4th Sunday of Easter

Any builder worth his or her salt knows the value and importance of a cornerstone. Properly laying and securing this primary unit determines how the rest of the project unfolds and its success. Cornerstones are necessary elements not only of buildings but of lives as well. Many human beings conduct the business of their lives paying little attention to a grounding reference or starting point. Hence, what unfolds is a tapestry of relativism, with few anchors or guideposts and many impulsive choices. Some consider love to be their cornerstone. While this may sound attractive and useful, the pursuit of love without a simultaneous pursuit of its source can be shallow and self-focused. Just because a person chooses to do no harm and love others does not mean that they are living in truth and properly anchored to the real cornerstone.

Jesus is the true and authentic cornerstone and shepherd. It is only in following the Risen One as the way, the truth, and the life that we can move from being well grounded ethical people to properly focused moral ones. Proper conduct, a true sense of justice, wisdom, virtue, moral principles, faith, hope, and love will be difficult to find unless we listen to the right Voice. It is when we learn to listen to the voice of God that we begin our journey on the road to salvation. It is only the Good Shepherd, the authentic and solid cornerstone, who can guide us through life's questions and challenges and bring us to the safe and proper pasture.

A person's life only has meaning when the cornerstone is properly selected and set. Understanding themselves only as random acts of creation, existing without intent or purpose, will color their choices and influence their decisions. The foundation of their lives will be simply a matter of preference and choice, leaving benchmarks of growth and higher ideals optional to pursue. Whereas people who believe that they are fashioned and loved into existence by a God who purposely made them, have this incredible unconditional relationship at their source which has tremendous significance. Their allegiance is not to themselves but to their Creator. Life, then, is an adventure in search of this Creator God and a journey of self-discovery that seeks to unite their will to His. There is a cost. We have to give up our life in order to gain our life. As ironic as that sounds, it is true. It is only when we finally figure this out that the true cornerstone of our lives will be properly laid and we can, with God's help, get about the business of properly constructing a temple that endures.

Pray with Me
Fourth Sunday of Easter

Dear Jesus
Thank you for the joy of Easter through your death and resurrection. You show me your exquisite love and mercy. Let me, as your disciple, spread your Easter joy to others. Let me focus on what is important in my life – your love and forgiveness. Rid me of my old self and let me be your messenger of joy and love.
Let me understand what is trivial and what I need to do to focus on everyday accomplishments that reflect your love.
Amen

Thank you to all who donated to the CRS Rice Bowl Collection. Those funds are used in our community.

Our families say it best... “We love the small class sizes, the amazing teachers, the faith-based education and the amazing community of parents that we have found over the years. We love that our kids are being exposed to the same values and beliefs that we instill in them on a daily basis not only at home but also at school.

If you are looking for a successful, in-person learning environment with a dedicated staff and a Catholic education based on Faith, Values, and Rigor, then ASCS is the school for your child! We offer 3 year-old Preschool- 8th grade on one campus. Enrollment for the 2021-22 school year is under way.

Human Concerns is collecting children’s books for children ages, 3 months to 17 years old. These books will be for the children of the families that come to our Food Pantry. We want to feed their bodies, minds, and souls.
Please donate new or used books that are in good condition. There is a box in the back of church for your donations.
Thank you! Human Concerns

Following an extensive national search, the St. Joseph Catholic Academy Board of Directors is pleased to announce that Deacon Patrick Moynihan has been selected as the new President, succeeding Mr. Robert Freund upon his retirement. Deacon Moynihan looks forward to making Kenosha his home with his wife, Christina, herself a former missionary
