2nd Sunday In Ordinary Time January 16, 2022

2ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." - Jn 2:1-3

Excerpta from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

I know well the plans I have in mind for you, Says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you, says the Lord, and I will change your lot...

Jeremiah 29:11-14

A special thank you to the vocalists and instrumentalists who attended more than one mass so that the music at every mass reflected the joy of the season.

Deacon Brett's Discourse

At times, the Gospel according to John can be as urgent as Mark, as contextualizing as Matthew, and as scene-setting as Luke – but all to serve a uniquely intense revelation of Jesus. We get our first sign of Jesus as revealed by John's Gospel at the Cana wedding – literally.

In John, Jesus works seven signs– and the changing of water into wine is the first. If we're focusing on either the water or the wine that it becomes, we're not really focusing on who is signified. The signs in the Gospel of John reveal Jesus himself. Jesus is the other Groom at – not of – the Cana wedding. From that occasion on, Jesus chooses to be supremely, intimately loving. He is – and eternally remains – open to laying his life down in order to share and give new, eternal life to his beloved – and thus does Jesus so love the world.

Normally, it's probably not best to be married to your work, but Jesus the Groom is an identifying relationship rather than a job. We can also recognize Mary's wedding gift to her son. Her intercession allows Jesus to begin his ministry in humble deference rather than hero mode.

COVID-19 Parish Guidelines

There is a growing concern in our medical communities that the Delta variant could begin to overwhelm local healthcare facilities, as it is in other parts of the state, country and world. Due to the strong recommendation of the healthcare community, which includes consultation with the local community:

There is an expectation that all unvaccinated be masked at all indoor parish functions including the Celebration of the Mass. We would also strongly encourage all vaccinated parishioners to mask at this time, because there is growing evidence that vaccinated transmissions can still take place. We continue to strongly recommend that everyone mask indoors and to please postpone unnecessary meetings. Large gatherings that include a meal are also being discouraged for the time being. Everyone dispensing the Eucharist should be masked and Eucharistic Ministers should sanitize their hands after receiving the Eucharist.

Laugh of the Week

A rather stingy man died and went to Heaven. He was met at the front gate by St. Peter, who led him on a house tour down the golden streets. They passed mansion after beautiful mansion until they came to the end of the street and stopped in front of a tiny shack without gold paving in front. "And here is where you'll be living, sir," Peter announced. "Me live here?" the stingy man yelled. "How come?" Peter replied, "I did the best I could with the money you sent us."

Outreach to the Unaffiliated

On our website and FB page, there is an excellent YouTube video from the USCCB. This resource explores questions related to the increasing number of people who identify as religiously unaffiliated, and it highlights five effective avenues for reaching out to them. The median age of individuals who leave the Catholic Church is 13!!! Please watch the 25 minute video and reach out to others who have left the Church or do not believe in God. Then, help them contact Fr Mike or Fr Jamie to ask questions about their Faith.
