Reflection from Fr. Ron

“Knowing His time was limited and that his hour had come, Jesus spoke directly to the heart of the matter. It was a simple commandment: “Love one another.”

It was not the first time he had spoken about love.

Jesus had offered clear instructions about loving God – above all else. He taught about loving neighbor, loving enemies and doing good to those who inflicted harm. He had been very direct about refusing to hate or seek revenge.

Is it even possible to truly love someone who has trespassed against us or someone we hold dear? What is the best way to be loving, fair and kind? We might consider the Gospel for the 3rd Sunday of Easter as an example, where Jesus offered Peter a way back from betrayal. Surely the life of Jesus can guide us.

With God’s grace, we can learn to trust the Spirit’s quiet inner voice. Listening attentively, we can carefully make our way through times of confusion and struggle to become more faithful disciples. Jesus promises, “See, I am making all things new.”

As bread and wine are blessed and shared around the altar, we are strengthened to live a life centered in love. It was said of the early Christians, see how they love one another. May it also be true of us.

First Reading: They called the church together and reported what God had done with them. (Acts 14:27)

Psalm: I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God. (Ps 146)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading: “He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away.” (Rev 21:4)

Gospel: I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. (Jn 13:34)
