OUR MISSION STATEMENT

We invite all to Worship, Pray, and Evangelize as we love and serve the Lord.

Let us be clear. It is time that you return to the pew.

As the Pastor of Saint Joseph I am charged with the responsibility of every soul in our parish boundary. My job is to get you to heaven. With that in mind I need to stress the lifting of the dispensation of your obligation to attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days. Recently I heard of a cradle Catholic that claimed he did not know that skipping Mass was a mortal sin in most situations. No, watching on television does not qualify. So I feel a need to repeat the following from last weekend.

On Friday, June 11 The Bishops of Indiana will jointly LIFT THE DISPENSATION FROM THE OBLIGATION OF MASS. There will be exceptions from the obligation to attend Mass, including illness, caring for a person that is ill, have compromised immunity, are at higher risk of developing a serious complication, and/or incapacitated due to age, infirmity and/or medical restrictions. Simply electing to not attend Mass without these reasons present, puts you at risk of mortal sin. Please speak with a Priest If you need clarification on this.

I am available to discuss any concerns you might have regarding this or other matters.

I plan to see you at Church, Fr. Eugene

RENOVATION UPDATE

Progress is being made on the masonry on the south side of the church. Most of the joints have been ground out and new mortar will soon be added back. The color for the mortar has been selected and it will be very close in color to the old mortar which will blend very well with the stone.

Installation of the scaffolding around the bell tower will begin shortly and it is anticipated to take approximately four weeks to install. Covering the stained glass windows on the north side of the church will begin occurring as we work around the church from the south and east walls of the church.

Bids are being received and evaluated for the Interior Phase of our renovation. There is significant cost escalation being encountered due to the overall economic conditions.

We ask all to be careful, take precautions, respect the fencing and boundary markings to ensure the safety of all. Our church will be a construction site so we need to be extra careful.

Please continue praying for the overall success of our church renovation project and our Capital Campaign.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

WE CAN PREPARE THE UPPER ROOM

We all know that person, don't we? Hey, maybe we've even been that person.

"I have a great relationship with God, but I don't go to church regularly. God and I are on good terms. I can talk to Him just fine on my own."

There isn't anything false in these statements. It's important to have an intimate, even conversational prayer relationship with God. But the problem with this attitude is that it implies that churches don't matter. Community worship doesn't matter. Today, we are reminded exactly why that is so untrue. Why we need our parishes, our priests, and each other.

The Body and Blood of Christ — that's what it's all about. If it's not about that, it's not about anything. If we don't have the Eucharist, we're just like the ancient priests, making sacrifices that don't have the power to redeem anybody.

Where do we receive the Body and Blood of Christ? For most of us, it's in our parishes. The altar of sacrifice is also the table we gather in front of, as a family, to become one with Christ in the truest and realest way possible, recreating the scene in the Upper Room over and over again every time Mass is celebrated.

The disciples were commissioned by Christ to prepare the Upper Room for the Last Supper. How can we take up that work ourselves? How can we strengthen the bonds in our spiritual family? How can we serve our parish, always remembering that the table is not meant to be set only for two?

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTER? GREETER, USHER? CANTOR, SERVER?

If you wish to serve (past, present, or future) our parish in any of these roles please call the office at (812) 482-1805 or go to our website select the "Serve" tab then "Liturgical Ministry". Training or refresh-er provided as needed.

Our Time Capital Campaign

A visitor from Willow Springs, Mo. walked out of Saint Joseph on Wednesday, May 26th in a state of awe. He told two of our parishioners that he "felt the presence of God" while looking at the Church. He went on to say that "the beauty served to honor God" and you could see "God's inspiration, because this was greater than what men alone could envision."

Take the time to look again and see Saint Joseph Church in the eyes of a visitor.

Totus Tuus (Totally Yours) is a fun and energetic five day program designed to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ and create enthusiasm for the faith! A missionary team of five, consisting of college-aged students from the Diocese of Nashville, TN will be coming to Saint Joseph. The youthfulness, energy, and ability to witness the faith make the missionaries particularly effective with children and teens. Our own Fr. Andrew participated in Totus Tuus. As you read his comment you will want your child to experience the power of Totus Tuus. Register now.

"Totus Tuus reminded me that it was ok to know, love, and serve Christ. It felt like for the first time in a long time that I wasn't alone in wanting more from life."

~Fr. Andrew

There are two separate events for each age group. 9AM-2:30PM for children grades 1-6 and an evening program for 7th -12th grade. Sign up online: saintjosephjasper.org then go to "events and sign ups."

