Reflection from Fr. Ron

There are time when we feel like the disciples in today's Gospel – not sure when or if the Lord might return and not knowing what we are supposed to do as we wait. For some, it may be during the pandemic, when we were not able to enter a church in order to prevent the spread of COVID. We could relate to the disciples, not knowing what to do on the edge of such a precipice, without our routine connection to the Lord. When reading how Jesus appeared to the disciples after the Resurrection, as I reflect I am reminded that it is not always through his presence in the flesh, but rather the compassionate action of others, that we see Jesus in our lives even today. Today's Gospel is not just about the challenges of recognizing the Lord. It is also about how Jesus approaches Peter, reminding him that he is forgiven and still invited to follow. This shows us that it is not enough to see Jesus through the actions of others; we must respond to Jesus' invitation and lead by our own actions, so that those whom we meet may also see the Lord.

First Reading: "We are witnesses of these things, as is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him." (Acts 5:32)

Psalm: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. (Ps 30)

Second Reading: "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power and riches, wisdom and strength, honor and glory and blessing." (Rev 5:12)

Gospel: Jesus came over and took the bread and gave it to them, and in like manner the fish. (Jn 21:13)
