Parish Picnic/Chicken Dinner, Sunday, September 29th at 11:00am. Please bring a covered dish. There will be a bouncy house for the children.

Good News: We will not be paying for our bulletin. We have changed bulletin companies from Liturgical Publications to Diocesan Publications. There is no connection to our diocese other than some local parishes also have their bulletins printed by the same company. The old company was not able to sell enough ads to pay for the bulletin. You will see the change beginning with the Sunday, September 22 bulletin

Catholic Parishes Campaign goals have been sent out recently. Both parishes have experienced a reduction in their goals. Blessed Sacrament’s goal is $17,267.00 (which is $1,539.00 less - 8%). The CPC Commitment Weekend is September 28-29. There was a 1.77% increase as compared to the current year’s assessment. Our parishes’ participation in the total assessment is based on a ratio of the number of contributors of more than fifty dollars ($50) in the previous calendar year to the total of such contributors in the diocese. Blessed Sacrament reported 44 contributors.

Scripture Stewardship: “Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you.” LUKE 14:13 -14
We have a difficult time with the concept of giving without expecting something in return. Even when we give to charity we often want something in return – a raffle ticket, a dinner, a chance to play golf or our name in print. Yet, as Christian Stewards, we need to remember that the true reward for our giving awaits us in heaven.
Welcome to St. Peter & Paul Catholic Church

This Weekend, parishes in our diocese are taking up the National Collection for The Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. Located in the heart of the nation’s capital, Catholic University offers graduate and undergraduate courses in more than 180 academic programs. By giving to the National Collection, you will help support more than 6,000 students who are seeking a faith-filled education at an institution that supports cutting-edge research in multiple fields. Your donation will also enable the continuance of The Catholic Project. Jumpstarted by philanthropic gifts, The Catholic Project is an initiative of the University that aims to help clergy and the laity develop a deeper understanding of the lay vocation and principles for effective action in the wake of the recent Church crisis.

Weekly Giving, August 25th~ $1,497.25

LENDER TO A SUFFERING CHURCH: A Bishop Speaks on the Sexual Abuse Crisis

The sexual abuse scandal has gripped the Catholic Church for the past thirty years, and continues to wreak havoc even today. It’s been a diabolical masterpiece, one that has compromised the work of the Church in every way and has left countless lives in ruin. Many Catholics are understandably asking, “Why should I stay? Why not abandon this sinking ship before it drags me or my children under?” In this stirring manifesto, Bishop Robert Barron explains why this is not the time to leave, but the time to stay and fight. Bishop Barron shows that we have faced such egregious scandals before; that the spiritual treasures of the Church were preserved by holy men and women who recommitted themselves to fighting evil; and that there is a clear path forward for us today. For Catholics questioning their faith, searching desperately for encouragement and hope, this book will offer reasons to stay and fight for the Body of Christ. Copies are available on the back tables of Sts. Peter and Paul Church.

“Never let your home be without a crucifix upon its walls, to end that all who enter it may know that you are a disciple of a Crucified Lord, and that you are not ashamed to own it.”

-- On Home Life, St. Jean Vianney, the Cure of Ars
