St. Joseph Parish Mission Statement

“As living members of the Body of Christ, the people of St. Joseph Parish embrace the Traditions of the Church as given to us by Christ. Empowered by the Holy Spirit we teach, live, and love one another as brothers and sisters in Christ, and celebrate the Word of God as a faith-filled community that welcomes all who seek the truth. We celebrate the presence of God in our midst through worship, service, and catechesis. In accordance with the teachings of the Church, we work to assist all parish members in discerning the truths of our faith and the moral obligation to which we are called to live the Gospel.”

2021 Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal

	2021	2020
Parish Goal:	$ 45,200	$ 44,300
Amount Pledged:	$ 56,026	$ 63,726
Amount Paid:	$ 53,696	$ 62,353
Rebate:	$ 5,947	$ 12,637
Donor Count:	243	302

Thank you for making your monthly pledges in a timely manner. If you are still considering making a pledge to the CMAA, there is still time to do so. When we reach our goal, we receive 70% of the overage, to use as the parish needs. Thank you and God bless you for your generosity and support.

“Prayer is the foundation of all that we do in defense of human life. Say a short prayer. Meditate or ask God’s intercession. Devote some time to pray a Holy Hour, or commit to a Novena or Stations of the Cross. Special prayers are called for those who have lost a child due to miscarriage, abortion or other cause.

Everyone can find a way to praise and thank God for the gift of life and to ask for protection for each sacred human life.

Only with prayer - prayer that storms heaven for justice and mercy, prayer that cleanses our hearts and souls - will the culture of death that surrounds us today be replaced with a culture of life.”

-Pastoral Plan for Pro-Life Activities, U.S. Catholic Bishops

Live the Liturgy— Inspiration for the week

We only have so much psychological and spiritual energy. We easily get tired. Responding to life’s demands and people’s needs can really zap us of all of our energy. Anger, frustration, exhaustion, discouragement, helplessness, and even apathy can run wild. We can find ourselves bitter and irritated by the fact that we have to do it all again. We need to rest, connect, and focus. Deserted places, free of unnecessary distractions and demands, are great places of refreshment and we all need them. Desiring to be alone for a bit and rest does not indicate selfishness. Rather, it radiates wisdom. God is the source of all we do and the satisfaction of every human heart. If we are going to use the gifts God gave us well, then we have to make sure our batteries are recharged and replenished. Jesus invites us to go to a desert place to rest and pray. Where is yours?

DID YOU KNOW?

Q&A: What about Cremation?

Since when can Catholics be cremated?

Cremation has been an alternative to ground burial or entombment for Catholics since 1963. Canon Law recommends that the custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed; however, it does not forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons contrary to Christian teaching, such as to deny the doctrine of the resurrection of the dead.

What do we do with the cremated remains of the body?

The cremated remains of a body should be treated with the same respect given to the corporeal remains. This includes the use of a worthy vessel for the ashes, the manner in which they are carried, the care and attention to appropriate placement and transport, and the final disposition (Order of Christian Funerals, #416). It is recommended that cremation take place after the funeral liturgy, however, the funeral liturgy may be celebrated in the presence of the cremated remains (1997 appendix to the Order of Christian Funerals, #426).

Why is it recommended that cremation occur after the funeral liturgy?

The Christian funeral is celebrated in three stages: the vigil (commonly called the wake), the funeral liturgy (usually Mass, but not always), and the committal. Liturgy works by means of signs that are perceptible to the senses. An important sign in the funeral liturgy is the body. This friend or family member was created in the image and likeness of God. Reborn by water in the Holy Spirit, this person was recreated in the image of Christ—a living temple of the Holy Spirit. During the vigil, we pray over the body of our loved one and remember, give thanks, and ask for God's mercy and comfort. For the funeral liturgy, we bring the body of our loved one back to the house of the Church one last time. Just as he or she was welcomed at the door on the day of Baptism, washed in the font and clothed in the robe of redemption, we repeat that at the funeral. We welcome the body at the Church, we sprinkle the casket with holy water and robe it in the pall—a reminder of the Baptismal garment. The body then rests near the paschal candle. Much of this symbolism is lost if the body is not present.

What words do we use to show respect?

Some use "cremains" to refer to the cremated remains. We encourage people to show due respect by always using the term "cremated remains of the body" or "cremated remains." In this way, even our words show respect.

Where should cremated remains of the body be buried?

Cremated remains of the body must be buried in a grave or entombed in a mausoleum or columbarium.

Monthly Theme for the Year of St. Joseph July – Joseph Most Faithful

Fidelity connotes steadfastness. In the vicissitudes of life, one needs steadfast love, that is, fidelity, when encountering confusion, suffering, and failure. The image of Joseph finding a place in which the Child could be born was his movement in all of life. Failure simply meant one went on in fidelity and found by failure what God had intended for the fruitfulness of His will.

Am I a parishioner of St. Joseph?

Over the years St. Joseph Church has received numerous calls from people who have thought that because they had been Baptized, received their First Communion or were Confirmed here, that they were considered parishioners forever.

