THE EPIPHANY of the Lord

"Since from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." - Mt. 2:6b

Weekend Masses: Saturday ~ 4:00 PM Sunday ~ 8:30 AM

WEEKDAY MASSES:

Tuesday ~ St. Mary & St. Mark Intention at Holy Family ~ 8:00 AM
Wednesday & Thursday ~ 8:00 AM

Dear family and friends of Holy Family and St. Mary and St. Mark Parishes,

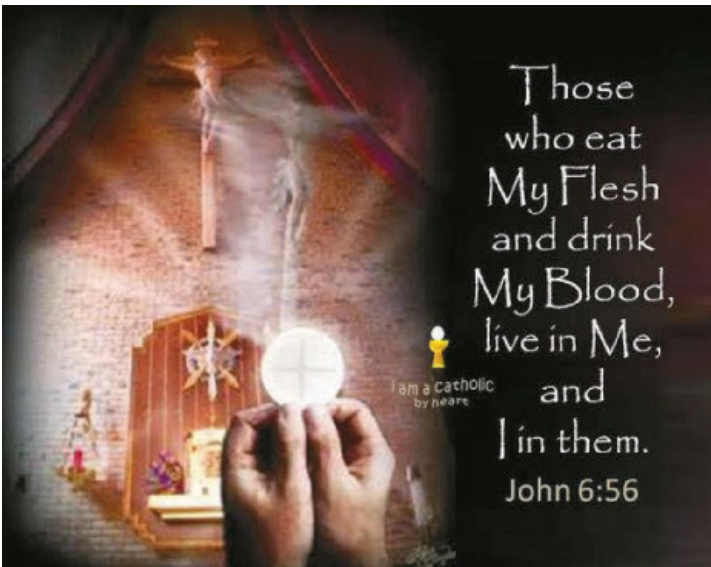

We celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord. The Psalmist says, “Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.” What does it mean to adore? It means that we hold something or someone in high regard or with great esteem. Is that fitting for God, or is there something more that is meant by the Psalmist’s statement that every nation will adore Him? Certainly, the Psalmist is making a bold claim that all nations will adore God, but it means that if every nation does in fact adore the God of Israel, then the world will be restored to its proper dignity as given by God from the very beginning. How many nations have been destroyed since the beginning of the establishment of nations, leaders, governments, and citizenry of nations? Too many to count. What history tells us is that any nation that does not focus on the absolute truth as seen in our very existence and purpose in life granted by a Creator, then we will be destroyed. There are many nations in the Western world that see the United States as a nation that was built on principles, values, and traditions centered on Judeo-Christian beliefs, but over time, these principles, values, and traditions have been eroded by turning away from the God who created us all. It is unfair to say that the United States is a failed experiment, and that soon we will become like Rome, a city once regarded as one of the most powerful cities in the world and a kingdom that could not be matched for millennia. Rome was finally defeated under the power of Alexander the Great, who came to conquer Rome for the purposes of making it a part of his kingdom. As people created by God, we don’t have to become victims of historical truth, but learn from our mistakes, faults, and failings, and become a people righteous in the eyes of God.

In our first reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah, we hear, “Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory.” For the people of Israel, it may have seemed that their hope and promise for joy and happiness had been diminished because of their sinfulness, and perhaps they were to be destroyed as previous nations had been destroyed because of their failure to acknowledge that there was one true God. You see, the nation of Israel was about to experience a revival and the people would not be destroyed. They would experience an epiphany, or a manifestation of God coming in their midst. They would realize that for all the destruction they witnessed in becoming exiles from their own nation and settled in foreign lands, seeing their Temple destroyed, and seemingly being abandoned by God, that God had a plan for them. A Savior was to be born, a Messiah, who would save them from their sins. This is what all the Prophets predicted for the people of Israel, even though many of the Prophets were rejected, persecuted, and killed. Because they could not comprehend what they were being told, they could not see what was in store for them. Many of them abandoned God for strange gods, and others rejected their faith outright because they did believe in the promises of God. They had to undergo a purging and a cleansing in order to be prepared for something great to happen to them.

