Gospel Meditation

Human history reveals many periods where people lost a sense of God's transcendence. It may even be argued that human beings have been wandering and lost more than they have been at home and focused. Human nature being what it is, we struggle with who God really is — the God of our salvation history or the "gods" of human constructs. Relying on our own designs and pursuits, we forget that we really are meant to listen to One upon whom the Spirit of the Lord rests, Jesus Christ, and not to ourselves. That same history that reveals our fickleness and infidelity also reveals God's constancy and faithfulness. God always finds us.

As people wander and fumble to find their way, God is there bringing them back to holiness and giving them the assurance of His presence. We have to allow God's Word, God's life, to touch us and change us. It can make us more flexible and attentive to the sacred in all facets of life so that every day is one that is holy. Every day is a time when fulfillment is possible for one's soul. Jesus stood before those gathered in the synagogue as the fulfillment of words of promise that were echoed long ago. God doesn't forget. He always comes for us.

Now it is time to remember to go to God. Sometimes our lives are so confused and tangled that it is difficult to see the Word and hand of God. But when we realize, deep within, the depth of friendship God offers to us it really has the power to turn sadness to joy. The promise is fulfilled. Going frequently to God's Word, allowing ourselves to be enriched and rejuvenated, and pondering the certainty of God's fidelity and promise permanently transforms us. We will be more aware of the sacred and the holy and less invested in things that pull us away. ©LPi

It combines the best research from science with the teachings of the Catholic faith and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of authentic men capable of transforming themselves, their families, and greater society.

The Spring semester objectives are to

- Identify the three fundamental orientations of each person and the means by which we encounter God according to these orientations.
- Identify the three fundamental temptations in the spiritual life and the means for overcoming them.

HORSE RACES

SAT 01.29.22

all are welcome!

ST. PATRICK PARISH CENTER

Doors Open 6 PM Races Start 7 PM

$20 at the DOOR

stpatrickwentzville.org/horse

It's not exactly the Kentucky Derby, but race fans will cheer on horses — wooden horses that is — during the 31st Annual Knights of Columbus Horse Races on Sat, January 29 at the St. Patrick Parish Center (gym). Doors will open at 6 PM and races start at 7 PM.

How do horses race in the Parish Center Gym?

With the help of volunteer “jockeys” from the crowd, hand-painted wooden horses will move down the “turf” track with throws of dice until the winner crosses the finish line.

What is the entrance fee?

There is a general per person admission fee of $20 at the door. Fee includes beverage bar, snacks, and attendance prizes. Snacks may include Chex mix, popcorn, veggie tray, cheese and sausage tray, meatballs, and wings. Many people bring their own snacks to share at their table as well.

How does betting work?

There are 12 races. There are 6 horses with different owners and names in each race. Each bet is $2.00. Individuals may bet on as many horses as they wish or bet on the same horse as many times as they wish. Odds are posted after the betting window closes. Knights pay 60% of each purse to the winning horse. There is a daily double which involves two races with $4.00 for each bet and those bets must be placed before the first half of the daily double.

Is this a fundraiser?

This is an annual fundraiser sponsored by the Knights of Columbus. With your help and support, the Knights are able to do many great things in our community and around the state. The Knights thank you and appreciate your help and support. To learn more, visit www.stpatrickwentzville.org/knights.

Who can attend?

This event is open to the public, so invite other race fans out for a night of friendly bidding and high-spirited fun. Tables of 8 may be reserved in advance. Call today!

Who do I contact for questions, sponsorship information, or table reservations?

To talk to the event coordinator, call Wayne Stoehner at 314-504-0112.

Encounter

THU, JANUARY 27 | 7 PM

We offer a once-per-month opportunity to enter into the Lord's Presence in a unique way with Encounter. We will sing a little, talk a little, and pray a lot. Join us on the 4th Thursday of each month, 7:00-8:00 PM in the Church. Members of our Jonah Prayer Ministry will also be on hand to pray over your intentions. We try to be clear with those who join us at Encounter. These are small stepping stone experiences; the deeper and lasting encounters are in the Sacraments, in the Living Word, and in our daily prayer time.

Synopsis

"When the Son sets you free you are free indeed" - John 8:36

The Holy Spirit brings freedom from fear, anger, and the past. So often Christians find themselves bound by so many things and are not aware that the Holy Spirit wants to bring the freedom of God to them. Many are slaves to anger, envy, jealousy, comparisons, and addictions. You do not have to live life like that. In this segment we will discuss how the Holy Spirit can bring you greater freedom.

PARISH MISSION
60 MINUTES
FOR JESUS
REV. JAMES SICHKO
MARCH 27-29

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God’s special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God’s word in the syna-gogue with true conviction and tells those gath-ered that he is the fulfill-ment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though peo-ple get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God’s timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God’s word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and be-come open to God’s love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God’s power. It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means “beloved of God,” a name that can be used by any-one who desires friend-ship with God. ©LPI

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION

January 2022

For true human fraternity

We pray for all those suffering from religious discrimination and persecution; may their own rights and dignity be recognized, which originate from being brothers and sisters in the human family.

WELCOME TO ST. PATRICK PARISH

St. Patrick Parish is a diverse and vibrant community of faith that offers many opportunities to enrich your spiritual life, serve those in need, educate your family, and most importantly, to belong. Whoever you are, no matter where you find yourself on the journey of faith, you are welcome and wanted here.
