Parish Mission Statement:

That the people of St Anthony of Padua parish experience the love of Jesus Christ through:

Vibrant sacramental life

Knowledge of the truth and beauty of the Catholic Faith

Generous service to others

Family atmosphere

So that we can all be true disciples of Jesus that reflects

His commandment to "Love one another"

Our faith is not just about ideas. It's really about having an encounter with God and, in particular, the Risen Christ! Once we give ourselves over to the notion of God's presence, we have to train ourselves to listen for God's voice and be attentive to God's call. Having companions on our faith journeys is so incredibly important as they can help us fine-tune our listening skills and discern God's voice from others we may be hearing. Faith is all about having these profound encounters not only with God but with our brothers and sisters, and creation itself. Anyone or anything that is alive with God's presence becomes an occasion for God to speak and call us to deeper graces and experiences. "Come, and you will see."

The example and teaching of Jesus, the lives of the saints, those living among us and those glorified in heaven, and the wonder and beauty of creation can all serve to help us listen more clearly and assist in positioning ourselves for this profound God meeting. It is an encounter that can quickly and easily lead to a friendship and intimate intertwining of our souls to their Maker, making a claim on us like no other. Then, the Word of God moves from being just a body of ideas to something we simply accept and do. The person of Jesus Christ swiftly moves from being just a good prophet in word and deed to the incarnate presence of God Himself, the Lamb of God. The voice leads us to the Person behind it.

The Gospel is hard to follow. We can intellectually debate whether what Jesus said is really what we are asked to do. The Gospel ideas do not always make sense in our practical, secular world. The person of God always does. We can debate the practicality and sense of ideas and doing so often keeps the more difficult ones at a safe distance away from us. Jesus said to love our enemy, but we really don't need to do that, our minds try to convince us. It just doesn't make sense. Yet, if we are truly in love with the God who is behind the voice of those words, they make perfect sense. Our deep and intimate love of this God would even find us laying down our lives for Him if necessary. Speak Lord, your servant is listening.

January 17, 2021
Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
Pray with Me

A General Prayer to our Father (some people pray this at night)
An old prayer, but a meaningful one.

Into your hands, O Lord and Father, we commend our souls and our bodies, our parents and our homes, friends and servants, neighbors and kindred, our benefactors and brethren departed, all your people faithfully believing, and all who need your pity and protection. Enlighten us with your holy grace, and suffer us never to be separated from you, who are one God in Trinity, God everlasting. Amen

By: St. Edmund of Abingdon St. Edmund was an Archbishop of Canterbury, England. He gave his life to Jesus at the age of 12. He was a teacher and theologian of the Church. He died in 1240. He was known for his teachings, charity, and simple life.

Our families say it best...See what ASCS families are saying about All Saints Catholic School. “As we began looking for places for our son to attend school, we were a bit unsure but kept an open mind and heart. Our uncertainty disappeared the minute we stepped foot into All Saints Catholic School! From the amazing administrative staff to the wonderful teachers we met that day, we both knew immediately this is where we wanted our son’s education to start. The entire feel of our visit was so warm and welcoming.
We are now half way through the school year, and we say every day that we could not be happier with our choice. The dedication the teachers and staff make to each of their students is incredible. I am so appreciative that ASCS has remained committed to in person learning during these unprecedented times. Not many other schools can say the same. Thank you ASCS!”

Our Open House is scheduled for Sunday, January 31, 2021 from 11am-2pm. If you are considering enrolling at ASCS for the 2021-22 school year, enrollment for 2021
-22 school year for new families begins January 31, 2021! Space is limited.