In the Gospel of Matthew, we hear about the birth of Jesus, and magi coming from the east to pay homage to the new King of Israel. The magi were not men of magic or superstition as the name implies, but they were men of science and of faith in that they were astronomers who looked to events taking place in the heavens among the stars and the constellations in the known universe and piecing together those events with the events predicted in Sacred Scripture according to the predictions of the Prophets regarding the birth of the Messiah. Remember that the magi understood that the salvation of humanity was dependent upon the promises of the God of Israel coming to fruition. They were in need of a Savior as much as the rest of the known world. I will never forget a story I heard once of a priest in the Archdiocese of Chicago, who when the Epiphany of the Lord was celebrated in his parish in a particular year dressed up as a magician because he interpreted the word magi as the root of magician. He wore a pointed hat like a Merlin or wizard and wore purple garments that were not even the proper vestments for the celebration of Mass. His hope was to tell the story of the birth of the Messiah from the eyes of magicians who came to pay homage to the newborn King of Israel. While his buffoonery and theatrics did little to capture the story, he made a fool of himself. The stories told in the books of the Bible are not something of fantasy or make believe, but of a real encounter with the God and Creator of us, our world, and the Universe. The magi were of great esteem themselves and were considered rich in their knowledge of events taking place in the world as related to the events happening in the Universe. When they came looking for the Messiah in Bethlehem, they approached King Herod, because they believed that as king of Judah, he would know the whereabouts of the newborn Messiah. King Herod, in his pride, could not face the fact that he would be replaced one day by another king. His sinfulness prevented him from recognizing that the new light coming to Israel would begin a new life for the people of Israel and the world. The magi, upon discovering where the Messiah was born and paying homage to Him and His family, they departed another way knowing that they had discovered the one who would save them.

The second reading from the Letter of St. Paul to the Ephesians relates to us that the mysteries that were revealed by the revelation of God becoming man, the Incarnation, point us in a trajectory towards finding our true peace and happiness. Paul writes, “You have heard of the stewardship of God’s grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation.” Paul is speaking about his conversion experience when he was known as Saul on the road to Damascus. His pride and ego blinded him from recognizing Christ in His disciples. As Saul would discover, he really did not know his faith as well as he thought he did. His arrogance caught up with him and he was humbled before the Lord. The revelation he received from his encounter with Jesus struck him blind so that what opened his eyes eventually was his own epiphany about the Lord as the Savior of the world. Saul could no longer accept that his interpretation of Sacred Scripture and his relentless attack against the disciples of Jesus was the answer to the peace and joy that he was looking for. He received the name Paul only after experiencing his own conversion and being called to preach to the Gentiles. The stewardship he shared in becoming a disciple of Jesus led him to share his experience and his revelation with others who needed the light of Christ in their lives. We can be like Saul, in that we believe that we know scripture well enough that we don’t need a conversion, but it is only in humility that like Saul we receive our mission as a disciple and bring others to the truth of Jesus Christ.

CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

1330 The memorial of the Lord's Passion and Resurrection.

The Holy Sacrifice, because it makes present the one sacrifice of Christ the Savior and includes the Church's offering. The terms holy sacrifice of the Mass, "sacrifice of praise," spiritual sacrifice, pure and holy sacrifice are also used,¹⁵⁰ since it completes and surpasses all the sacrifices of the Old Covenant.

The Holy and Divine Liturgy, because the Church's whole liturgy finds its center and most intense expression in the celebration of this sacrament; in the same sense we also call its celebration the Sacred Mysteries. We speak of the Most Blessed Sacrament because it is the Sacrament of sacraments. The Eucharistic species reserved in the tabernacle are designated by this same name.

How do you fellowship... with Christ
with the Spirit
with one another with the gospel?

