Reflection from Deacon Norm

As many times we have experienced in the stories of the bible, reference to mountains, in today's gospel we have Jesus going up on the mountain. Remember Moses on the mountain, Jesus on the mountain delivering the "Sermon on the Mount", just recently in our Gospel readings The Devil taking Jesus up to show him all the kingdoms of the world, David (in mercy and compassion) "going across to a remote hilltop" And today again on the mountain for God to proclaim the chosen son. And many other examples. Also in prophesy from Isaiah Chap 2 "In the days to come the mountains of the Lords house shall be established as the highest mountain and raised above the hills and all nations shall stream toward it" When accomplished "They shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks...nor shall they train for war again" Still waiting aren't we. A lofty goal for all mankind to seek and find as that prophesy will someday be fulfilled, as promised in Christ "The Prince of Peace". Pray for peace.

All these tasks accomplished in a high place. Being a little closer to God in that elevated place. In an arid environment we think of that elevated place, perhaps a little cooler, a place that would support more green plants and flowers. A more beautiful place, a place worth achieving. Perhaps graced with a slight refreshing breeze, cool clear babbling mountain brook to satisfy the most urgent thirst. A place that requires the watcher or listener to have eyes uplifted. All these good things, yet to be recognized is the effort that takes to become elevated. We all know how much harder it is to go up a mountain than to come down. Especially in those olden days of narrow rock strewn paths wrought with roots and trip hazards to navigate. So we see that good and faithful goals are not easy to accomplish, they take effort. We need to be willing to embrace, endure and succeed in that effort for ourselves, our family and the world. We are reminded that Jesus walks with us on this sometimes hard journey of life. He steadily guides and sustains us in our ever changing needs and desires of a maturing life.

With eyes uplifted, as we accept and pursue our life challenges let us continue to say as Peter said to Jesus "Master it is good that we are here".

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading: It was on that occasion that the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying: "To your descendants I give the land, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Great River, the Euphrates." (Gn 15:18)

Psalm: The Lord is my light and my salvation. (Ps 27)

Second Reading: He will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself. (Phil 3:21)

Gospel: Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. (Lk 9:28b-29)
