4th SUNDAY OF EASTER

Jesus said: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish."
- Jn 10:27-28a

Reflection from Fr. Ron

"My Sheep hear my voice, I know them, and they follow me." Jesus is whispering his yearning for us through the Gospel today. Do we hear him, follow him and desire to be with him?

The call to be all for God is meant to grow day by day. The more we are faithful to his promptings to mature in grace, the more we become one with God. The more we thirst for God's love, the more we are filled with the Holy Spirit. In the first reading, we see God empowers us and acts in us so that we may be an instrument of salvation for others. The joy of being redeemed and being filled with God's presence is too much not to share. We not only want others to have abundant life now but the blessed life in the next, as described in the second reading.

Walking with the Good Shepherd is walking in his grace, which will carry us through trial to triumph. Jesus has done that – he rose from the dead, conquering sin and death, so that we could be with the Father. "I give them eternal life, and they will never perish." Our Shepherd is saying again today: Be with me, now and forever. Let us respond with joy; Yes, Lord, Here is my heart.

First Reading: For so the Lord has commanded us, "I have made you a light to the Gentiles, that you may be an instrument of salvation to the ends of the earth."
(Act 13:47)

Psalm: We are his people, the sheep of his flock.
(Ps 100)

Second Reading: For the Lamb who is in the center of the throne will shepherd them and lead them to springs of life-giving water.
(Rev 7:17)

Gospel: "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me. I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish."
(Jn 10:27-28)