Holy Family School Announces the Granite City Optimist Students of the Month

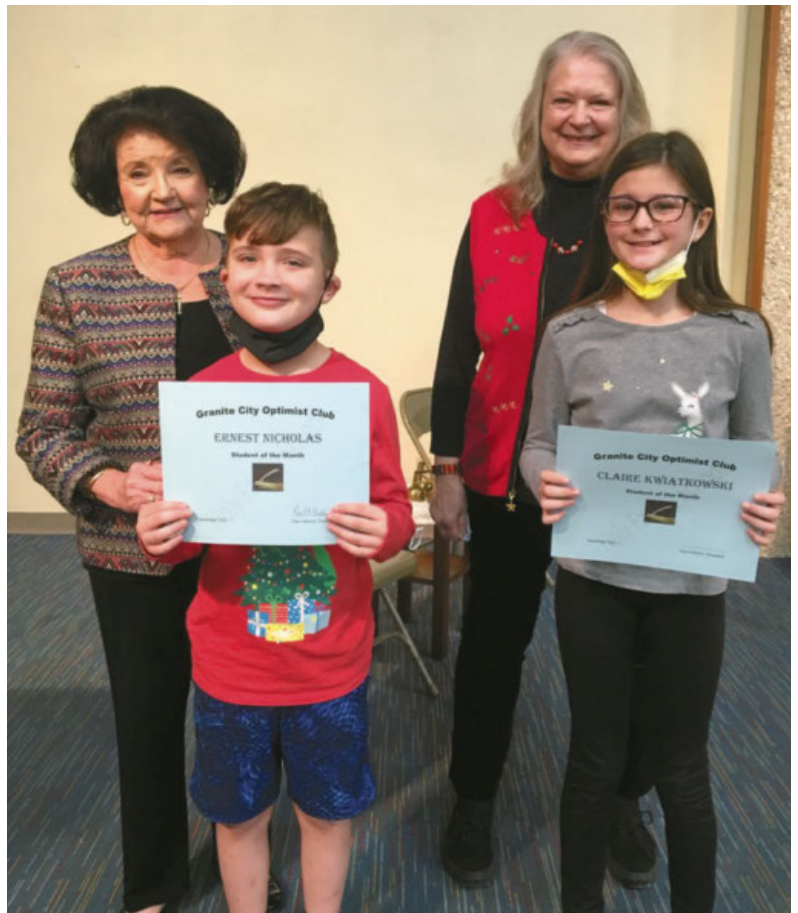

Third Grade students Claire Kwiatkowski and Ernest Nicholas IV were selected as the Granite City Optimist December Students of the Month. Each honoree will receive a certificate from the Optimists, and Holy Family School will receive an unrestricted donation of $100.00 in their names.

Ernest Nicholas IV just turned nine years old last month. He is the son of Ashley Burdge and Ernest Nicholas III and is a member of Mrs. Gina Schubel’s third grade class. Ernie enjoys Mrs. Schubel’s social studies class and finds the lessons in American history especially fascinating. If Ernie was appointed teacher for a day, he would make sure to do something funny (like telling jokes) to make his students laugh. During his spare time, he likes playing video games with his friends since he can’t play with them in person due to Covid. Ernie is a big soccer fan and plays on a soccer team called the Gateway Rush. He is very interested in the new professional soccer team coming to St. Louis. Ernie has no definite plans for his future as yet. He is still looking at all of his possibilities.

Nine-year old Claire Kwiatkowski just had her birthday on December 7. She is the daughter of Alex and Ashlee Kwiatkowski. She is also a third-grade student of Mrs. Schubel. Math is Claire’s specialty. She thinks multiplication is the most fun part of math so far and knows her multiplications tables up to the 11’s. If Claire became teacher for a day, she would make sure her students have lots of fun, just like Mrs. Schubel does for Claire’s class. Claire is very active outside of school. She likes to play outdoors, ride her bike, and play basketball for the Holy Family Hawks basketball team. Claire is also a member of the Bear den of Cub Scout Pack 103. Holy Family School just received word that Claire won first place in the 2021 Water Keeps Life Flowing Art Contest. Students from all over the state of Illinois drew pictures of the importance of water in daily life. Claire’s winning illustration was titled “Water keeps us hiking” and pictured Claire and her dog drinking water after a long hike. In the future Claire would like to be a hairstylist.

The Granite City Optimist Organization is an international society dedicated to helping the youth of the world. For more information about the Granite City Optimists, contact Paul Hellrich at 618 407-3011. The Optimists are always looking for new members who would like to aid in their mission to help the youth of the community. Come join us!
