Salt for the Weak

"Go therefore, and make disciples of all nations." Great! Good thing we have missionaries like those people from Divine Word Seminary. But just to whom was Jesus talking? To me. And to you. The vocation of a disciple is to make more disciples! The gifts of the Holy Spirit that we celebrated last weekend are given to empower us (to embolden us, really) to make disciples.

A disciple should not be confused with an "admirer." The disciple is active, disciplined in bringing the Good News to others, gathering them together into Christ. Living in the Spirit, we are called to live in the Trinity: living in community, in unity with others. Christian community is about unity, not agreement. Since the beginning of time the Church has always brought forward the challenging, unpopular views and values of Christ. Our faith is not the product of peace and quiet and lots of smiling agreement! Rather it is the product of impassioned discussions and searching for the most authentic way to live the Gospel of Jesus with our lives—a gospel that is decidedly counter-cultural in every age.

Celebrating the Most Holy Trinity, we want that same intimacy, that same community as God the Creator, Son and Spirit. Are you a disciple-maker?

Happy "Ordinary Time," which is anything but ordinary!

For further prayer and reflection…

1. What do you find most challenging about family/community?
2. Can you think of a family/community/church rupture in community? How can you be a source of healing and reconciliation?
3. Being children of God and heirs of God will bring with it suffering. Have you ever suffered persecution or ridicule for your faith? How did you respond?
4. Can you think of someone in your circle of friends/acquaintances whom you could disciple? Get to know better? Invite to Church? Become a deeper part of his/her life?
5. Say a prayer of thanksgiving today for someone who has discipled you in your faith.

A Reminder that with the New CDC COVID-19 Protocols the dispensation from "Sunday obligation" will be lifted the first weekend in June (Corpus Christi). After that date those who could come to Church should do so, unless prohibited by other medical/ mobility or age conditions.

Legacy Gift to Your Parish—Don't put off your will for we do not know the day nor the hour we will be called home. Being responsible stewards of God's many gifts to us includes planning what happens to those gifts after we are gone. This includes family, charities and, we pray, your parish. If you would like more information about leaving a legacy gift to one of our Emmaus parishes, contact Sandy Klaus (563-928-7200). If you would like information about gift planning, including a free Will Planning Guide, please contact our planning partner at the Catholic Foundation (563-552-0176 or CFAD@OurCFAD.org).

Father John and the Members of the Sacred Heart Pastorate Council

Pastorate Gratitude…The Emmaus Pastorate's response to the entire COVID-19 experience had many behind-the-scenes helpers. I am deeply indebted to our "COVID-Central" Committee whom helped shepherd us through and assist with decisions. At all times, we were in compliance with the CDC and Archdiocese of Dubuque recommendations and guidelines. I realize that other faith communities in our area handled things differently as well. We certainly did our part, consistently, and as we stated we would from the start. Our committee members read through and researched bulletins and reports and followed Clayton and Delaware stats, kept us up-to-date and made recommendations for our local parishes. They were all a tremendous help to me as pastor! Thanks goes to Fran Zichal (Saint Joseph) for chairing the group, comprised of Joan C. Kerns (Saint Mark), Theresa Breitbach (Saint Mary), and Melissa Fettkether (Sacred Heart). The custodial staff in each of our parishes spent additional time cleaning and sanitizing in an effort to keep us safe as well. Special thanks to Bob Hankey and John Goodin from Saint Joseph, who became experts in sanitizing the church after weddings right prior to Saturday afternoon Mass. Guests from surrounding parishes told me they felt safe coming to the Pastorate because we followed protocols and their parishes did not. Thank you, too, Edgewood Fire Department for assisting in cleaning and sanitizing after Jordan Cabalka's wake so we were ready for the funeral the next day. These are yet other examples of what it means to "Be Church." Thanks to these people for their sacrifices and to everyone for your patience and Christian charity. Neither God (nor we) will forget.

Monday, May 31, 10:30 a.m. Memorial Day Mass, followed by a Veterans Service, will be held at St. Joseph Cemetery, Greeley In case of inclement weather, the events will be held at the Greeley Legion Building.

The Holy Silence of St. Joseph

Throughout the sacred Scriptures, men and women are called by God to take on totally unexpected roles. In the old Testament, it was Noah, Moses, Abraham, David and Gideon to identify a few. They were leading normal lives when suddenly, God called them. They experienced a visit from an angel.

While the New Testament discusses Mary with some frequency, little is said about Joseph. It seems strange that he is mentioned so few times—only 14 and all in the gospels. Mark never mentions him and John only on two occasions. Luke and Matthew discuss him but very briefly. No words are attributed to him—none! The other 23 books of the New Testament are silent; yet, Joseph was closer to Jesus than any other man.

That he was the earthly father of Jesus and the protector of Jesus and Mary would seemingly warrant giving him more attention. But the Scriptures are the Word of God, the authors are divinely inspired, so perhaps the brevity, the silence, is purposeful—purposeful in the sense that Joseph's actions and presence were such that more comments about him or a record of what he said isn't necessary. Indeed, he was a man of action, not of words.

The Bible introduces Joseph in the Gospel according to Matthew (1:18-25). An angel visits Joseph in a dream and announces what God has in store for him.

Part Two will follow in an upcoming bulletin. In the meantime you can pray this beautiful prayer, "The Silence of St. Joseph."

> His silence is steeped in contemplation of the mystery of God in an attitude of total availability to the divine desires…. St. Joseph's silence does not express an inner emptiness but, on the contrary, the fullness of faith he bears in his heart and which guides his every thought and action…..Let us allow ourselves to be "filled" with St. Joseph's silence! In a world that is often too noisy, that encourages neither recollection nor listening to God's voice, we are in deep need of it.

Prayer for Visiting a Grave in a Cemetery

God of Abraham and of Moses, Lord of the Living, who visited Jesus within His grave and filled Him with the fullness of eternal life, hear our prayer this day as we come to the burial place of (name).
With reverence, we visit this sacred shrine where his/her body was placed within the womb of the earth to await the final day of glory.
We pause in silence to be united with him/her.
(pause for silent prayer)

Lord, we have come on this pilgrimage of prayer to keep the flame of love alive within our hearts.
As we read his/her name upon the marker-stone, we rejoice because that name has been written for all ages in the palm of Your divine hand.

May the breath of creation that surrounds this grave—in trees, grass and earth, birds and sun—join us in prayer.
May this pilgrimage remind us of what we already know: that nothing dies; rather, life is only transformed into new life.
Holy is this grave, holy this earth that has held in gentle embrace the bodies of all who are buried in this cemetery.

Lord, with reverence, we leave a wreath of worship at this grave, woven with love, adorned with memories and with our faith in the reality of that earthen Easter morning when all the holy dead shall rise in the splendor of Your glory.
Till that day, eternal rest to (name) and to all the holy dead.

Amen.
