Gospel Meditation

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."
— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely ly what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear. ©LPi

Please join us in person or online.

Horse Races

WENTZVILLE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS FUNDRAISER

It’s not exactly the Kentucky Derby, but race fans will cheer on horses — wooden horses that is — during the 31st Annual Knights of Columbus Horse Races on Sat, January 29 at the St. Patrick Parish Center (gym). Doors will open at 6 PM and races start at 7 PM.

How do horses race in the Parish Center Gym?

With the help of volunteer “jockeys” from the crowd, hand-painted wooden horses will move down the “turf” track with throws of dice until the winner crosses the finish line.

What is the entrance fee?

There is a general per person admission fee of $20 at the door. Fee includes beverage bar, snacks, and attendance prizes. Snacks may include Chex mix, popcorn, veggie tray, cheese and sausage tray, meatballs, and wings. Many people bring their own snacks to share at their table as well.

How does betting work?

There are 12 races. There are 6 horses with different owners and names in each race.

Each bet is $2.00. Individuals may bet on as many horses as they wish or bet on the same horse as many times as they wish. Odds are posted after the betting window closes. Knights pay 60% of each purse to the winning horse. There is a daily double which involves two races with $4.00 for each bet and those bets must be placed before the first half of the daily double.

Who can attend?

This event is open to the public, so invite other race fans out for a night of friendly bidding and high-spirited fun. Tables of 8 may be reserved in advance. Call today!

Who do I contact for questions, sponsorship information, or table reservations?

To talk to the event coordinator, call Wayne Stoehner at 314-504-0112.

Sharing the Gospel

When you were baptized, a priest sprinkled holy water over your head. He said, "I baptize you in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." God said, "This is my child in whom I am well pleased." Tell God you are glad you are his child. Tell him you will obey his laws. Tell him that you love him with your whole heart, soul, body, and mind.

Prayer

Holy Spirit, I want to be a good child of God.

Music Ministry

COME SING WITH US THIS TUESDAY!

January is a great time to start with the choir. Our rehearsals are on Tuesdays at 7 PM in the church, beginning on January 11. If you can sing on key, please consider this as a way to share in ministry. If you hear someone near you singing on key at church, kindly suggest this to them as well! Contact Carrie at musicdirector@stpatsch.org before attending and if you have any questions.

Do You See?

It is easy to recognize an image of Our Lord in the manger at Christmas, as well as when we look upon a crucifix. But when we look at the Consecrated Host, enshrined on the monstrance, is He as easily recognized? Pray for the gift of faith. The baby in the manger and the man on the cross are images of Jesus Christ, but the One who is in the monstrance is not an image, but the Real Presence of Jesus in His glorified body, hidden within the Consecrated Host. Take the opportunity to know Jesus a little better in His Eucharistic Presence so that He becomes more easily recognized.

Join us in person or online for our Holy Hour of Adoration on Thursdays at 10 AM and the fourth Thursday of every month at 7 PM. Come and see!

Warming Items Needed

Caring and Sharing is in need of items for the homeless:

- blankets
- sleeping bags
- hand warmers (HotHands)

You may leave items in the box under the coat rack in the church gathering space. For info, contact Janie Bickham at 636-561-8537.

Living Faith

1ST QTR BOOKLETS AVAILABLE NOW

The Living Faith booklets, donated by the Knights of Columbus, are now available in a box in the church gathering area and at the parish office. Living Faith, published quarterly, provides brief daily Catholic devotions based on one of the Mass readings of the day. Join Our Clean Team

Church cleaners maintain a neat and clean environment for our parish. Different teams work on a rotating basis so they only work approximately 12 times per year. Teams provide light cleaning and straightening up services on Friday mornings from 8:30 -9:30. If you would like to volunteer with this ministry, contact Frann Kintz at 636-332-2747.

Spiritual Bouquet

Spiritual Bouquet cards are available in the Adoration Chapel foyer if you wish to offer your holy hour and prayers for a specific person. Simply fill out the card and give it to the person for whom you prayed as your gift to them.

The Spirit and the Desert

“We always find that those who walked closest to Christ were those who had to bear the greatest trials.”

— St. Teresa of Avila

January 13 | 7 PM

Parish Social Hall

Synopsis

“[Jesus] was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil.” - Luke 4:1

On the day Jesus was baptized, the Holy Spirit anointed him and then led him to the desert. The desert was a place of isolation, death and defeat but Jesus was led to the desert so that it may be forever changed. So that it may be a place of grace. The Spirit led Jesus to the desert and also protected and cared for him while he was there. The desert is a part of every Christian's life but it does not have to be a place of despair or isolation. The Holy Spirit is present to life's deserts and when we experience his presence it changes our spiritual life. The desert is no longer a place to be feared but can be a profound encounter with Jesus.

Inspiration
Live the Liturgy

Jesus stood in line with everyone else and was baptized. There is something incredibly humbling about how this must have played out. Then, God did something truly awesome and inspiring. Through a very gentle and simple action he let the world know about the special relationship He shares with Jesus. That’s exactly what is so incredible about our baptisms as well! Through those holy waters God announces to the world the special place we also occupy in His heart. We no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. We do not need to fumble around, tripping over ourselves and wondering why we are even here. The answer has been given. All we have to do is live out the vocation we have received, to live the Gospel in fidelity to our Creator. There is nothing to fear and worry has no place. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor and God is very pleased. ©LPi
