30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. - Mk 10:51-52

Excerpt from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1979 CCC

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Parish News

COVID-19 Parish Guidelines Effective August 9, 2021

There is a growing concern in our medical communities that the Delta variant could begin to overwhelm local healthcare facilities, as it is in other parts of the state, country and world. Due to the strong recommendation of the healthcare community, which includes consultation with the local community:

There is an expectation that all unvaccinated be masked at all indoor parish functions including the Celebration of the Mass. We would also strongly encourage all vaccinated parishioners to mask at this time, because there is growing evidence that vaccinated transmissions can still take place. We continue to strongly recommend that everyone mask indoors and to please postpone unnecessary meetings. Large gatherings that include a meal are also being discouraged for the time being.
Everyone dispensing the Eucharist should be masked and Eucharistic Ministers should sanitize their hands after receiving the Eucharist.

Fr. Mike And Blessed Mother Parish,

Thank you for all your help and prayers during our difficult time. Rosie had over three years to endure a lot of suffering and mental anguish from that horrible disease. God rewarded her with a pass through the gate to Heaven. I intend to remain a member of this parish as long as I can get around, and hope I can attend many more masses than I have been able to since we moved here.

Thank you all and please pray for me and my family.

Norbert Smith

Giving Tree

Christmas, please contact the parish office. We help families and individuals only if requested by a parishioner. Our tree goes up Thanksgiving week, so the names with clothing sizes need to be turned in by November 19th.

Deacon Brett's Discourse

God accomplished our redemption the way that God wanted to accomplish it. Realizing that, we can appreciate some of the specific calls that have covered the long distance in God's calling us back to Himself.

Jeremiah was called as a youth. His rejected warnings were not enough for avoiding the Exile, but the Exile did not prevent him from offering God's assurance of consoling liberation. When that liberation took form as a return from Babylon, God's People expressed gratitude – and their sense of a call to a fuller kind of restoration still to come. Because Jesus, God the Son, was eternally called by God the Father to be the High Priest of our redemption, then there is no arrogance from God in it – only obedience and humility. Bartimaeus was called into an encounter personally by and with Jesus. The blind man gained his sight because his faith saw the opportunity being offered to him, and he responded to it courageously.

These, and other calls, have relayed God's long call for our redeemed conversion. Let's get the message: God loves us! That truth will make all the difference at any time that we pick up on hearing it.

Pope Francis's Prayer to Mary During Coronavirus Pandemic

O Mary, you always shine on our path as a sign of salvation and of hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who at the cross took part in Jesus' pain, keeping your faith firm. You, Salvation of the Roman People, know what we need, and we are sure you will provide so that, as in Cana of Galilee, we may return to joy and to feasting after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform to the will of the Father and to do as we are told by Jesus, who has taken upon himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows to lead us, through the cross, to the joy of the resurrection. Amen.

Under your protection, we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God. Do not disdain the entreaties of we who are in trial, but deliver us from every danger, O glorious and blessed Virgin.

Laugh of the Week

After a rich business man died, his family met in the lawyer's office for the reading of the will.

The man left $8 million dollars to his wife, 1 million dollars to be divided between his brothers and $1 million dollars to be divided between his sisters.

The will went on to read: "and to my nephew Ralph, who always reminded me he would truly appreciate it if he could be mentioned in my will, I say hello Ralph!!"