Such is not the case. Every good Catholic should be registered and participate in the life of their local parish community. When people move, leaving no forwarding address, or do not use their offertory envelopes, they are removed from our parish roster.

Because St. Joseph Church is committed to serving our current active parishioners first and foremost, this causes complications when people later request baptisms, weddings, funerals, or to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor.

We invite you to register as a parishioner if you have not already done so. You can register through the parish website, www.stjosephjoliet.org or call the rectory.

Kids Corner— July 18th, 2021

Have you ever just wanted to be alone for awhile? Jesus and his disciples knew what that felt like. They wanted to be alone to talk and rest, but crowds of people were surrounding them. Even when Jesus and his disciples tried to slip away unnoticed, people followed them anyway. They arrived only to find more crowds of people. This was certainly not the quiet time they had planned on. Being patient and kind, Jesus gave up what he wanted, and began to teach the crowds.

Prayer

Dear God, thank you that Jesus gave up what he wanted, just so he could help other people. Help me to follow his example. Amen.

Mission for the week

Spend some alone time with Jesus tonight. If you get interrupted because someone else needs help, that's okay. Go help, and then come back to your alone time with Jesus.

Would you like to become Catholic?

Would you like to receive Sacraments in the Catholic Church?

R.C.I.A., which stands for the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, is a program through which adults can join the Catholic Church or can complete their initiation by receiving their Sacraments.

Is RCIA for me?

RCIA is for three groups of people:

- Those who are not baptized.
- Those who were baptized into another Christian denomination and wish to enter into full communion with the Catholic Church.
- Baptized Catholics who were not fully formed in the Catholic faith and have not completed their initiation, who have not received either the Sacraments of Holy Communion or Confirmation.

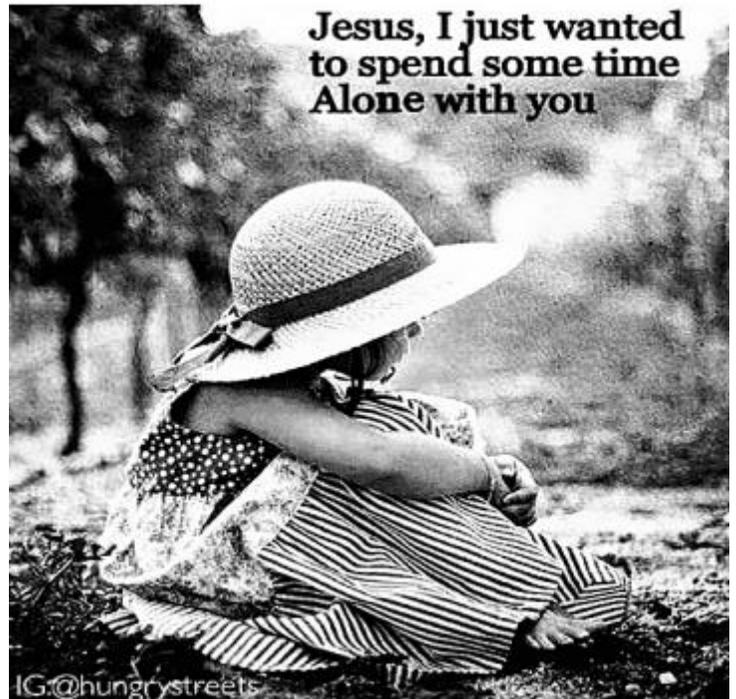

RCIA classes are held following 10:00 Mass for a six-month period. At the conclusion of the classes, the adults are ready to join the Church. There is no cost for the RCIA program.

Anyone interested in learning more about the RCIA program, please call the rectory 815-727-9378. Classes begin in October, concluding with receiving the sacraments at the Easter Vigil Mass. Classes are held in the rectory next to Church.

We would like parishioners to:

- Invite someone to participate in RCIA.
- Recommend someone to be invited to participate in RCIA.

If you would like to have someone invited to participate in RCIA and do not feel comfortable doing this yourself, talk with Fr. Tim, email the office at jhalsne@stjosephjoliet.org or call the rectory at 815-727-9378. We will follow-up and make the invitation.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The feast day of St. Mary Magdalene is celebrated on July 22nd. She is the patron saint of penitent sinners.

Mary Magdalene is well known from the Gospel account of Jesus casting out seven demons from her. She experienced great sorrow for her sins and became a devoted follower of Christ.

Because of her sorrow, she anointed Christ with tears and dried His feet with her hair. Mary Magdalene was present at many of the important times in the life of Jesus. She remained with the Lord during his last agony on the cross. She is the one who discovered His body missing from the tomb. She is honored by being the first person Christ appeared to after His Resurrection.

Each of us has sin in our lives. Whatever that sin is, we can turn to Jesus as Mary Magdalene did... with sincere sorrow... and become true disciples of Jesus. Only if we confide in Jesus in our sorrow and our joy can we truly call Jesus our "friend."

Mary Magdalene reported seeing Jesus after the resurrection by exclaiming to the other followers, "I have seen the Lord!"
