First Reading: Yet more than ever, believers in the Lord, great numbers of men and women, were added to them. (Acts 5:14)

Psalm: Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting. (Ps 118)

Second Reading: "I am the first and the last, the one who lives.

Once I was dead, but now I am alive forever and ever." (Rev 1:17-18)

Gospel: On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst. (Jn 20:19)

Reflection from Fr. Ron

God's love for us is unlimited. Easter is the ultimate demonstration of that. So why do we sometimes limit what we can receive from God?

When Jesus appeared to the disciples, they were afraid and uncertain. He brought them the comfort and sense of purpose they needed. Thomas was not present for this encounter, but he too was probably afraid and longed for reassurance. He had seen Jesus perform miracles and knew that Jesus was capable of rising from the dead. The disciples' words could have been enough for Thomas to receive the peace and purpose that Jesus wanted to give him. Instead, he chose to remain in fear and doubt for a whole week longer than everyone else.

Jesus didn't give up on Thomas. He came back just for him. This time, Thomas responded eagerly and open-heartedly. Let us have an eager and open faith and guard against fear and doubt so that we can enjoy the limitless gifts God has for us.

So yes, resurrection is the "standing up again out of death" that Jesus has inaugurated and which awaits us all. But it is also the divine revolution of love that brings into being the upside-down reign of God in history, the new creation, the new state of affairs; a community that overcomes violence with love and that lives in solidarity with those the world hold in derision. Every Easter, this is the rich reality we are challenged to embrace once again: to become more and more what the Spirit of God is constantly laboring to make us.

Want to find out about Marian gardens (gardens with plants that have significance to Our Lady) and how to cultivate one in your yard or your parish?

Come to the St. Kunegunda Women's Council meeting on May 9th in our parish hall. Scarlet Sweeney will provide information on establishing a Marian garden just in time for you to plan your own summer garden for this year — or maybe for your church to plan a summer garden. Women from all of our cluster parishes are welcome. Our meeting will be at 6pm and the program will begin at 6:30.

St. Peter's Cemetery Committee is looking to hire a part-time Sexton. This person would be responsible for grounds upkeep, grave opening and possible record keeping. If you think you might be interested in this position, please submit your resume and fill out an application as soon as possible, as this position is open until filled. Applications are available on our website or at the parish office.

Holy Family Catholic Church in Woodruff

The death of a spouse or life partner leaves an irreplaceable hole in our lives. For practical, Bible-based advice on coping with this grief and moving toward healing, Holy Family Catholic Church in Woodruff will offer "Loss of a Spouse" from 3-5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, April 19. The session will be led by trained facilitators. This two-hour seminar features a video and moderated small-group discussion time. There is a one-time $5 fee for the "Loss of a Spouse" booklet. As a continuation of this program, participants will be invited to register for GriefShare, a nationally recognized 13-week grief support program. GriefShare offers help and encouragement after the death of a spouse, life partner, child, family member, or friend. GriefShare is also offered at Holy Family Catholic Church, beginning April 26 and running through July 19. Meetings will take place in the Parish Hall. Masks are encouraged. For questions or more information, call 715-356-6284 to contact Holly (Ext. 168) or Lyn (Ext. 155) at Holy Family Catholic Church.