Reading 1 Ex 24:3-8

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us." Moses then wrote down all the words of the LORD and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls as peace offerings to the LORD, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar. Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the LORD has said, we will heed and do." Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his."

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 116:12-13,15-16,17-18

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

How shall I make a return to the LORD for all the good he has done for me?
The cup of salvation I will take up,
and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

Precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.
I am your servant, the son of your handmaid;
you have loosed my bonds.

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving,
and I will call upon the name of the LORD.
My vows to the LORD I will pay in the presence of all his people.

R. I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

Reading 2 Heb 9:11-15

Brothers and sisters:
When Christ came as high priest of the good things that have come to be, passing through the greater and more perfect Tabernacle not made by hands, that is, not belonging to this creation, he entered once for all into the sanctuary, not with the blood of goats and calves but with his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption.

For if the blood of goats and bulls and the sprinkling of a heifer's ashes can sanctify those who are defiled so that their flesh is cleansed, how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works to worship the living God.

For this reason he is mediator of a new covenant: since a death has taken place for deliverance from transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Alleluia

Jn 6:51

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel | Mk 14:12-16,22-26

On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when they sacrificed the Passover lamb, Jesus' disciples said to him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?" He sent two of his disciples and said to them, "Go into the city and a man will meet you, carrying a jar of water. Follow him.

Wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says, "Where is my guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"'

Then he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make the preparations for us there."

The disciples then went off, entered the city, and found it just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body."

Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.

Amen, I say to you, I shall not drink again the fruit of the vine until the day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

Then, after singing a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

June 6, 2021

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

As our world faces so much turmoil and change, it is now more important than ever to remember who God is, who we are and where we are going. It is easy to get distracted and lose focus, especially when we are being pulled in so many directions. We can not only lose sight of God but one another. Maintaining our well developed and mature relationships with God and one another is essential to continuing to live, healthy, happy, and focused lives. In a message to young people, Pope Benedict XVI said, "the happiness you are seeking, the happiness you have a right to enjoy has a name and a face: it is Jesus of Nazareth, hidden in the Eucharist." What is true for those who are younger is even truer for those who are older. Regardless of how the particulars of life change over time, human beings are still hard-wired to seek the fullness of life and happiness. How we embark on this journey and what we choose along the way will indicate whether we meet success.

There is so much brokenness and pain in our world. Many people are lost, feeling lonely, anxious, marginalized, victimized, isolated, oppressed, and abused. Every time we receive the Body of Christ, we have an opportunity to become what we eat. The power and presence of Christ in the Eucharist becomes present in us and effects change in ourselves and in the lives of those we meet. We are given the grace to become temples of justice and peace, carrying God's sacred Presence within us wherever we go. Our faith community is ignited with the fire of God's love and stands out as a beacon of hope in a world that is lost. This is the only way we can discover peace-filled resolutions to violence and create innovative solutions to what is fueling its need in the first place. True happiness, for the young and old alike, becomes an obtainable goal.

St. John Maria Vianney says it so well. "There is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, he would have given it to us." Only the Eucharist has the ability to connect, sustain, strengthen, and properly orient us, not only on the road of this life but the road to life eternal. Knowing this, when life gets challenging, unsettling, and difficult, we can rely on and cling to this gift we have in the Real Presence of Christ. This actual encounter with God celebrates God's unconditional love for us and grounds us to the truth of who we are in a way nothing else is able to do. Because through the Eucharist we really do become the Body of Christ, we are also bonded together in a most perfect way to one another as that Body. Nourished, united, and strengthened by the Eucharist, let us individually and collectively, bring this wonderful gift to all we meet, especially the poor with whom we have a special connection.

“CHRIST CARING FOR PEOPLE THROUGH PEOPLE”

That’s the motto of Stephen Ministry. The Stephen Minister’s role is to bring God’s love into the lives of people who are going through a difficult time or experiencing a crisis. What do Stephen Ministers do? They listen, care, support, encourage, and pray with and for a person who is hurting. And in the midst of this confidential, one-to-one, caring relationship, God’s healing love comes pouring through.

If someone you know is facing a crisis—large or small—and could benefit from the caring presence of a Stephen Minister, talk to a Priest or call the Parish Center to get connected.

Our Stephen Ministers are ready to care for you!

Saint Michael the Archangel Prayer

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the malice and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.

Amen.
