Gospel Meditation

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis references a thought from Pope Benedict XVI: "Being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction." Today we celebrate an encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ! This simple but holy event in time dramatically changes human life, pointing it toward a new horizon and giving it a decisive direction. This is a message and truth that is not meant to be shared with only a select few who qualify but with the entire world. Pope Francis continues saying, "Thanks solely to this encounter or renewed encounter with God's love, which blossoms into an enriching friendship, we are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. We become fully human when we become more than human, when we let God bring us beyond ourselves in order to attain the fullest truth of our being."

Look around at people. Where is life heading for them? What gives them direction? Even we who are people of faith can get distracted and lose our focus. God, in all of His fullness, is revealed in Jesus Christ and we can encounter Him! God is tangible, real, vulnerable, poor, and full of wonders, surprises, and opportunities. For those who are struggling and lost, today is a day of great joy. All they have to do is reach out and touch the truth of Christ. This presence is revealed in the poor, exploited, and vulnerable ones who cry out for compassion and love. But it is also found in the faithful ones who see in the Epiphany of God a liberation from structures and systems that hurt us, a narrowness of mind and heart that constricts us, and an absorption in our self-agenda that prevents us from seeing anything other than ourselves as important.

We have been given the charge of preaching this Good News. If only we could find a way to be more effective, it might stand a chance of doing what God intended it to do. There is always tomorrow and our memory of that bright new light that shone so brilliantly that Bethlehem night pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved. ©LPi

Horse Races

It's not exactly the Kentucky Derby, but race fans will cheer on horses — wooden horses that is — during the 31st Annual Knights of Columbus Horse Races on Sat, January 29 at the St. Patrick Parish Center (gym). Doors will open at 6 PM and races start at 7 PM.

How do horses race in the Parish Center Gym?

With the help of volunteer “jockeys” from the crowd, hand-painted wooden horses will move down the “turf” track with throws of dice until the winner crosses the finish line.

What is the entrance fee?

There is a general per person admission fee of $20 at the door. Fee includes beverage bar, snacks, and attendance prizes. Snacks may include Chex mix, popcorn, veggie tray, cheese and sausage tray, meatballs, and wings. Many people bring their own snacks to share at their table as well.

How does betting work?

There are 12 races. There are 6 horses with different owners and names in each race.

Each bet is $2.00. Individuals may bet on as many horses as they wish or bet on the same horse as many times as they wish. Odds are posted after the betting window closes. Knights pay 60% of each purse to the winning horse. There is a daily double which involves two races with $4.00 for each bet and those bets must be placed before the first half of the daily double.

Who can attend?

This event is open to the public, so invite other race fans out for a night of friendly bidding and high-spirited fun. Tables of 8 may be reserved in advance. Call today!

Who do I contact for questions, sponsorship information, or table reservations?

To talk to the event coordinator, call Wayne Stoehner at 314-504-0112.

THE WILD GOOSE
A PARISH-WIDE STUDY OF OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT

THURSDAYS

Fruits of the Holy Spirit

"The fruits are signs or manifestations that our life is being transformed or perfected by God."
—Catechism of the Catholic Church

January 6 | 7 PM

Parish Social Hall

Synopsis

"So by their fruits you will know them"
- Matthew 7:20

By the way we live and how we treat people, our lives produce some type of fruit. The sort of fruit our lives produce has eternal consequences for us personally as well as a profound impact on those people we love. In fact, our fruit impacts all of our relationships, from the most casual to the most intimate. When we live animated by the Holy Spirit, our lives produce fruit that not only makes our own life more peaceful, patient, and loving but also influences positively those whom we encounter each and every day.

This ministry contributes to the celebration of their loved one's life. Please consider joining this ministry as a lead for the lunches (can be 1 person or a team of 2 that work well together). Call Joyce Hunsel at 636-639-6549 for details.

Inspiration
Live the Liturgy

Human beings easily get bored. Life's routines can become so predictable that there is often little time for excitement or freshness. Today is all about the new and the wonderful. In celebrating the beauty and simplicity of the Epiphany, we see in tangible ways God's creative, redemptive, and restorative power. This refreshment and revitalization is offered not only to a select few but to everyone throughout the world. There is nothing routine or static about God. Surprises, wonders, miracles, opportunities, healings, and joy without measure are available to those who believe. There are never any endings, just beginnings. And, when darkness, boredom, and gloom seem to be the order of the day, a bright new light now shines pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved. ©LPi
