5th SUNDAY OF LENT

Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with his finger. But when they continued asking him, he straightened up and said to them, "Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." - Jn 8:6b-7

Reflection from Fr. Ron

Take stock of your talents. Each of us is unique and special and is endowed with talents that no one else possesses. Sit down for a while and make a list of your talents. Acknowledge them as special gifts that you have received from God. Try to identify your best talents. Developing your talents is a tremendous task that only you can do. Your dear ones can provide you with all that is needed to perfect your talents by creating possibilities and opportunities for you to manifest your talents. Practice, and constant practice, alone, will make you an expert.

Have courage and patience to put in hours of effort to develop your talents and build up self-confidence. Don't ever let failures discourage you. Don't ever entertain the miserable habit of comparing yourself with others. Have a realistic outlook. Don't dream of excelling in everything. Don't simply chase after success – let success run after you.

Finally, remember that your talents are not your own personal possessions. They are offered to you by God so that you may trade well with them. They are meant for building up the society and the nation. Selfishly using your talents may not help you in the long run. By generously planning your talents at the service of others, you will be able to well develop your talents.
