THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." - Mt 28:18-19

The fundamental dogma, on which everything in Christianity is based, is that of the Blessed Trinity in whose name all Christians are baptized. The feast of the Blessed Trinity needs to be understood and celebrated as a prolongation of the mysteries of Christ and as the solemn expression of our faith in this triune life of the Divine Persons, to which we have been given access by Baptism and by the redemption won for us by Christ.

The feast of the Blessed Trinity was introduced in the ninth century and was only inserted in the general calendar of the church in the fourteenth century by Pope John XXII. But the cultus of the Trinity is of course, to be found throughout the liturgy. Constantly the church causes us to praise and adore the thrice-holy God who has so shown His mercy towards us and has given us to share in His life.

The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast of Holy Trinity is this: there is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. Only in heaven shall we properly understand what it means, in union with Christ, to share as sons in the very life of God.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity be regarded as the church's gratitude over all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons. For this mystery is a synthesis of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost. Every Sunday is devoted to the honor of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God.

The mystery of the most Holy Trinity is a basic doctrine of faith in Christianity, understandable not with our heads but with our hearts. We believe in this Mystery because Jesus, who is God, taught it clearly, the evangelists recorded it, the Fathers of the Church tried to explain it and the Council of Nicaea and Constantinople defined it as a dogma of Christian faith.

Importance of Holy Trinity in Christian life: 1. All prayers in the church begin in the Name of the Holy trinity and end glorifying the Trinity. 2. All sacraments are administered in the name of the Holy Trinity. 3. Where Church bells ring thrice daily, they remind us to pray to the Holy Trinity. 4. We bless ourselves, and the priest blesses us, in the name of the Holy Trinity.

Let me conclude with the Trinitarian formula of blessing: the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God the Father, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

St. Martín de Porres, Pray for us! Fr. Lijo Kallarackal

I want you to think back to the times in your life when you were really hurting or when you felt as if life was just too much to handle. We all have such moments and are not all dealt the same hand. Life can be hard for each of us and not just once in a while, but often. I know that when I think about the times in my life that caused me the most pain or the greatest amount of sorrow, there is a common thread that runs through all of those moments. Maybe the same thread runs through your most painful experiences, too. In each case, the times when I was hurting the most were the times when one of my relationships was suffering. Do you find that to be true in your life, too?

I don't mean to suggest that we can't suffer in other ways. Many different things can cause us anxiety and pain, not just wounded relationships. Yet, when my relationships are strong, it feels as if I can weather some pretty serious storms. But, if my relationships are weak or being tested, the rest of my life can be nearly perfect and I am still unhappy and unsatisfied. I guess you could say that even if I "have it all" in many areas of life, but don't have loving and life-giving relationships, it sort of feels as if I don't really have much of anything.

There is a very good reason why that is true. Strong relationships actually lie at the very core of our belief in God. We believe God is, in His very essence, encompassing the deepest and most profound sort of reality. The God we believe in – Father, Son, and Spirit is precisely who He is because of the relationship of love that exists between the three persons. God is not immovable, static and impenetrable. No, God is communion. God is dynamic. God is lover, beloved, and love itself.

If your crosses are heavy and if the cards you have been dealt make up a pretty bad hand, don't despair. There is some level of peace that can be found amid the storms of life. But that peace will ultimately have less to do with the "fixing" of our problems than it will have to do with the strength of our relationships. If our relationships are in disarray or broken, if we don't take the time to work on them or treasure them, it won't matter much what the rest of our lives are like. We will still find life somewhat empty and without much meaning. But, if we continually find ways to love others and let them love us too, we will be able to bear much. We will never feel far from God. We will never feel that we are making this journey through life alone.

Father, Son and Spirit – relationships of love who show us who God is and who we are. May this profound truth help us see the importance of the relationships in our lives as spouses, children, parents, co-workers, and friends. As we struggle to work through the difficulties and challenges which come our way in this life, may we at the same time pay close attention to the ways in which we relate to others, knowing that when we love and receive love, we are profoundly close to the very heart of God.

Donate today and help improve the humble houses where sponsored families live. Help shore up houses that are often made of cement block, mud, corrugated tin, or found materials like road signs or plastic sheeting. Your gift helps makes existing homes safer and more comfortable — replacing candles with electricity or dirt floors with concrete — and may even help families relocate out of disaster-prone areas.

First Reading

This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other. (Dt 4:39)

Psalm

Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own. (Ps 33)

Second Reading

Those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" (Rom 8:14-15)

Gospel

WHY I JOINED ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

By David Kirchner

In the Gospel, we hear of the two Great Commandments, to Love God and to Love our Neighbors. Loving our Neighbors is what Saint Vincent de Paul is all about. We are called as Vincentians to see the face of Christ in everyone we assist and to be there for our neighbors in their hour of need. When I am returning phone calls it is amazing how much joy and gratitude that we receive when we are just able to pay a utility bill or help with rent for a neighbor. When we share God's love with our neighbors in need, we can tap more fully into the infinite river of his love and Mercy. This ministry also helps me to see how good God has been to me in my life and reminds me to be thankful for everything God has given me. We are called to live in God's love and that is what we do in the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul. Please come see us on the 2nd Thursday of each month at 7:00 pm in the Knobbe House to see what we are all about.

Father
ETERNAL LOVE

He created us to know His love.

Son
ETERNAL MERCY

He died for us to reveal the Father's love.

Holy Spirit
ETERNAL POWER

He descends upon us to give us new life.
