the Word and the Table of the Eucharist.

In the 3rd book the bible, Leviticus, 23:3, we are told: "For six days work may be done; but the seventh day is the Sabbath rest, a day for sacred assembly."

Going back to the Old Testament the Sabbath Day is a day to be with the Lord, to praise and worship God. It is not that our God needs our praise and worship but rather in our giving praise and worship to our God, we are able to experience God.
