ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski
Invites the Faithful Back to Mass.

As the world moves forward on the path of healing, we invite everybody in the Archdiocese of St. Louis to gather together again to experience the Eucharist—the true presence of the Body of Christ—in its fullest form.

On July 1, 2021, Archbishop Mitchell Rozanski will lift the dispensation of the obligation to attend Sunday Mass for all of the faithful in the Archdiocese of St. Louis—meaning that we will all be called to return to Holy Mass in person each Sunday.

Parishioners who are sick, homebound, immunocompromised and gravely concerned for their health retain the dispensation from the obligation to attend Mass, which has always been the case in normal times. Though we should take the obligation to attend Mass seriously, no one is ever morally obligated to do something that would jeopardize their health or the health of other people. Preserving our Republic

At the close of the Constitutional Convention in 1787, Benjamin Franklin was asked, "Well, doctor, what have we got- a Republic or a Monarchy?"

His response, "A republic, if you can keep it."

More than a monarchy or dictatorship, a republic depends on the goodwill, patience and shared values among citizens. Benjamin Franklin seems to have understood the fragility of a republic and his response, "if you can keep it" statement sounds like a challenge. To preserve one must know and understand what is being preserved.

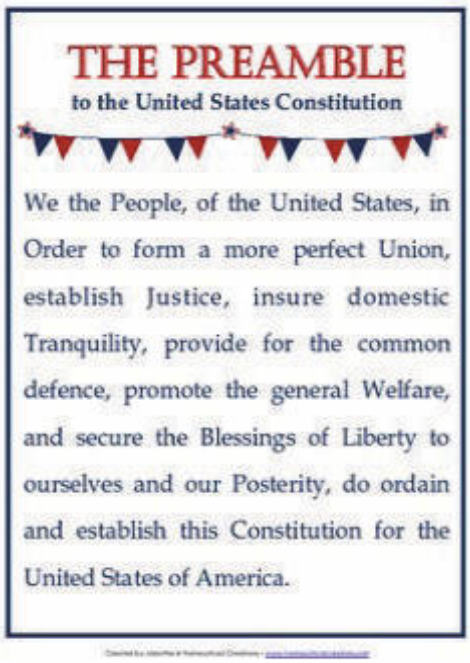
The United States Constitution brought together, in one remarkable document, ideas from many people and several exiting documents including the Articles of Confederation and the Declaration of Independence.

A few little civic lessons: There are three Branches of Government: The Executive Branch-The Legislative Branch-and the Judicial Branch. They were established to create a check and balance system within our government.

The Executive Branch is led by our President Joseph R. Biden, Jr. The President's duties are to enforce Federal laws and recommend new ones. President Biden serves as Commander in chief of the Armed Forces. He also meets with foreign leaders representing our country. The Executive Branch also consists of the Vice-President-Kamala Harris-and the President's Cabinet. The Vice-President serves as President of the Senate and becomes President if the President can no longer do the job. Leaders in each of the Cabinet positions are called Secretaries. Cabinet Departments: Department of Education-Transportation-Agriculture-Treasury-Defense-Energy-Health and Human Services-Commerce-Justice-Labor-Housing and Urban Development-Interior-Veteran Affairs-Homeland Security-and State.

The Legislative Branch consists of two parts: The Senate and the House of Representatives. Combined they are called Congress. Congress meets in the US Capitol in Washington, D.C. Congress' primary duty tis to write, debate, and pass bills, which then are sent to the President for approval to become laws. In addition to making laws, the Senate can vote on any treaties the President makes, review and approve Presidential appointees, such as Cabinet Secretaries and Supreme Court Justices., the Senate also can hold a trial for a government official who may have done something wrong.

Each state elects two senators to the United States Senate for staggered 6-year terms. Senators represent the entire state. The two Senators from Missouri are Roy Blunt and Josh Hawley. Roy Blunt has served as our Senator since 2011 and is up for reelection in 2024. Josh Hawley has been our senator since 2019 and will be up for reelection in 2024.



The United States is divided into 435 congressional districts, each with a population of about 710,000 individuals. Missouri has eight congressional districts. Each district elects a representative to the U.S. House of Representatives for a two-year term. Representatives are also called congressmen and congresswomen. Most people in this immediate area live in U.S. Missouri Congressional District #3 and our US Representative is Blaine Luetkemeyer which has served since 2013 and is up for reelection in 2022.

The Judicial Branch is made up of the court system. The Supreme Court is the highest court in the land. It was established by the Constitution. Other Federal courts were established by Congress. Courts decide arguments about the meanings of laws, how laws are applied, and whether laws break the rules of the Constitution. There are 9 Supreme Court Justices-John Roberts (Chief Justice)-Clarence Thomas-Stephen Breyer-Samuel Alito-Sonia Sotomayor-Elena Kagan-Neil Gorsuch- Brett Kavanaugh– and Amy Coney Barrett.
