Ora Pro Nobis-Pray For Us

I fly unto your patronage, my mother,
Ora pro nobis.

You who never leave anyone unaided,
but lay all our sighs, mourning and tears
at the feet of your Son,

Ora pro nobis.

You who try to keep us under your mantle like your little children wrapped safe against the wind and the rain,

Ora pro nobis.

Thank you for caring when we wander far away
and you come searching to call us home,

Ora pro nobis.

Thank you for teaching us to cherish your Son
and show us his ways,

Ora pro nobis.

Thank you for being willing to be mother of us all,
O Mother of the Word Incarnate.

Holy Communion

As the Church has always taught, every single particle, even the most minute, of the Sacred Host is the Body and Blood of Our Lord, whole and entire, and therefore the priest must be extremely cautious never to let stray particles on their fingers fall to the ground to be trampled underfoot by the faithful, resulting in profanation of the Body and Blood. This is why the Church only provides for the use of Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion in cases of “true necessity” or in cases of an “unforeseen nature.” The title of Eucharistic Minister is reserved for only those ordained—The Pope, Cardinals, Bishops, Priests, and Deacons. Lay people who assist with Holy Communion are called Extraordinary Ministers or Special Ministers of the Eucharist.

"To touch the sacred species and to distribute them with their own hands is a privilege of the ordained, one which indicates an active participation in the ministry of the Eucharist." ~Pope St. John Paul II, "Dominicae Cenae"

Prayer for Reparation for Offenses Against the Holy Eucharist

My Lord Jesus Christ, only Way to the Father, Son of God, Divine Redeemer, Savior of the world, I bless, adore, and glorify You.

I offer to You infinite praise for the sublime gift of the Most Blessed Sacrament – the Sacrament of Your Sacred Body and Precious Blood.

I beg of You mercy, grace, and peace upon this unworthy world, and especially upon Your Holy Catholic Church.

I offer to You, O Eucharistic Lord, my adoration, prayer, study, and good works, my hardships, humiliations, temptations, and daily crosses. I accept them and offer them up to You in reparation for countless offenses against the Holy Eucharist.

I offer them for irreverent bishops, priests, deacons, and lay people, for heresies, apostasies, and schisms, for errors, trivialities, and novelties preached in place of Gospel truth, for deliberate violations of Church laws, for countless liturgical abuses, for illicit additions and omissions, for reluctance to bend the knee, for negligent familiarity with the sacred, for scandalous behavior at the altar, for perfunctory devotions and unworthy communions, for unbelief and lukewarm faith, for immodest dress and profane music, for talk and laughter before the tabernacle, for the neglect that is sacrilege and the laxity that is blasphemy, for the ignorance that is indifference to revealed truth, and for every evil assault upon the sanctity of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

In reparation for all such godlessness within Your Church, I offer to You, my Lord Jesus Christ, all the difficulties of my life, and most especially the anguish I feel at the sight and sound of irreverence before the Holy Eucharist.

All that You have given to me I accept and offer up to You, my Eucharistic Lord, in reparation for countless offenses thrown at Your Most Holy Presence.

Have mercy upon Your Church, O Lord.
Defend her against the attacks of the devil.
Fill her with Your Spirit of Truth.
Embolden her with missionary zeal.
Animate her with the deepest devotion.
Arm her with scholars, saints, and martyrs.
Guide and protect Your vicar on earth.
Bless Your clergy and religious.
Inspire all the faithful to love and serve You as courageous soldiers of Jesus Christ.
And may Your Holy Gospel be proclaimed to all the nations and to the end of time, with fortitude and perfect fidelity,
for the salvation of souls
and the glory of Your Thrice-Holy Name: (Bow)
Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
Amen.
