Third Sunday in Ordinary Time – 23 January 2022

We devote this day to the celebration, study, and spread of the Word of God.

Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10. Psalm 19:8, 9, 10, 15. 1 Corinthians 12:12-30. Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21.

Believing the Word of God. We are the Body of Christ (Corinthians) assembling as the graced community of believers (Nehemiah) each week to give thanks and praise, to share in Communion, and then sent to serve. We are part of the great Communion of Saints to whom is handed down the living Word of God – both the Scriptures and the Tradition as well as the very person of Christ who is the spoken Word of God (Luke). During the first Mass in a brand-new church building, the bishop shows the Lectionary to the assembly and says:

“May the word of God resound always in this building, to open for you the mystery of Christ and to bring about your salvation in the Church.”

The Order of the Dedication of a Church and an Altar, Chapter II, no. 53, © 2018, ICEL. All rights reserved.

The Word of God is central to faith.

“ How will I set aside a few minutes each day to read/ reread Scripture? What is a good time?

“ How will I look for the unfolding mystery of Christ in little and big ways today?

“ How will I be “good news” this week by what I say and do?

VOCATION CORNER

January 23:

My parents gave me and my siblings a joyful and loving childhood where the beauty of the Catholic faith shone brightly. They sent us to a school in Madrid operated by the sisters of the Company of the Savior, whose charism is to cooperate with parents by providing a strong education in a faithful catholic environment. The joy, devotion and dedication of the sisters immediately attracted me. During my last years of high school and my first year of college, I was tempted by new experiences and friendships based on different ideals than those of my youth. It was Mary who opened my eyes to see deeper. She brought me back to the heart of Jesus. Eventually, I embraced His loving call to be only his and joined the Sisters of the Company of the Savior.
